

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

As a prelude to National YW week the Tri-Y girls will entertain with their annual Cotton Ball on April 21 at the Salem high school. The committee, above, in their cotton dresses and by a blooming magnolia tree, include left to right, seated, Margaret Miller, Anne Forristel, chairman, and Elizabeth Jane Johnson. Standing left to right are Bernice Imlah, Mary Polales and Bonnie Stewart.

Completing plans for National YWCA week, April 23-29, are members of the general committee, pictured at the right in the gardens of Mrs. Chester Cox, who is general chairman for the week. Left to right are Mrs. E. F. Andresen, president of the Tri-Y Teen mothers; Miss Jean Sieber, of the Salore club; Mrs. Cox, Mrs. George Gregor, instructor in figurine painting; and Mrs. Alfred A. Schramm, president of the YWCA board. (Kennell-Ellis photos).

Bidden to Parties . . .

Among the hostesses this week will be Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst and Mrs. Jack Price, who will entertain with two affairs on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the Grabenhorst's Candalaria Heights home. Sixteen guests have been invited each night and late suppers will be served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Grabenhorst and Mrs. Price are arranging two more parties for the following week on April 25 and 26.

Mrs. Roy Houck is planning a series of bridge luncheons this spring at her North 20th street home in compliment to a group of her friends. Mrs. Houck entertained at luncheon on Friday afternoon for 12 and will be hostess for a similar affair on Tuesday afternoon. Bouquets of spring flowers and daphne provide the decorative note.

Members of the directorate who met at the Orchard Heights home of Mrs. Willard N. Thompson, where the Salem Memorial hospital auxiliary annual spring benefit tea will be held on Thursday afternoon, April 20, are left to right, Mrs. A. C. Haag, Mrs. C. Ronald Hudkins, chairman of the affair, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Hugh Adams, Mrs. Maynard Shiller and Mrs. P. C. Anderson, co-chairmen. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Dances on Week End Slate . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

A number of dancing clubs are planning dances for April with four scheduled for this coming weekend.

Saturday night will be the Waverly club's formal dinner dance at the Marion hotel at 9 o'clock. Dancing will follow to the music of Wolfer's orchestra.

The decorating committee includes Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gibson and Dr. and Mrs. Richard Upjohn. The host and hostess committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ferris, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Marvin Ritchie.

The Cama dance club will hold its monthly dance Friday night at Crystal Gardens with Claude Bird's orchestra playing between 9:30 and 12:30 o'clock. The snack bar will open at 9 o'clock. On the committee are Mrs. Eddie Schmidt, Mrs. Fred A. Davis, Mrs. Harry Needham, Mrs. Jack Bowden, Mrs. Gordon Bowden, Mrs. Arley Markin, Mrs. F. G. Pavey and Mrs. E. W. York.

The door committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lorenz, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson. Election of officers will be held during the evening.

Bon Heur club members will dance on Friday night at the VFW hall between 9 and 11:30 o'clock to Wayne Strachan's orchestra. Refreshments will be served following the dance hours. The committee includes Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tindall, chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. John Harger, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Ed N. Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rohland.

Dinner Dance Friday

Event of Friday night will be the semi-formal dinner dance at the American Legion club being sponsored by the wives of the AVUA, USNR-O and USMCR-O. This will be the first get-together of the group since stationed in Salem and the 8 o'clock dinner will be preceded by a 6:30 o'clock social hour. Dancing and a floor show will follow. Bob Hug will be master of ceremonies for the show and the pianist, Caroline Miller will give a pantomime and Mary Bourke will give a group of impersonations.

Blue and gold will be used in the flowers and candles on the tables. Over two hundred couples have been bidden and special invitations were sent to Captain and Mrs. A. E. Buckley, Commander and Mrs. D. A. McIsaac and Captain and Mrs. Gilpin.

Graduating seniors of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary, will be assisting on the program and silver tea to be given by the honorary on Sunday, April 23. Left to right are Mrs. Frank Burlingham, chairman of the patronesses of Mu Phi, who are arranging the affair, Bernice Isham, Betty Kuhlman, C'ennis Allen and Beatrice Naqi. The tea will be held at University House following the program. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Four of the Spinsters, who will be assisting at the group's annual spring silver tea on Saturday afternoon, April 21 are left to right, Miss Margaret Lovell, general chairman, Mrs. Vernon Drye, Mrs. John Steelhammer and Mrs. Roy Edgerton. They are pictured on the steps of the North Summer street home of Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., where the tea will be held. (Kennell-Ellis photo).