

Table with weather forecasts for Salem, Portland, San Francisco, and Chicago, including max/min temperatures and precipitation.

Turman Wilson Fights Extradition Plan

IT SEEMS LONG

By Charles A. Sprague
Travel Letter No. 8
WINTER HAVEN, Fla. — The citrus belt of Florida extends along the ridgepole of the peninsula. It isn't much of an elevation (max. 324 ft.) but the soil is better and the air drainage gives escape from frost damage.
Here we are visiting a cousin who moved here from Kansas in 1920 — our first meeting in 38 years. He is a grower of oranges, grapefruit and tangerines. He has been a good source of information about citrus culture and took us to see a packing plant, a cannery and a plant for frozen juice concentrate. The latter is a recent development as an outlet for citrus fruit and has given a big lift to the market. Production conforms to rigid standards as to quality and sanitation.
Citrus groves are long-lived — 40 to 50 years — and require comparatively little attention. Some pruning, sprays and a limited amount of irrigation to supplement the rains.
Citrus-growing may be rocking-chair agriculture. The grower may join a cooperative which will tend his grove, pick, haul, pack or process his fruit and sell it. If the hurricanes
(Continued on editorial page, 4)

Globe-Hopping Pair Race Across India

NEWARK, N. J., April 2 — Dianna and Bob Bixby wave goodbye to Newark, N. J., airport (April 1) as they take off for Paris on the second leg of an attempt to better the round-the-world flight record. The husband and wife team flew east from San Francisco in seven hours, two minutes. (AP Wirephoto to The Statesman.)

California Fliers Hope to Beat Odom's Round-World Record

KARACHI, Pakistan, Monday, April 3 — Dianna and Bob Bixby landed at Karachi airport at 8:15 a. m. today from Cairo, Egypt, in their attempt to set a new record for a round-the-world flight. They took off for Calcutta, India, at 8:05 a. m. (8:35 p. m. Sunday PST).
The flight from Cairo, 2,237 miles, took six hours and 12 minutes. The Bixbys began their flight at 9:03 a. m. (EST) Saturday at San Francisco. They are trying to beat the globe-girdling record established in 1947 by the late Bill Odom — 73 hours, five minutes and 11 seconds, of elapsed time.
The Bixbys had put their Mosquito bomber down at Farouk field, Cairo, at 11:59 a. m. (EST). They took off from Cairo for Karachi at 1:33 p. m. (EST) yesterday.
The couple said they hoped to fly from Calcutta over China direct to Tokyo, an estimated 3,200 miles.
The Bixbys' whose home is at Santa Paula, Calif., both expressed confidence in their chances to set a new record, despite the fact they are behind the schedule they had set for themselves.
They had hoped to make the hop to Karachi in six hours and 15 minutes. From Calcutta they will hop to Tokyo, to Midway and back to Frisco.
They left Paris at 10:33 a. m. GMT (5:33 a. m. EST), thus making their time for the 2,015-mile flight to Cairo six hours and 25 minutes, seven minutes better than they had hoped to do.
They left San Francisco at 9:03 a. m. (EST) yesterday.
Their flying time Frisco to Cairo — 8,194 miles, or better than a third of the distance — was 24 hours and 32 minutes. They hope to make it all the way around in 59 hours flying time and be back in California before midnight tomorrow night.
In Paris, the flying couple, sun-tanned, grinning and tired, stepped from their red and silver plane — named the Huntress — in bright sunlight, just after a heavy shower.
"We haven't had any sleep yet," Mrs. Bixby told reporters, and added "we're a little less than an hour behind schedule."

