Valley Obituaries

Statesman News Service
Mrs. Cora Cheesman
ALBANY — Mrs. Cora Luella Cheesman, 87, died at the Menonite Old Peoples' Home April 15, following a heart attack. Mrs. Cheesman had been living at the Home the past two years. Funeral services were held from the Fisher Funeral Home at 1:30 o'clock, Tuesday, April 18. The Rev. L. R. Hall officiated. Burial was in the Bellfountain cemetery beside the grave of her husband.

Mrs. Cheesman was born in Woodford county, Ill., Feb. 20, 1869. When she was 15 years old her parents moved to Minonk, Ill., where she resided until 1911. She and her husband, John Cheesman to whom she was married in Minonk in 1890, moved to Bellfountain where they lived until 1932, when Mrs. Cheesman died to Albany. Mrs. Cheesman moved in 1932. Mrs. Cheesman was a member of the Christian Missionary Alliance church.

Surviving are two sons, Lester V. of Lebanon, and George T. of Joliet, Ill. Another son, H. L. Cheesman, died in Albany in 1945. Four grandsons and four great-grandsons also survive.

Funeral Rites Set Today for Dallas Logger

Statesman News Service
DALLAS, April 18 — Funeral services for William Faver, 32, Dallas, killed Monday while logging for the Willamette Valley Lumber company west of here, will be held at the Henkle-Bollman chapel Wednesday at 2 p.m. Interment will be in the IOOF cemetery.

Faver apparently was run over by an empty logging truck while working on the company's "S" line, nine miles from Black Rock. His death was the second log-

Teachers Sign New Contracts At Willamina

Statesman News Service
WILLAMINA — It was learned here this week that 12 teachers have signed contracts to return to the local high school for the 1950-51 school year. They are K. A. Stuart, principal; Pete Gretsche, biology instructor and head coach in giving fatality in this area within the past week. Ray D. Clark, Dallas, died Friday from injuries suffered when a cable snapped at the Leadbetter Logging company near Pede.

Faver, a sergeant in the Dallas National Guard tank company, served in the army four years, three years before World War II and one year during the war.

Surviving are his widow and two children; his father at Chesham, Wash.; his mother in Portland; and a brother, Ted, of Dallas.
