Cherrians to Bypass 1950 Rose Festival

For the first time in 37 years Salem's Cherrians will not participate in Portland's annual Rose festival.

This decision was reached Monday night at the monthly Cherrian meeting here. The Cherrians said the Portland Rose Festival association does not accept outside entries without floral floats, and members voted to save money usually appropriated for a float and put it into the Cherryland festival here.

Costs of past floats have averaged between $1,800 and $2,300, members said.

The Cherrians decided Monday night to send a marching delegation and the cherryland queen and her court to the Elks state convention, scheduled June 9 in Corvallis, same date as the Rose parade in Portland.

Other dates accepted for Cherrian participation included: A Detroit dam celebration, May 21; a Salem Chamber of Commerce luncheon, May 22; Dominion day celebration at Victoria, B. C., May 23-24-25; and the Rainier Strawberry festival parade, June 24.

George Graves, a charter member of the Salem Cherrians, was honored at Monday's meeting in the Golden Pheasant restaurant. Graves spoke briefly, recalling early Cherrian experiences.

Store Building Project Starts

Construction began Monday on a new $21,000 South Commercial street building that will house three Salem businesses.

The building, located in the 1000 block, is expected to be occupied by July 15 by the Vibbert Electric company, Morrow radio, and Richard Orzy, contract painter. Each will have a separate shop.

In other construction news Monday, Grabenhorst and Sons obtained a building permit from the city engineer's office for a $8,500 service station at 2595 S. Commercial st. Another permit was issued to the Gardner Construction company for a $16,500 dwelling at 1755 Reservoir st.

Benefit Chorus Festival Set Tonight at SHS Auditorium

More than 300 singers will participate tonight in a junior-senior high school chorus festival, a benefit for high school choir robes. The program will be at 8 o'clock in the senior high auditorium.

The participants will include Parrish junior high chorus, directed by Madalene Suko and accompanied by Beth Scharbach; Leslie junior high chorus, directed by Philip McHarnes and accompanied by Laurel Herr; West Salem junior high chorus, directed by Virginia Howell and accompanied by Karen Johnson; senior high girls' chorus, directed by Howard Miller and accompanied by Pauline Toyce; senior high choir, directed by Miller and accompanied by Marilyn Broer.

Special numbers will include trombone solo by Keith Johnson of West Salem junior high, accompanied by Mrs. Charlotta Johnson; clarinet solo by Darrel Lunda of Parrish, accompanied by Betty Clemens; Leslie string trio comprising Carol Lee, Sidney Dromer and Laurel Herr; accordion quartet of Lanny Dibbern, Dean Quamme, John Burroughs and Thad Stevens.

Corydon Blodgett of Salem will be guest soloist. The high school orchestra, directed by Victor B. Palmason, will play an overture and combine with all choruses in a finale which will include about 350 voices. Pianists for the number will be Marilyn Broer and Edna Hill.

Several of the groups and individuals rated superior or excellent in the state music contest last week.

If you keep a list of out-of-town numbers, you'll find calls are put through much faster—often in 30 seconds.

TIPS FOR TOP LONG DISTANCE SERVICE

Ways to save money and minutes on out-of-town calls

1. Reduced rates begin at six in the evening...and between six and seven is a good time to call. Long Distance rates are low. And nights and Sundays are a particularly fine bargain. For $2.00 or less (plus tax) you can make a station call anywhere in the country. After the first three minutes, time is charged by the minute...not as another three-minute period.

2. For best service, place your call with the operator like this: First, tell her the name of the town you're calling... then the telephone number (or the name and address if you don't yet have the number on your list). Next, if it's a person call, give her the name of the one you want to reach. And if you've made notes ahead of time, you'll find you can say as much in three minutes as in an average letter.

3. When you call across the country or use the telephone to run an errand across town, you're using a service that's a finer value than ever before. With your telephone, you can reach twice as many people as 10 years ago. You can call more of the people you want to call... more can call you. And at rates that make your telephone a real bargain.