Police Checking Prints

SACRAMENTO, Calif., April 2 — Turman Wilson, wanted in Vancouver, Wash. along with his brother, Utah, for the kidnaping of Jo Ann Deway, tonight told law enforcement officials from that city that he will not waive extradition.
His 20-year-old brother, however, said he will waive extradition when brought into court tomorrow morning.
Immediately after, he will be taken by automobile to Vancouver, in custody of four police officials.
Turman's decision to resist extradition came tonight after he had undergone a full day's questioning by Washington officers. The 24-year-old prisoner said he would not waive under any circumstance "until I am provided counsel." Vancouver Police Chief Harry Diamond said.
To Prepare Papers
Clark County Sheriff Earl Anderson said he would ask R. DeWitt Jones, Clark county prosecutor, to prepare the necessary requisition papers. They will then have to be signed by the governor of Washington, Arthur B. Langlie. Upon arrival here, Gov. Earl Warren of California will have to approve Turman's extradition.
Deputy William Scott will remain here until Turman's extradition can be effected.
The Wilson brothers are charged with kidnaping the girl from a Vancouver street March 19. The detectives said the unconscious girl was placed in the Wilson's car and died of monoxide poisoning from a faulty exhaust pipe. Thrown into Creek
Her nude body was thrown into Wind creek, about 50 miles from Vancouver.
The brothers have steadfastly denied connection with the crime since their arrest in downtown Sacramento last Thursday.
PORTLAND, Ore., April 2 — (AP) — City police technicians continued working today in their attempt to link Jo Ann Deway's fingerprints with a sedan the murdered girl was believed abducted in.
Technician Joe Morgan said the car in which the girl was believed to have died had been eliminated. But he was still working with prints from the black Buick sedan and those taken from the girl's corpse.
Other Evidence
Detectives Capt. William D. Bryne said other evidence indicated the girl had been in the car. But linking of the prints would help the state in any trial of brothers Turman and Utah Wilson, charged with murdering and abducting the girl.
He said police had not yet received laboratory reports from strands of hair and a bone splinter found in the Pontiac. This car also had human blood on the rear seat, Bryne reported.

Flying Frenchman Lands in Salem On Trans-U.S. Flight in $400 Plane

Nazi-Helper Lost at Sea; Mysterious Sub Nearby

AVALON, Catalina Island, Calif., April 2 — (AP) — A picture of scar-faced Theodore Donay, 51, Detroit, who went to prison in 1943 for helping shield the escape of a German flyer, was identified tonight as that of the man who vanished at sea last night, a few hours before a mystery submarine was sighted off the southern California coast.
Constable K. McDavid said an Associated Press wirephoto of Donay had been identified by Ray Dodge, boat rental dock attendant, as the man who rented a boat from him last night. McDavid said Dodge told him the man left his wallet with him as security for the boat.
The wallet, McDavid said, contained a driver's license and business cards identifying the man as Theodore Donay, 51, Detroit, and indicated he worked for an importing and exporting concern.
McDavid said a printed form, with the top half torn off, was found in the man's hotel room. He said the paper carried the words: "Delivery over the counter in Berlin or by parcel post in Berlin to the Russian zone from stock in Berlin by parcel post from New York."
No. 265, lard in tins, sugar, rice, roasted coffee, cocoa whole milk powder, $5.60 lb."
McDavid said several other similar items were listed on the printed form.
McDavid quoted Dodge as saying a man with a scar on the left side of his face rented a boat from him at 3:30 yesterday afternoon and promised to return in an hour. After several hours passed a search was begun. McDavid finally found the boat with its running lights on and its engine turned off some eight miles northeast of Avalon.
The spot where the boat was found is about 125 miles south of Point Arguello, where coast-guardmen said they saw a craft they believed to be a surfaced submarine at 6:20 a. m. today. The navy said there were no American submarines in that area.
McDavid said the coincidence of the man's disappearance at sea and the sighting of the mystery submarine had been noted by investigating officers. He said, however, there was "no concrete evidence" that the two incidents were related in any way.
The federal bureau of investigation declined to comment on whether it was investigating the case.
Donay was the first man in the history of the United States to be convicted of misprision of treason. The charge technically is not treason but is akin to it. Donay was accused of failing to report the presence in Detroit in 1942 of an escaped Nazi pilot, Hans Peter Krug.
He was convicted at Detroit in 1943 and sentenced to six and a half years. Last October, he started an action in the U. S. court of appeals at Cincinnati for restoration of citizenship.
The tall, saber-scarred Donay described himself as a "Prussian aristocrat" at the time of his trial, who built up a small fortune in the export-import business.
Court records showed he was born in Germany and his name originally was Thaddeus Donaj. He served as a German army corporal in World War I. As a student at Alenburg university in Germany he received a saber cut that left a deep scar on one cheek.
Government witnesses testified that Donay often asserted: "Germany was run by Jews and Hitler was right — the Jews should be exterminated."

