

New Kiln in Use at Salem Heights School

SALEM HEIGHTS—Three students, Carol Beard, Carol Margri and Donna Zeh, are shown Wednesday placing clay figurines in the new kiln at Salem Heights school. The electric oven is a present from the Salem Heights Mothers club and will be used to cure ceramics work done by students in all Salem public schools. Mrs. Kenneth Zwicker, Mothers club president, and Mrs. George Beane, vice-president, were on hand Friday to supervise the first operation. (Statesman photo.)

West Stayton 4-H Night Set April 21

WEST STAYTON — Plans for Achievement Night April 21 were made in a meeting of the West Stayton Community club this week at the school.

During the special event at the school, local 4-H club members will exhibit projects completed during the past year. The members of the club presented the program before a large audience. In charge were Fred Dickman, chairman, and Lester Dowe and Herman Hendrickson. The next meeting May 5 will be followed by a pie social.

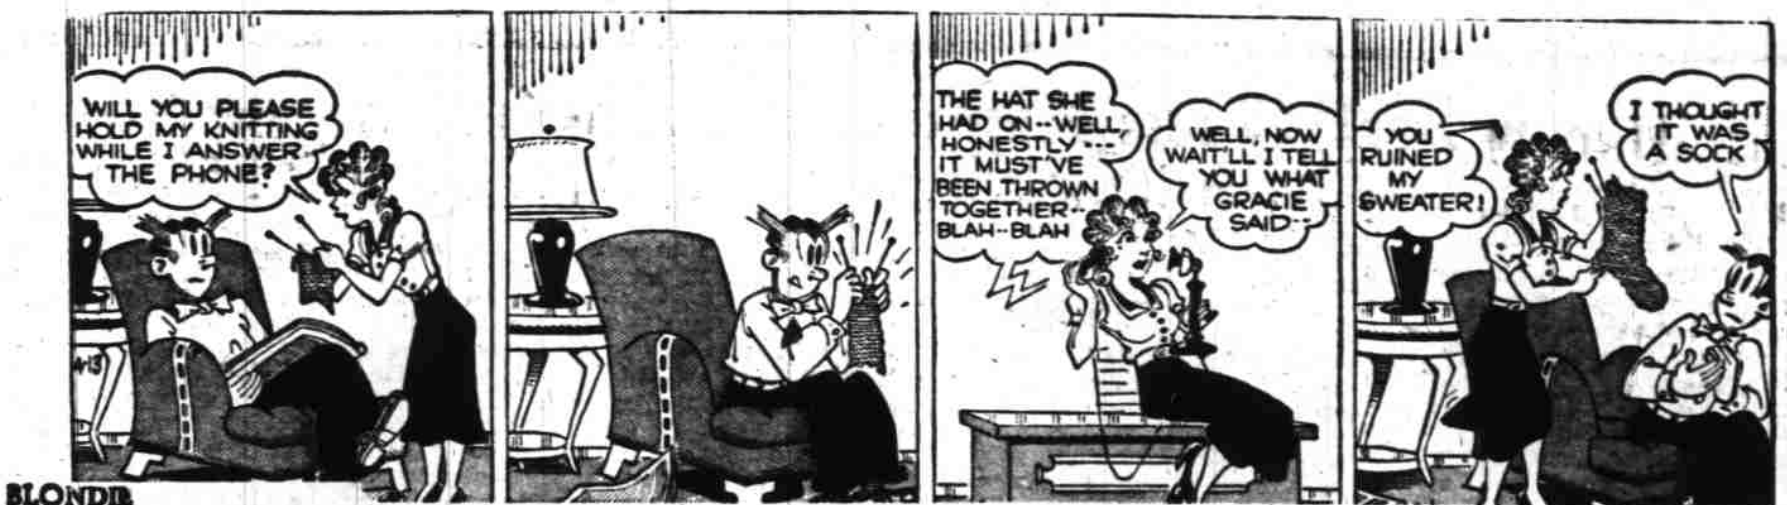

The West Stayton Hornets defeated Turner 11 to 5 in their second softball game of the season Friday.

Barbara McCoy entertained her young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McCoy. Games were played and refreshments served.

Present were Eddie Forrest, Billy Shafer, Kenneth Kendall, Dick Gilbert, Dewane Crandall, John Lammann, Willie Joe Holt, Curtis Stinnett, Pauline Jones, Charlene Perkins, Dorothy Smith, Fern Stinnett, Stella Markham, Dorothy Kale, Sue Ann Grimes and Diane Solberg.

Mrs. Pearl Darley was hostess to the Birthday club at her home. Mrs. Ada Stewart and Mrs. Edna Dowe received birthday gifts.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edna Wilkerson. Jack Helvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Helvey, has purchased his father's property at Gates and is remodeling the house into apartments.

BLONDIS

DIC

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

BUZZ SAWYER

MICKEY MOUSE

UP

GAL

BA

CHAMP HOODY

Valley Obituaries

Edna A. Musgrave
ALBANY—Funeral services for Mrs. Edna A. Musgrave, 64, who died at the family home here Sunday, were held from the Fisher Funeral home Wednesday. The Rev. Orville Mick officiated. Burial was in the Willamette Memorial park.

