Many Leave on Spring Trips, Others Return

Travelers continue to come and go with several arriving home this week from extended trips. With the public schools closing this week for spring vacation a number of families are taking the opportunity for trips to the beach, mountains and even farther.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh are home from a fortnight's trip to Carmel Valley. Returning home with them for a visit were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rosebraugh of New York City.

Mrs. William H. Lytle returned to the capital on Tuesday from a trip to the Hawaiian Islands. She made the trip both ways on the Lurline and spent most of her time in Honolulu, flying over to the island of Hawaii. Mrs. Lytle was met on arriving in the islands by her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gattie of Portland, who had been sojourning in the islands and the Salem traveler also visited with the Lowell Kerns of Portland, formerly of Salem, who were vacationing in Hawaii.

Headed North
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herrall and daughter, Linda, are leaving today for Victoria and Vancouver, B.C. and other points north for the ensuing ten days.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine and children, Bill and Becky, are leaving today for Neskowin to vacation at their summer home during the spring vacation. Also at Neskowin for the coming week at their beach home will be Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brown and sons, John and Clifford.

Mrs. A. Terrence King and children, Jimmy, Al and Carolyn, will spend the coming week at Suttle Lake lodge, where they will enjoy some skiing. Joining them for part of the week will be Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Lancefield and children, Neil and Margaret.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Loder and son, Peter, are enroute today for Los Angeles and other southern points. They will drive home, stopping in LaJolla and Camel for short sojourns.

Mrs. Carl Cole of San Francisco is spending the week in Salem at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hug.

Chi Omega mothers will meet with Mrs. A. R. Newton, 1100 Cheneketa street tonight at 8 o'clock.

Miss Ruby Bairey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Bairey, whose engagement to William E. Weiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Weiss, has been revealed. No wedding date has been set. (Kennell-Ellis)

Will Celebrate Birthday

Barbara Fenix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fenix, will celebrate her seventh birthday at a party Saturday afternoon at the Fenix home on South High street. Guests have been bidden to come at 2 o'clock and after games refreshments will be served. The Easter motif will be used in the decorations and favors and assisting Mrs. Fenix will be Mrs. G. Herbert Smith.

Honoring Barbara will be Eileen Hadley, Julia Linfoot, Margaret Lancefield, Catheryn and Carolyn Stadler, Kathy Joseph, Marianne Ward, Karen Schott, Pattie Lee, Patty and Mary Fenix.

Barristers' Wives Feted...

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

TEA TIME ... on Thursday at the lovely and spacious home of the Bruce Spauldings ... arranged by wives of members of the Marion county bar ... all lawyers wives in the county invited ... Special guests were wives of supreme court justices and wives of members of the board of governors of the state bar, who were in Salem for their annual meeting on Thursday ... In the evening the women going on to the Legion club for a no-host dinner ...

At the door ... Mrs. Spaulding, in an attractive two piece blue dress with trim of ruching in a deeper shade ... Josephine singing a group of numbers during the afternoon ... Receiving ... Mrs. Norman Winslow in a print afternoon dress ... Mrs. Hall Lusk in navy blue accented with watermelon red ... and Mrs. Wallace Carson in a black tea dress ... A delightful and most informal affair ... and a get-acquainted tea for many as the first time in many years that the lawyers' wives have all been together ...

The tea table ... a pink satin cloth with a leghorn hat for a centerpiece ... and clusters of primroses and carnations on the hat and arranged on blue satin ribbon ... pink tapers in crystal holders at either end of the table ... Bouquets of daffodils, forsythia and fruit blossoms about the rooms ...

From out-of-town ... came Mrs. Paul Geddes of Roseburg, smartly dressed in a black suit with cape style jacket and black off the face straw ... She hopes to be back again next year if her husband is reelected state representative ...

Mrs. Gordon Sloan up from Astoria and chic in black with a white hat and furs ... Petite Mrs. Willard Schwinn of Hillsboro in a gray suit and white pique hat ... Nice to see Mrs. William McAllister of Medford, who used to live here and has returned often with her legislator husband ... Jean tells us Bill is not running for reelection and they hope to soon start construction on a new home ... Jean, pretty as ever, and wearing a good-looking sun gold suit and matching hat ... Mrs. Andrew Koerber of Portland, accompanied by her doted daughter, Ann, home from Stanford during the spring vacation ... In navy was Mrs. Alec Brown of Portland ... and from Eugene came Mrs. William Riddleberger ... Mrs. Max McMillan (Janet Byrd) over from Silverton ... Mrs. Earl Latourette down from Oregon City and wearing a handsome navy blue gown with pleated skirt and a many strand pearl necklace ...

Assisting ... Mrs. Edward O. Stadler, Jr., in a becoming mist blue wool jersey with pleated skirt and matching costume jewelry ... Mrs. Allan Carson in a portrait blue satin gown ... her daughter, Ann, now enrolled at Willamette university ... a spring print for Miss Elizabeth Marie Bales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bales, whose betrothal to LaVerne Hayhurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hayhurst, has been revealed.

Mrs. Lawrence Osterman and brown for Mrs. Lawrence Brown ... also choosing a print frock was Mrs. Urtin S. Page, who is busy these days with plans for the new home they hope to build atop Fairmount Hill.

Mrs. Edgar A. Linden, Jr., was hostess for a dessert luncheon and afternoon of bridge on Thursday for members of her club at her Candalaria Heights home on Linden Lane.

Committee of Hostesses Is Named

Plans are being completed for the Governor's state conference on Children and Youth to be held at the state capital building on April 13 and 14, which will attract over a thousand people to Salem from throughout the state and well known educators and speakers.

Governor Douglas McKay has appointed Miss Dorathea Steusloff as chairman of the hostess committee, which met Thursday to outline plans for the two day conference. Assisting Miss Steusloff on the hostess committee are Mrs. Mark H. Astrup, Mrs. George Alling, Miss Marion Bowen, Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Mrs. Genevieve Forsythe of Portland, Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mrs. Gus Moore, Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. George H. Swift, Mrs. Dean Walker of Independence, Mrs. John R. Wood and Mrs. Clifford Zollinger. The women will assist with registration, making preliminary preparations for the conference and serving as hostesses for the various sections of the conference.

Governor McKay is honorary chairman of the committee on children and youth and Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar of Portland is chairman with Dr. Carl G. Ashley, Portland, as vice-chairman. Sessions will be held in the house of representatives and following the closing session on Friday, April 14 Governor and Mrs. McKay will receive informally at a reception in the governor's offices. The conference is divided into eight sections, family life, education, health, mental health, child welfare services, recreation, juvenile delinquency, youth and employment and public relations. The conference is being held in preparation for the mid-century White House conference to be held in December, 1950.

William Park Honored

William H. Park, formerly of Salem, but now in Portland, recently celebrated his 81st birthday with his children and two nephews at a birthday party at the residence of his daughter, Lella M. Park.
