The Statesman reserves the right to reject questionable advertising. It further reserves the right to place all advertising under the proper classification.

The Statesman assumes no financial responsibility for errors which may appear in advertisements published in its columns and in cases where this paper is at fault will reprint the part of an advertisement in which the typographical mistake occurs.

A "Blind" Ad—an ad containing a Statesman box number for an address—is for the protection of the advertiser and must therefore be answered by letter. The Statesman is not at liberty to divulge information as to the identity of an advertiser using a "Blind ad."