Man in Morgue Dead — Drunk

DAYTON, O., April 2 — (AP) — A strange "body" turned up today in the morgue-garage of a Dayton funeral home.
Guy Magetti, operator of the funeral home, called police and told them there was a "dead man" in the morgue he knew nothing about.
When police arrived, he led them to a hearth in the garage.
They opened up a rubber bag used by morticians. Aaron E. Talley, 40, of Dayton, clad in underwear, blinked his eyes and asked:
"Where am I?"
Police gathered up his clothes, piled in the garage, and booked him on an intoxication charge.

Amateur Pilot Lands in Salem On Trip East

A 21-year-old French flier who left Seattle Saturday night, bound on a zig-zag flight for New York with a $400 plane and one-month's knowledge of flying landed Sunday night in Salem.
The pilot, Jacques Henry Istel, had been expected at the Portland airport where he previously announced he would stop on his cross-country jaunt.
Istel, a pilot of two weeks, is off to a zig-zag start on his proposed flight east. Forty-eight hours after his initial takeoff, he was about 200 miles south, right here in Salem.
The flight began Saturday from Seattle. The first leg, a hedge-hop by most pilots' figuring, took him about 30 miles to McChord field near Tacoma.
Tuesday to Olympia
Sunday he left Tacoma and landed at Olympia about 2 p. m. From Olympia he headed for Salem and dropped here at 6:15.
Novice Pilot
Istel took his first flying lessons one month ago in Vancouver, B. C. He secured his pilot's license two weeks ago. He said last Saturday he couldn't read a map properly until that time.
He plans to fly to New York, sell his plane and take a boat back to France. The Parisian had been in Canada on a business trip.
At the Salem airport control tower Sunday night, Edwin R. Fisher, control tower operator, said he noticed nothing unusual about Istel's arrival in Salem.
"His radioing procedure was definitely that of an amateur," Fisher said. "But many fliers never do master that phase of it with any skill."
Perfect Landing
"He landed perfectly into a cross-wind," he added.
The flier's bright-red PT-26, a war surplus, two-seated army trainer, was tied down. Istel left no word of his plans except that he expected to take off this morning.
Fisher talked with the airport manager at Olympia Sunday night and was told that Istel had planned to come to Salem, instead of to Portland as he previously had announced.

Daily Church Services Set For Holy Week

A series of daily interdenominational Holy Week services will begin today noon at St. Paul's Episcopal church, sponsored jointly by Salem YMCA and YWCA. The worship program will be from 12:30 to 1:30 p. m.
The service each day will include organists from different churches, invocation by the Rev. George H. Swift, host pastor, two congregational hymns.
The daily theme, speaker and vocal soloist will be as follows:
Monday — "The Day of Authority"; the Rev. Dudley Strain of First Christian church; Victor Wolfe.
Tuesday — "The Day of Controversy"; the Rev. Brooks H. Moore of First Methodist church; Betty Starr Anderson.
Wednesday — "The Day of Silence"; Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson of First Baptist church; Josephine Albert Spaulding.
Thursday — "The Day of Fellowship"; Dr. Chester Hamblin of First Presbyterian church; Ronald Craven.

Police Called To Prevent Teeth Brushing

A Salem telephone operator was startled Sunday night when a voice yelled, "Give me the police department, quick."
In the background a woman's scream was heard.
Just as a city police officer picked up the phone at headquarters, the connection was broken. The operator quickly relayed the information about the "scream" to police and traced the call for them.
Two squad cars speeded to the scene, a house on south 12th street. Officers knocked at the door. A woman answered.
"Help, my son called the police for help when I told him to brush his teeth before he went to bed," she said. "I screamed at him and cut off the phone."
Officers were led to the bedroom. The youngster took one quick look and then dived under the covers. He had nothing further to say.
And his teeth, by the way, were brushed.

Police Called To Prevent Teeth Brushing

A Salem telephone operator was startled Sunday night when a voice yelled, "Give me the police department, quick."
In the background a woman's scream was heard.
Just as a city police officer picked up the phone at headquarters, the connection was broken. The operator quickly relayed the information about the "scream" to police and traced the call for them.
Two squad cars speeded to the scene, a house on south 12th street. Officers knocked at the door. A woman answered.
"Help, my son called the police for help when I told him to brush his teeth before he went to bed," she said. "I screamed at him and cut off the phone."
Officers were led to the bedroom. The youngster took one quick look and then dived under the covers. He had nothing further to say.
And his teeth, by the way, were brushed.