Edna Rehart was born March 16, 1884, in Lakeview, and had lived in Portland and Goldendale, Wash., previous to coming to Albany 22 years ago. On August 16, 1903, she was married to Frank W. Musgrave. He survives as do two children, Victor R. Musgrave of Medford, and Theodore W. Musgrave of Sweet Home. Surviving also are two brothers, William Rehart of Lakeview, and George Rehart of Medford; two sisters, Ella Grobe of Sacramento, Calif., and Mrs. Rose Bryan of Winthrop, Wash.; eight grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Anna O. Williams
ALBANY—Mrs. Anna Oella Williams, 93, died in a local nursing home Monday. Funeral arrangements are being made by the Fortmiller-Fredricksen Funeral home with the time and date to be announced later.

Anna Oella Ziegler was born in Iowa Feb. 17, 1857, going from there to Missouri in 1886, and coming to Albany in 1904, since then making her home in this city. She was a member of the Christian church in Missouri.

Robert J. Andrews
ALBANY—Following services at the Fisher Funeral home at 10 o'clock, Tuesday morning, April 11, for Robert J. Andrews, 47, who died in an Albany hospital April 10, the body will be sent to Boise, Idaho, where burial will be in the Cloverdale Memorial Park. Mr. Andrews had been sick the past two months.

Robert Andrews was born at Hannibal, Mo., March 14, 1903, but had lived in Idaho from the time he was a small boy until Jan. 1, 1949, at which time he came to Albany to take the management of the Burch shoe store. Andrews was a member of Nampa (Idaho) lodge 29, A.F. & A.M.; Cyrus Chapter 2, Royal Arch Masons, Nampa; The Pocatello Consistory, Scottish Rite Masons; Gate City Chapter 61, Order Eastern Star, Pocatello; and the El Koranh Shrine Temple, Boise.

On Aug. 13, 1927, at Mountain Home, Ida., he married Bernice Boyesen. She survives as does a son, Robert B. Andrews of Albany, and a brother, James Andrews of Meridian, Ida.

Edward Hansen Hage
SILVERTON—Graveside services were held Wednesday at 1 o'clock at Valley View cemetery for Edward Hansen Hage, 81, who was found dead in the Cowlitz River near Longview, Wash., Sunday. The Rev. S. L. Almils of Immanuel Lutheran church officiated.

Hage was last heard of on March 8 when he left here to visit a daughter in Kelso. He never arrived at the daughter's home. Officials believed he fell into the river while visiting a friend on a house boat at Kelso.

Survivors are the widow, Henrietta Hage, Silvertown; a son, George Hage and a daughter, Mary Christian, both of Lebanon and a son and daughter in Kelso.

William J. Kiesling
SWEET HOME—Funeral services were held here Tuesday at the Howe-Huston funeral home for William J. Kiesling, who died at his home Friday. Interment was in the IOOF cemetery at Lebanon with members of the lodge acting as pallbearers. He was born at Ausable, Mich., Nov. 24, 1883, and came to Oregon 15 years ago and settled at Hubbard where he lived for 10 years. He came to Sweet Home 4 1/2 years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rosetta Kiesling, Sweet Home; two sons, Walter, of California and Arthur of Sweet Home; a daughter, Mrs. J. F. Bostond, of Sweet Home, and five grandchildren. Also surviving are two brothers, A. G. Kiesling, Redding, Calif., and M. C. Kiesling, Loveland, Colo.

Fred G. Evenden
WOODBURN—Funeral services for Fred G. Evenden, 63, retired Woodburn druggist who died Tuesday, will be held Friday at 2 p.m. from the Ringo chapel in Woodburn. The Rev. Clarence C. Cloum of the Episcopalian church will officiate, assisted by the Rev. D. Lester Fields. Final rites will be in the Belcrest Abbey mausoleum in Salem. The casket will be open to friends Friday until noon.

August Wolfe
WOODBURN—Funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. from the Ringo chapel in Woodburn for August Wolfe, 50, who died in a Salem hospital Tuesday night from burns suffered at his home in Woodburn Saturday night. Interment will be in Belle Passi cemetery near Woodburn.

Surviving are a brother, Elmer Wolfe of Broadacres; two sisters, Helen Rund of Salem and Irene Pramas of Broadacres. He was a long-time resident of Woodburn.

Rainbow Girls Hold Meeting at Mill City

MILL CITY — Accacia assembly, Order of Rainbow, will meet in Mill City Thursday, April 13, at 8 p.m. in the IOOF hall. Marlene Verbeek of Mill City is worthy advisor for the group.

The Mill City Parent-Teachers association will meet Thursday, April 13, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Officers will be elected and folk dancing will be included in the program.

Dolores Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Brewer, was ill last week at her home.

David Jones, son of Mrs. Beatrice Jones, returned to school this week after recovering from an attack of flu.

Mrs. Gordon Knox is confined at home with the flu.

