Locals Suffer 1st Loop Loss

Garver Takes Hill Loss for Hawk Club

CORVALLIS, April 21 (Special)—Salem high's Viking baseballers suffered their first Big Six league loss in two starts today as they bowed to the Corvallis Spartans by a 6-4 count.

In only one inning could Harold Hawk's crew do anything with Spartan hurler Jim Summers and that was the fifth when the Salmons pushed over all four of their tallies. Triples by Jim Stewart and Pitcher Gene Garver were the big blows of that uprising.

Garver gave the Sports seven hits over the route to the six the Vikings tallied off Summers but the Corvallis gang used their blows to better advantage. The Benton county crew picked up three in the third, another in the fourth and finished up with a clinching pair in the sixth.

Jack Stimer socked a homer with one on in the third for the winners.

Garver fanned seven and walked three in his stint. Sonny Walker replaced him in the sixth.

The Hawks play host to Woodburn Monday in a non-leaguer.

The world champion New York Yankees trounced the Washington Senators, 14-7, on the strength of home runs by Yogi Berra, Tommy Byrne, Joe DiMaggio and Tommy Henrich. A crowd of 27,877 saw the free-scoring affair.

DiMaggio connected for his first homer of the season with one on in the seventh to snap a 7-0 tie. Henrich followed with a two-run jolt in the eighth to feature a four-run rally that put the game on ice. Lefty Tommy Byrne opened for the Yanks but left in the seventh amid a five-run rally in favor of Joe Page who doused the fire. The strong-armed Page, working for the third time in four games, gained his first victory.

The Boston Red Sox spoiled Connie Mack Day for 8,184 cold fans in Philadelphia by beating the A's, 8-2. Vero Rousey pitched the game with a grand slam home run in the ninth inning. Lefty Mickey McDermott went all the way for the Sox, granting seven hits.

A bases loaded home run by Roy Campanella and one with the sacks empty by Jimmy Russell sparked the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 8-1 victory over the forlorn New York Giants before 24,033 fans at Ebbets field. Lefty Preacher Roe breezed behind a 14-hit assault. The defeat was the Giants third straight of a winless campaign.

Ralph Kiner slammed his first home run of the season and his wrecking mate, Wally Westlake, hit two four-baggers before 32,695 to lead the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 7-5 decision over Cincinnati. Westlake drove in six runs. Bob Usher and Danny Litzwiler kept Cincinnati in the game with home runs. The Chicago Cubs, behind the brilliant four-hit pitching of Bob Rush, blanked Harry Brecheen and the St. Louis Cardinals, 2-0. The Cubs got only three hits off Brecheen but two of them went trippingly. Hal Jeffcoat and Wayne Terwilliger.

A turnout of 7,308 fans saw the Philadelphia Phils and the Braves battle to a 2-2 tie in Boston. The game was called in the eighth after a thunderstorm had soaked the field.