Man Killed, 5 Injured in 99-E Wreck

A Portland man was killed and three other persons, two of them Salem residents, were hospitalized Sunday in a head-on auto collision on the Pacific highway near Hubbard.
Dead is: Frank B. Chessmore, 60, Portland, driver of one auto.
Injured are:
Mrs. Eva L. Chessmore, 54, wife of the deceased and a passenger with him, facial lacerations and internal injuries.
Theron Harvey Field, 30, Salem route 2, driver of the other auto, serious knee bruises.
Harold K. Field, 26, Salem route 2, fractured jaw.
Jack Bowman, 776 N. Commercial, facial lacerations.
Flora Ann Chessmore, 12, daughter of the Chessmores, minor cuts and bruises.
Mrs. Chessmore, Harold Field and Bowman all were confined Sunday night at Salem Memorial hospital. Attendants said Mrs. Chessmore's condition was "serious" and termed the other two "fair."

Stomachache Delays Bridges Jury's Debate

(Picture on page 10)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 2 — (AP) — A stomach upset abruptly ended today's Palm Sunday deliberations of the Harry Bridges perjury trial jury after only three hours.
The indisposition of a Chinese juror, halted at 4:30 p. m. until 9 a. m. tomorrow, the efforts of eight men and four women to decide whether the CIO longshore leader lied in 1945 when he said he never was a communist.
The jurors, departing from federal court custom by continuing the third day of their deliberations into a Sunday, had resumed work on the case about 1:30 p. m. after a morning of relaxation.
The ailing juror, Yick Kuen Wong, was not in any serious condition, physicians advised.
Government witnesses testified that Bridges had committed perjury at his naturalization hearing, was playing chess when the clerk, Edward Mitchell, appeared.
Bridges had seemed to be engrossed in the game but when the clerk came in the defendant looked up quickly and said:
"Hey, wait! Let's listen."
Two union sides accused of conspiracy, for their supporting testimony at the naturalization hearing, also looked up, one from a game of canasta, the other from reading a magazine.
There were quick smiles when the clerk stated his business.
The three-hour deliberation today ran the jury's total since getting the case to 18 1/2 hours.

Tornado Hits Arkansas City

TUCKERMAN, Ark., April 2 — (AP) — Ten persons were injured, one fatally, by a tornado today which most of Jackson county's doctors were attending a funeral.
Final rites for Dr. J. B. Ivy were delayed as physicians and nurses left hurriedly to treat the storm victims.
Mrs. Floyd Clayton died in a Newport, Ark., hospital about four hours after the twister destroyed the Clayton home. Her husband was critically injured.

Realty Business Shows Sharp Rise

Numerous real estate transactions contributed to a near-record volume of business for the Marion county recorder's office during March, Recorder Herman Lanke reported Saturday.
Fees for March totaled $2,778, about 50 per cent above the average for recent months.

Truman Asks Post-ECA Plan

KEY WEST, Fla., April 2 — (AP) — President Truman tonight ordered quick action to create dollars abroad to keep international trade alive when Marshall plan aids end in 1952.
He directed Gordon Gray, retiring secretary of the army, to formulate a plan to help foreign countries find the hard currency necessary to pay for United States exports.
The trade balance is now being maintained by annual United States grants totalling $5,000,000, 000.
Gray will undertake the study as a special assistant to the president, relinquishing his army post to budget director Frank Pace, jr.

Politics on Parade . . . Who's Running for What in the May Primaries!

(Editor's note: Comments in this section are made by or for the candidates without restriction, and may or may not reflect the opinion of this newspaper.)
Today's subject:
Mrs. Joe Rogers (r)
Candidates for State Representative (Folk)
In answer to your letter and invitation to write (for the Political Parade):
I am Mrs. Joe Rogers, w., of four miles north of Independence. I have filed for representative for Folk county in the state legislature. I have four children, three sons and a daughter. One of the sons was professor in Ashland High school several years; the other two are farmers on adjoining farms; the daughter a part-time teacher in Albany school. All are married. My husband died four years ago. My son, his wife and myself operate the large grain and dairy farm where we all live together. I have been Community club president and also 4-H club leader, having with the members' help sent 13 youngsters to OSC summer school. Some of them have been outstanding. I have been chairman of several political meetings.
In Independence and Dallas at present I work in co-operation with Wilbur Rich and wife of McMinnville, Dick Rice of Hillsboro, Marc Groesbeck of Albany, Gus Blayton of Oregon City, Al Orchest of Woodburn. So I meet a great many people. If I am nominated and later elected I feel qualified for this important job to serve and co-operate with all. I am a grange member of Monmouth. I would do the best of my ability to all, made no promises to any certain group.
(Resumes—Belle Smith)