Mrs. Nora Goodwin, recently in a Salem hospital for an operation, is improving satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith attended funeral services in Tillamook for Smith's father.

Gervais Scout Troop Handles Honor Court

GERVAIS — Local Boy Scout troop 54 had charge of the flag ceremony at the Silver Falls district court of honor held at Woodburn Tuesday night.

Frank Adams and Norman Keping received first aid merit badges. The May district court of honor will be held at Gervais.

Mrs. Antoine DeJardin is receiving treatment at the Woodburn hospital where she had been a patient since last week.

Marquam Couple Hosts For Family Party

MARQUAM — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Maurer, sr., entertained at a turkey dinner Easter Sunday for their children and families. The children were treated to an Easter egg hunt in the afternoon.

Present for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Maurer and family; Dorothy Dibale of Mt. Angel; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shepherd and family of West Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gerlits and family; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Maurer, jr.; Mildred Maurer and Carol Bremerstahl, Silvertown; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maurer and Andy of Marquam, and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wilson and family of Detroit.

Valley Briefs

Fairfield—Marion County Pomona Grange will hold its second quarter meeting at Fairfield Grange at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 19. The speaker will be Ivan Oakes, secretary of the Willamette basin development commission.

DeLake — Art students of the University of Oregon will hold an art exhibit at the Gallery by the Sea at DeLake starting Sunday, April 16. The gallery will be open every day except Monday and Tuesday from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Visitors are welcome.

Middle Grove — The Marion county health department will hold a dental clinic at Middle Grove school Friday, April 14, starting at 1 a.m. First and second grade students and children under three years of age will be examined. Pre-school children must be accompanied by their parents or guardians.

Woodburn—A total of 1,180 persons received chest x-rays in Woodburn last week, concluding 258 at the high school, according to Mrs. Ray Glatt, chairman.

Spring Valley—The Spring Valley Sunshine club will have its regular meeting at the schoolhouse at 8 p.m. Friday, April 14. The juniors will have charge of the program.

Mill City—Fire Chief Arlo Tuers is moving around on crutches as a result of a sprained ankle suffered in a ball game.

Mill City—Ruth Higdon is home on a 30-day leave from San Francisco.

Silvertown—Mrs. Norman Eastman is reported as improving at the family home on Welch street following a severe case of mumps.

She contracted the disease while visiting in Portland at the home of Eastman's sister, the Kelsey Slocums. The two young sons, John and Peter Slocum and their father were ill from the disease.

Keizer — The Keizer Parent-Teachers association will elect new officers in a meeting at the school Thursday, April 13, at 8 p.m. Frank B. Bennett, Salem public school superintendent, will be the speaker. Members of Keizer 4-H clubs will display their projects.

Lewis Benton Succumbs In Canada

SILVERTON — Leaving Wednesday for Vancouver, B. C., were Mrs. Neils Langsev, niece and Mrs. Frank Porter, grandniece, to attend the funeral services of Lewis Benton, 81, who died there Tuesday. Funeral services will be held Friday.

Benton, a brother of B. R. Benton, one of Silvertown's pioneer merchants, was the last member of the original members of the Benton family. His descendants meet here each New Year's day for a reunion.

Benton attended as long as he was able, missing only the last two or three years.

Mrs. Porter's brother, William Benton of Portland, will also go to the funeral. They plan to return Sunday.

Civic Players Slate Comedy At Macleay

MACLEAY — The Salem Civic players will present their premiere performance of "Could Be" at the Macleay Grange hall Saturday, April 15, at 8 p.m.

The play is a comedy depicting a very eccentric family which gets itself into all sorts of unbelievable situations. Members of the cast, directed by Beulah Graham, are Frank Hammett, Mrs. J. H. Lucas, James Baer, Mrs. Martin Finden, Mrs. Agnes Drummond, Theresa Blackwell, Eleanor Roberts, LeRoy Kreuger, Frank Hutchinson and Mrs. Charles Hill.

Women of the Grange will serve pie and coffee after the performance.

New Housing Site Set at Sweet Home

SWEET HOME — Greenwood Heights is the name of a new subdivision which includes 71 home sites and located on the Sweet Home-Holley highway, one mile southwest of Sweet Home.

A large crowd was on hand at the high school for the Sweet Home-Rock and Mineral society's no-host dinner.

More than 2,000 persons were on hand for Easter services in Sweet Home churches.

About 500 kiddies and adults attended an Easter egg hunt sponsored by the Sweet Home Junior Chamber of Commerce. Prizes went to Barbara Anderson, Ronnie Wilson, Alfred Osborn and Carmen Thexton.

Look and Learn

- By A. C. Gordon
1. What is the world's population?
  2. What is the name of the acid that turns milk sour?
  3. Which is the only state in the U.S. which has a port on the Great Lakes and a port on the Atlantic Ocean?
  4. Which U.S. president was the father of 14 children?
  5. What animal has red perspiration?
- ANSWERS
1. 2,265,000,000.
  2. Lactic acid.
  3. New York; Buffalo is on Lake Erie and New York City is on the Atlantic.
  4. John Tyler.
  5. The hippopotamus.