Travelers Home From Sojourns, Others Leave

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Travelers continue to highlight the news during the spring months with a number returning from sojourns south and others leaving on vacation jaunts.

Home from the Desert
Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Compton are being welcomed home from a three weeks trip south. At Las Vegas they were joined by their daughter, Miss Barbara Compton of San Francisco, who flew over to meet her parents. From there the three went on to Furnace Creek Inn for a week's sojourn. The Comptons went to Arizona for a stay and up the California coast to Carmel for a week before returning home.

To Attend Flower Show
Dr. and Mrs. William C. Crothers are leaving tonight for the bay region, where they will attend the annual Oakland Flower Show. They will return home the first of the week.

To Visit in North
Mrs. Clifton Ross is leaving today for a months stay in Washington and British Columbia. She will visit her son and daughter-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Milo Ross in Seattle, and in Kent will be the guest of Mrs. Samuel B. Gillette. Mrs. Ross plans to spend several weeks in Vancouver, B. C., with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Fraser.

Mrs. Lockard Is Hostess
Members of the United Commercial Travelers auxiliary were entertained at luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. F. Lockard. The afternoon hours were spent informally.

Attending were Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Floyd Coburn, Mrs. L. A. Pepper, Mrs. E. R. Jackman, Mrs. S. B. McAlpine, Mrs. Roy Strong, Mrs. William McGill, Mrs. Russell Jones, Mrs. Thomas Bagan and Mrs. Lockard.

Visiting with Mrs. J. H. Ryan at her Royal Court apartment are her daughter, Mrs. Lindley Lehmann (Patricia Ryan) and granddaughter, Linda Ann, who are here this week from Eureka, Calif. Mr. Lehmann accompanied his family north and remained for the weekend. Mrs. Lehmann and daughter will return south by plane on Saturday.

SILVERTON—The Oregon circuit of the Women's Missionary Federation of the Evangelical Lutheran church will hold a one-day convention at Longview, Wash., on May 9. A bus is being chartered to go from Silverton as a large number of women from both Immanuel and Trinity churches plan to attend.

WOOD WALL FACING
Does that wall need a new cover-up? It can be of wood that you apply easily yourself. The striated, or grooved, wood paneling used here cuts with any saw and goes up on the wall without nailing. Your lumber dealer has it in 4x8 feet panels for about 25 cents a square foot. Measure the wall and plan how many squares you must cut — these are 14-inch squares, but different wall proportions prompt different sizes. The checkerboard effect comes from alternating horizontal and vertical grooves, and each square fits on to stay when the wall is coated with the special adhesive you buy with the wood. If you can't cut niches into the plaster, shadow boxes will do. Make them of plywood, the size of the squares and cover them with the grooved paneling.

Q. Is it all right for a widow to continue to wear her wedding ring after the death of her husband?
A. Certainly, unless she remarries. She should then, of course, substitute her new ring.

Q. Is it considered polite for one to take the last piece of bread or cake from a dish that is offered at dinner?
A. Yes; there undoubtedly is more in the kitchen, or you would not have been urged to take it.

Q. Is money an appropriate gift for a christening?
A. Yes; many consider money as the most appropriate gift.

More for Your Money

Housedresses Can Be Gay, Stylish, In Rainbow Colors, Launderers Well

By Sue Gardner

Until quite recently housedresses were dreary affairs. They looked like work costumes and about all a housewife could count on was that they would launder well and last a long time. Today you can find housedresses in all colors of the rainbow, with styles that follow the Paris trends, modified only for comfort and practicality.

Naturally, you would not try to serve breakfast in an intricately draped costume, with sleeves that would only permit a little activity or a skirt that provided little walking ease. But you can find silky cotton broadcloths, clever pockets and stylish collars. Pinafores, brunch coats, coveralls and dresses that can easily double for street-wear are being shown for all sizes from 9 to 52 and in many types of washable cotton from dotted sheers to gay gingham checks.

Miss Speer Now Mrs. Clarkson
AUMSVILLE — Miss Margaret Louise Speer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Speer of Aumsville, became the bride of Malcolm Gilbert Clarkson of Stayton, son of Mrs. John Carrol of Roanoke, Va., on April 7.

The 8 o'clock double ring candlelight ceremony was performed at the Stayton Baptist church with the Rev. Clyde R. Freeman officiating. Mrs. Robert Kersey of Coos Bay, sister of the bride, sang and Mrs. Roscoe Poole was the accompanist.

The bride wore a white satin gown with fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white roses with an orchid center.

Miss Lela Collins, maid of honor, and Miss Lucille Speer, bridesmaid, wore gowns of orchid and green. Marjorie Johnson and Marie Bach, in yellow frocks lighted the candles.

Charles Clarkson was his brother's best man and John Speer, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. Ushers were William Pero and Orville Speer.

Mrs. John Speer, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Maude Harkworth of Stayton, aunt of the groom, both wore navy blue with grey accessories and corsages of pink carnations.

A reception was held in the church parlors after the ceremony. Mrs. W. S. Lavender and Mrs. P. B. Collins cut the cake and assisting were Betty and Jean Dove and Audrey King.

The bride is a graduate of Aumsville high school and the groom is employed at Kay Woolen mills in Salem. After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem. For traveling the bride wore a green suit with brown accessories.

Chairmen Are Announced

Board of trustees of the Salem Art association met at the home of the president, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Wednesday night. The association is now a member of the Portland Art Museum and plans to have exhibits of art and lectures of interest throughout the year.

Miss Lord announced her committee chairmen as follows: Mrs. William Everett Anderson, membership; Mrs. Breyman Boise, house; Mrs. Geneva Harrison, creative art group; Mrs. Lester Barr, hospitality; Mrs. Glenn McCormick, publicity; and Mrs. L. E. deWeese, art and exhibition.

Girls Scouts to Have Party

Girl Scout troops 50 and 33 are having a party Friday night at 7:30, in the social hall of the Presbyterian church. A group of boys, including some Boy Scouts, have been invited to the affair. There will be varied entertainment of games and dancing. Mrs. W. A. Ayres will be in charge of the program, assisted by John Goodenberger.

This party is the climax towards the completion of their work on the Girl Scout dancer badge. The two troop leaders are Mrs. Paul Bale, troop 50, and Mrs. William Troth, troop 33.

Oak Knoll Golfers

Oak Knoll lady golfers play on Wednesday afternoon at the Oak Knoll golf club. A kickers handicap was a feature of the day's play and winners were Mrs. Randolph Hilton and Mrs. Cecil Dunn. There will be a group lesson for beginners on Tuesdays at the golf club and a nominal fee will be charged. All interested persons are welcome to attend the class.
