prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Woe to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? Ye est the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool: but ye feed not the flock. The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them. My flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search after them. Therefore I am against the shepherds.

Behold, I will search my sheep, and seek them out. I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day, and I will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel. I will feed my flock, and cause them to lie down. I will bind up that which was broken, and strengthen which was sick. I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the lard: and I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing. And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land. Thus shall they know that I the Lord their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people.

The hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley. And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and

Lord God, Behold, I will lay sinews upon you, and bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the Lord. As I prophesied, there was a noise, and a shaking, and the bones came together. And the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them: and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet. Then He said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole household of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, our hope is lost. Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, O my people I will cause you to come up out of your graves, and shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the Lord have spoken it, and performed it.
