Howard Wiens, Bible Student, Dies in Dallas

Statesman News Service
DALLAS, March 28 — Howard Ray Wiens, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Wiens of Dallas, died here Monday following a year's illness.

Before becoming ill he had been studying to be a missionary at the Pacific Bible Institute at Fresno, Calif. He was born in Dallas Aug. 14, 1930, and attended Dallas public schools. He completed his high school work at the Salem academy in West Salem.

Wiens was active in church work during the past several years and was a member of the Salem Youth Center quartette for two years.

Surviving besides the parents are two sisters, Mrs. Reuben Bartlett of Bakersfield, Calif., and Shirley Wiens of Dallas, and a brother, Richard Wiens, also of Dallas.

Funeral services will be held from the Mennonite Brethren church in Dallas Saturday at 2 p.m., the Rev. G. H. Jantzen officiating. Interment will be in the IOOF cemetery.
