The Bible Story-DANIEL

Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon spake unto the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel to stand in the king's palace. Among these were Daniel, Shadrack, Meshach, and Abed-nego. And in all matters of wisdom and understanding he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers in his realm.

Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, and set it up in Babylon. Then an herald cried, To you it is commanded, O people, that at what time ye hear the cornet and all kinds of music, ye shall fall down and worship the golden image. And whose falleth not down shall be cast into a fiery furnace. Therefore the people worshipped the image.

At that time certain Chaldeans said to Nebuchadnezzer: Shadrack, Meshach, and Abed-nego serve not thy gods, nor worship the image. Nebuchadnezzar in his fury commanded to bring these men; and said unto them, Is it true, do not ye worship the image I have set up? If ye worship not, ye shall be cast into a burning furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you cut of my hands? Shadrack, Meshach, and Abed-nego answered, If it be so, our God is able to deliver us from the furnace. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the image.

Then these three men were bound, and cast into the furnace. Then Nebuchaenezzar was astonished and said unto his counsellors. Did not we cast three men bound into the fire? Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

Nebuchadnezzer said, Ye servants of the most high God, come forth. Then Shadrack, Meshach, and Abed-nego came forth of the fire. And the king's counsellors saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed. Nebuchadnezzar said, Blessed be the God who delivered his servants that trusted in him.

I Nebuchadnezzar saw a dream which made me afraid. And I told the dream before Daniel, saying: I saw a tree, and the height thereof reached unto heaven: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and all flesh was fed of it. And, behold, an holy one came down from heaven. He cried aloud, Hew down the tree: nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth. Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him: and let seven times pass over

Daniel said. The tree that thou sawest, it is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong. This is the decree of the most High: That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots, thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule. Wherefore, O king, break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

All this came upon Nebuchadnezzer: he was driven from men till his hairs were grown like eagle's feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzer lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned to me, and I blessed the most High, whose works are truth, and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

Europe Travel Set by Brown

Ready to leave Monday on a study trip to Europe and Pales-tine, the Rev. Wilmer N. Brown pastor, will give farewell messages Sunday at First Evangelical United Brethren churches. The morning service will be com-

From Portland by air the itin erary will be through 15 countries in the British Isles, Europe and the Holy Land. The purpose of the trip is to make an intensive on-the-spot study of the Holy Land in relation to Bible history and geography and to conduct evangelistic services in Europe under the asupices of Youth for Christ. He plans to survey the work of the Evangelical United Brethren church in Germany and Switzerland. He and Dr. E. J Haldeman and Merritt B. Metger, both of Edison, Ohio, will comprise the evangelistic team. Dr. Paul P. Petticord, presiden of Western School of Evangelical Religion, and former pastor and conference superintendent of the Salem church, will supply the pulpit during the next month. Brown plans to return to Salem July 24.

The Ascension

The ascension of Christ to Heaven, 40 days after His resur-rection, will be commemorated Thursday, known variously as As-cension day or Quadragesima.

A feature of the observance, principally in Catholic churches, will be the extinguishing of the paschal candle, lit on Easter Saturday to denote the presence of Christ. It will be removed from the church after the last gospel Thursday, to be used again in the blessing of baptismal water on Pentecost Saturday.

In addition to regular services, St. Vincent de Paul church will have a 40-hours devotion from the 8 a.m. mass of exposition and arrest. Out

The church will have devotions Tuesday and Wednesday at 8 p.m. and all-night adoration Wednesday night under auspices of the Holy Name society.

St. Joseph's Catholic church will have a regular Sunday schedule of masses, at 6:30, 8, 9, 10 and 11 a.m. Plans for services at St. Paul's Episcopal church have not been completed.

Three 'Days' on Sunday

Three "days" in one will be observed tomorrow in connection with religious services—Mother's day, Rural Life Sunday and 4-H

The first will be the most prominent in a majority of churches, with sermons and music to center around the "mother" theme. Churches have been asked to recognize the role that the 4-H movement takes among young people, many of whom will attend. It is closely connected with the Rural Life emphasis.
