FERRIS FIELD, Spokane, May -(Special) - The Salem Senators slammed across four runs on seven consecutive hits in the eighth inning of the second game here to-day to spear a 7-3 victory and get an even break in the Western International League doubleheader with the Spokane Indians, The Tribe copped the opener 9-0 to end a seven-game losing streak. The Senators won the four-game series 3-1 and now head for Salem to open a week at home starting Tuesday night with Yakima as visiting club.

Rookie Ward Rockey, ace of the Washington State colleg team last season hurled the Tribe to the 9-0 victory, yielding three scatter-ed hits. The Indians put the game away in the fourth with seven runs off Starter Bob Stevenson and

Lefty Ken Wyatt and Jim Neeley were locked in a pitching duel in the nightcap when Wasley was lifted in favor of Rookie Dick Waibel in the sixth. Spokane tied

The Senators, held to five hits until the first extra inning of the nightcap, suddenly erupted against Veteran John Conant, fourth Spo-kane flinger. Wayne Peterson doubled and Dick Bartle singled. Then Mel Wasley smashed a 375-foot home run, his second of the season, over the right field fence. Bob Cherry followed with a single, Bus McMillan also singled and Hal Zurcher beat out an infield tap to load the bases. Cherry scored on Wally Scott's single, the seventh straight hit off Conant who had lost a 4-3 game to Salem Friday night.

Batting star of the afternoon was Wasley with his homer, triple, double, single and four runs batted in. He broke loose from his slump with a roar.

Two of Salem's earlier runs were scored off Neely via squeeze plays, a pet weapon used by Senators
