

Spinsters Tea On Saturday's Calendar

Social highlight of the coming weekend will be the Spinsters annual spring silver tea to be given on Saturday afternoon, April 22 at the North Summer street residence of Mrs. William McGilchrist, jr. Calling hours are from 2 to 5 o'clock and the interested public is invited to attend. Proceeds will go to the Marion county chapter of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis. The Spinsters, philanthropic organization, plans to raise $1,000 this year for the fund.

Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. Carlton J. McLeod, Mrs. Wayne Hadley and Miss Esther Baird. In the receiving line will be Miss Margaret Lovell, chairman of the tea, Miss Betty Jean Manoles, president of the Spinsters, Mrs. McGilchrist, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. Robert E. Shinn and Mrs. Henry V. Compton.

Presiding at the tea urns during the afternoon will be Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. George A. White of Portland, Mrs. Linn C. Smith, Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Mrs. Karl C. Becke and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, jr.

Serving in the dining room will be Mrs. Byron Mennis, Mrs. George C. Alexander, Mrs. James Armprist, Mrs. Robert Elgin, Mrs. Peter Gunnar, Miss Sally Ann Barr, Miss Patricia Larson and Miss Evelyn Johnson. Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs.

Don't Look Now...

but... Happy Blossom Day! Ho hum... Nothing to do around the newsroom this week. All that's going on that we can think of offhand is: Selection of Cherry Court, fishing season opens, they're moving into new state building, Catholic Center opens, Blossom Day, Governor's Youth Conference, Kid's Fishing Derby begins, Soroptimist club convention and Horse show.

Floral Tribute... Though the reluctant blossoms, supposed to be featured today, will not make their usual sensational showing, we recommend a drive into the hills just to see the hills. They alone are worth the price of admission, with the bright green of the spring grain contrasting with new-turned earth. If the sun shines the sky will be beautiful, if it rains, everything will look glistening clean. No matter how you look at it, it's spring.

Likes it here... Dr. Clifford Patton of the office of United Nations, New York City says he has attended many conferences but never enjoyed one like the one he attended this weekend—He spoke to 200 Soroptimists Friday, was one man among 300 women at the Eyerly Ranch for dinner Friday night and the lone man at the Soroptimist luncheon Saturday. An expert in UNESCO, an agency which he admits works with people, he complimented the ladies on their hats. He ought to go into the diplomatic service... The way to a man's heart may be through his stomach, but the route to a woman's is by way of her new spring bonnet... Maxine Euren

Miss Polster Married at St. Joseph's

St. Joseph's Catholic church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Florence Marie Polster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar J. Polster, and Eugene Peter DiLoreto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo DiLoreto, on Saturday morning. The Rev. T. J. Bernards performed the 9:30 o'clock nuptial mass. Wayne Meusey was the soloist and played the wedding music. The altar was decorated with

The Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Sunday, April 16, 1950-9 bouquets of stock, snapdragons and greenery.

Mr. Polster gave his daughter in marriage and her wedding gown was of white slipper satin with side peplums extending into the full skirt and train. The fitted bodice was made with long sleeves and a yoke of nylon net edged with a bertha of Chantilly lace. Her imported French net veil was trimmed in chantilly lace and cascaded from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Rose Angela DiLoreto, sister of the groom, was the honor maid and wore a pink taffeta faille frock with tiered skirt of accordion pleated ruffles. Bridesmaids were Miss Joann Polster, sister of the bride, in maize taffeta faille and Miss Gladys Zielinski, whose frock was of mint green. Their dresses were also made with tiered skirts of pleated ruffles and their matching sweetheart hats were open crown and adorned with pastel ribbon rosettes. They all carried net puffs of sarnatos and spring flowers.

Robert Grimps, cousin of the bride, was best man and groomsmen were Patrick Moran and John Tiemessen. Ushers were Leslie Enge and Kenneth DeLap.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Polster chose an old rose gown with navy accessories and Mrs.

DiLoreto attended the ceremony in an aqua gown with navy accessories. Their corsages were of rosebuds.

A wedding breakfast was held in the Copper room of the Senator hotel for the bridal party and immediate family. In the afternoon a reception was held at the Salem Woman's club. The tiered cape was topped with a bride and groom ornament made by the bride's father. Pouring were Mrs. Abram Kline and Mrs. Kenneth Thornbent. Mrs. George Grimps and Mrs. Edward Zack cut the cakes and Mrs. J. A. Wiltsey served the ice. Assisting were Miss Jeanette Waser, Miss Dona Zener, Miss Suzanne Howell, Miss Louella LaFontaine, Mrs. Steven Baum, Mrs. LaVerne Otjen and Mrs. Ralph Barbeau.

The newlyweds have gone south to California on their honeymoon and for going away the bride wore a gold suit with cocoa brown accessories and a white orchid corsage. The couple will live in Portland, where he is with the Multnomah county road department.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Will Thompson are being welcomed home from a two months trip south. They spent most of their time at Eyerly's Flying E ranch at Wickenburg, Arizona. They returned home by way of the canyon and Salt Lake City.
