

Soon to leave on a European trip are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rawlins, who have already packed their bags for traveling. They will sail from Montreal in early June and will tour England and then go on over to the continent to visit in Belgium, France, Bavaria, Switzerland and Italy. They will return in August by way of the Mediterranean, sailing from Rome. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

A Bridal Luncheon . . .

Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley and her daughter, Mrs. John P. Maulding, will be hostesses for a bridal luncheon on Saturday afternoon at the former's home on North Summer street in compliment to Miss Jeanne Foster, June bride-elect of Clyde G. Herr, jr., of Watsonville, Calif. Invitations are in the mail this week and to the one o'clock luncheon and kitchen shower.

Bidden to fete the bride-to-be are her mother, Mrs. Eugene Foster, Mesdames Austin Wilson, jr., Robert Strebig, George C. Alexander, Lester D. Green, James Bedingfield, Ralph Underwood, James Woodruffe, Barry Lambert, Thomas G. Wright, jr., Wayne Struble, James Hoscy, Leonard Rinearson, Robert Steeves, Donald Scheelar, Douglas Armstrong, Donald Farnum, James Kern, Albany, Scott Adams, Portland, Misses Marianne Croisan, Janet Rilea, Charlotte Alexander, Jane Carson, Harriet Huston, Suzanne Small, Virginia Parr of Portland, Addy Lane, Betty Jean Manoles, Marilyn Archibald, Patricia Pearson and Janet Kirk.

Pictured in the garden of their Silverton home and admiring the iris before leaving on an extended European trip are Mrs. Rudolph E. Kleinsorge and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Kleinsorge. The travelers left last week for New York, from where they sailed for England. After a visit with Mrs. Kleinsorge's relatives in Somersetshire they will go on to the continent, returning for a tour of England. They will be away nearly four months. (Statesman photo).

Popular visitors in the capital are Ms. Allen T. Gilliland and daughter, Susan, who are here from their home in San Jose, Calif. They are guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston. Mrs. Gilliland will be remembered as Anne Huston and has lived in California since her marriage. (Gesten-Miller photo).

Teas on Agenda for Coming Week . . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Highlighting the social agenda for the coming week will be two large teas on Friday and Saturday afternoons.

Mrs. Claybourne W. Dyer and Mrs. William C. Dyer, jr., have sent out invitations to an informal tea for which they will be hostesses on Friday afternoon at the former's residence, 270 North 13th street. Calling hours will be from two to five o'clock.

Presiding at the tea urns during the afternoon will be Mrs. George Scales, Mrs. George E. Emigh, Mrs. Douglas Chambers, Mrs. Glenn Stevens, Mrs. Darrell Washburn and Mrs. Edward J. Burnside.

Assisting will be Mrs. Carlton J. McLeod, Mrs. Peter H. Geiser, Mrs. Douglas Drager, Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst, Mrs. Richard L. Cooley and Mrs. Robert Needham. Members of the teen-age group assisting will be Kathleen Busick, Diane Emigh, and Betty Burnside. The hostesses will use bouquets of pastel spring flowers in decorating.

Tea to Honor Mrs. Aiken

Mrs. George W. Aiken will entertain informally at tea on Saturday afternoon at her E street home for the pleasure of her new daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert P. Aiken, who was the former Barbara Ann Lannon before her marriage in February. Guests have been invited to call between three and five o'clock to meet the charming newcomers.

Receiving with Mrs. Aiken and the honor guest will be the former's two daughters, Mrs. Gordon Wright, jr., of Eugene and Mrs. Robert Jackson of Seattle.

Those who have been asked to pour during the afternoon are Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. Ivan E. Oakes of Portland, Mrs. Edward U. Banker of Portland, sister of the honor guest, and Mrs. Gene Vandeneynde. Serving will be Mrs. Ted E. Reed and Miss Julia Johnson. Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. A. A. Siewert and Mrs. Leona Johnson.

Sailing for Japan on Friday were Mrs. Grover R. Taylor and daughter, Suzanna, who will join Technical Sergeant Taylor in Itazuka, where he is stationed at the American air base. Mrs. Taylor and her daughter have been in Salem the past two years with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stavenaus. (Kennell-Ellis photo)

To Fly to Wyoming for a Visit . . .

Mrs. Thomas P. Hill, III, and children, Phyllis and Steven, are leaving by plane on Saturday for Buffalo, Wyoming, to spend six weeks at the home of Mr. Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Hill, jr. Mr. Hill will join his family the first of July and remain for a fortnight in Buffalo. They will drive home, stopping enroute at the national parks.

Guests Bidden to Parties . . .

Mrs. Custer Ross, Mrs. Arthur Jones and Mrs. Arthur Rogers will be hostesses for a one o'clock luncheon and miscellaneous shower on Wednesday afternoon at the former's home on Cross street for the pleasure of Miss Margaret Newton, who will be married in June to Frank Brown. Twenty of the bride-elect's friends have been bidden to the affair.

Mrs. Lester C. McLeod will be a bridge luncheon hostess on Thursday afternoon at her North 13th street home for twelve of her friends. Mrs. McLeod has been entertaining with a series of parties this spring.

Mrs. John Powell and Mrs. Robert Drager will entertain at a 1:30 dessert luncheon and card party on Thursday afternoon for a group of their Stayton friends at the former's home at Turner.

A young newcomer in the capital is Mrs. George William Dewey, jr., the former Nancy West, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wassam of Salem. Mrs. Dewey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis N. West of Berkeley, Calif., attended Oregon State college. Her husband, an Oregon State graduate, is with the Oregon Farm Bureau Federation. (Kennell-Ellis photo).