Left-Handed Cups Ordered

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 2 — (AP) — Chicago's left-handed coffee drinkers have been recognized.
The Onondaga Pottery company disclosed today it had received an order for 300 "left-handed" cups for a Chicago hotel.
The southpaw cups, said Edwin R. Henrichs, director of products design, are part of an order for new china for the hotel. To make the cups left-handed, he explained, the crest will be imprinted to the right of the handle so it will face the drinker.

Lola Patrick May Survive

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., April 2 — (AP) — Blonde Follies Lola Patrick was still alive today and may survive bullet wounds of her attempted suicide and face trial in the murder of her 6-year-old son.
However, the Valley hospital reported Mrs. Patrick, who shot herself in the bedroom with a .22 caliber gun, has "no will" to live. She tried to take her own life after shooting the boy while in an auto service station rest room last Friday.
Klamath county sheriff's deputies remained on duty in the hospital room guarding against any other suicide attempt.

Prisoners Vanish Through Hole In Michigan Jail

MT. CLEMENS, Mich., April 2 — (AP) — Four prisoners worked themselves out of the Macomb county jail last night through an 18-inch hole. They had carved it in the wall in three weeks of effort.
There was no trace of the fugitives today.
"They've just vanished," Sheriff Harley Egan said.
A fifth prisoner became wedged in the jagged hole. Otherwise, the sheriff said, the break might have involved all 10 inmates in the south section of the 68-year-old jail.

Table with 3 columns: Year, Last Year, Normal. Rows for 1949, 1948, 1947.

Animal Crackers

Goering Treasure Search Continues

MUNICH, Germany, April 2 — (AP) — Workmen will resume digging in an old Bavarian castle tomorrow in search of more treasure buried there by the late No. 2 Nazi, Hermann Goering.
A hoard of art objects and rare liquors was found, there last Friday after a tip by a former Nazi concentration camp prisoner.

Smallpox in Glasgow

GLASGOW, Scotland, April 2 — (AP) — More than 3,000 persons were vaccinated in Glasgow today as health authorities fought a serious outbreak of smallpox. Two hundred hospitals have been quarantined in the west of Scotland.

FASSENGERS INJURED
MAUCH CHUNG, Pa., April 2 — (AP) — A shuttle train crashed into the rear of a 13-car passenger train today injuring at least 20 persons, none seriously.

GOP Digests Campaign Statement to 99 Words

WASHINGTON, April 2 — (AP) — The republicans today boiled down their 1950 campaign statement into 99 words to get it over to the voter.
The statement was set forth recently as an outline of principles and objectives supplementing the 1948 party platform.
The official digest:
(1) Reducing taxes.
(2) Balancing budget.
(3) Eliminating government waste, especially along lines of Hoover commission reports.
(4) Fighting communism here instead of condoning it.
(5) Providing fair market prices on farm products aided by price supports—cooperative marketing, soil conservation, reclamation, rural electrification—no Brannan plan.
(6) Continuing and improving Taft-Hartley law to protect public from excessive power of labor and management.
(7) Developing a adequate social security system that does not limit opportunity nor discourage initiative and saving.
(8) Protecting rights of veterans and minorities.
(9) Developing a United American foreign policy for peace—world trade without undermining American living standards.
(10) Safeguarding liberty against socialism.
The digest was compiled from the statement of republican principles and objectives adopted here February 6 at a meeting of party leaders.

BASEBALL

COAST LEAGUE
At Hollywood 3-3, Portland 7-4
At Sacramento 5-4, Los Angeles 4-1
At San Diego 6-4, San Francisco 4-1
At Oakland 1-4, Seattle 13-3

The Scriptures Of Holy Week

The scriptural story of Jesus from the triumphant entry to the resurrection, from Luke's version, will be presented each day of Holy Week, beginning today, in The Statesman. Each selection will be accompanied by a copy of a Gustave Dove painting of the life of Christ. Beginning today on page 4 in