

Beavers, Sacs In New Series

Coast League Opens 7th Week of Action

The Portland Beavers, after holding the league leading San Diego Padres to a 3-3 split in their recent Pacific Coast league baseball series, open a new stand at Portland Tuesday night with the second division Sacramento Senators. The Beavers, with 19 wins and 19 losses are tied with Oakland for fifth place in the standings. Sacramento is seventh with a 15-26 mark.

Other new PCL series this week put San Diego at Seattle, Oakland at San Francisco and Los Angeles at Hollywood, all starting Tuesday night.

After six weeks of league play the Padres are on top by two full games over the Hollywood Stars. Los Angeles is in third place 4 1/2 games out of the lead and San Francisco is fourth with a 21-20 mark. Portland is 6 1/2 games out of first place.

Probable pitchers for the Sacramento-Portland opener are Matt Surkont for the Sacs and either Red Adams or Red Lynn for Portland.

Parsons Whacks Grand-Slammer

Vikings Rally to Down Silverton Nine, 6 to 2

Shortstop Ron Parsons slammed out a bases-loaded home run in the sixth inning yesterday at Olinger field to give the Salem Vikings a 6-2 district baseball victory over the Silverton Silver Foxes. The Foxes were in front 2-1 when the smash came and Jack Kolln of Coach Mill Baum's nine was hooked up in a hurling duel with Gene Garver of Harold Hauk's locals.

The Vikings had scored a run in the first inning on two hits, Bill Johnson driving across the tally. Silverton tied it up in the third and went ahead in the sixth. Then came Parsons' wallop, followed in the same inning by Jim Stewart's theft of home for Salem's final run.

Garver whiffed seven and walked no one in registering his triumph. Kolln fanned five and walked six. There were 11 hits off Kolln, four off Garver. Both Parsons and Stewart, along with Gordy Bacon, had two hits. Stewart had a triple.

The win was Salem's sixth, as against one loss against prep competition this season. The game was a makeup tilt for a rainout of April 26. The Salems today play at Albany in a Big Six league clash, and Jim Rock will be on the mound for the Haukmen. Silverton recently finished Willamette Valley league play with a 6-1 record.

Huskies Down Webfoots Take Over Lead in Race

SEATTLE, May 8--(AP)--Washington took over undisputed possession of first place in the Coast Conference Northern division baseball standing today with a 4-3 victory over the Oregon Ducks. A three-run rally in the ninth turned the trick for the Huskies.

Oregon's Mel Krause hurled shutout ball until the eighth when he loaded the bases on walks and then wild-pitched in a run. Still holding a 3-1 lead, he got the first man in the ninth before Washington broke loose. Larry Herns walked, Gordon Rodland tripled and Bill Andring singled to tie the count. Then Andring stole second and raced home with the winning run when Shortstop Ray Coley threw wild to first in an attempt to complete a double play.

The Ducks got single runs in the fourth, sixth and eighth off starter Hal Arnason, who was lifted after Ray Stratton's double drove in the final tally. Bom Peterson finished for the Huskies and got credit for the win. Stratton was Oregon's big stick with a double and two singles.

Bash 'Em Boys for Vikings

Two outfield veterans for Coach Harold Hauk's Salem high nine this season are Bill Johnson (left) and Jim Stewart. They hope to land a berth in the state tournament at Albany later this month. Meanwhile both will be in the lineup at Albany today when the Vikings play the Bulldogs in a league clash.
