

Robert Ullman Takes Bride In Portland

Robert Edward Ullman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Ullman of Salem, took as his bride at an afternoon ceremony on Saturday Miss Jean Carol Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Gardner, who came from their home in Cornwall, Ontario, Canada for the wedding.

The First Methodist church in Portland was the setting for the rites and Dr. Lawrence Nye officiated. The altar was banked with bouquets of gladioluses, stock greens and white tapers. Mrs. Charles A. Jensevdt and Mrs. Lawrence West lighted the candles.

Mr. Gardner gave his daughter in marriage and her bridal gown was white satin enhanced with lace on the cuffs and neckline. The full skirt was made with a bustle and terminated in a train. Her veil cascaded from a Juliet cap caught with lilies-of-the-valley. She carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid.

Miss Jo Ann Ekstrom was the maid of honor and wore an apple green taffet gown and carried a cascade of pink carnations. Bridesmaids were Miss Janet Gardner and Miss Elizabeth Anne Gardner, sisters of the bride, who wore yellow and pink taffeta dresses, and Miss Patricia Ullman, sister of the groom, who wore blue taffeta. They all carried cascade bouquets of pastel carnations and matching flower bandeaux.

John Ullman was his cousin's best man and ushers were Dwight Dizun, Robert Gardner, Henry Kamphaus and Stanley Fredrickson.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Gardner chose a pastel blue broad-cast dress with corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Ullman wore a blue crepe gown and corsage of red rose. For her son's marriage.

The reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Ernest Hill of Vancouver, Wash., and Mrs. A. M. Larsen of Dallas poured. Mrs. Charles Cone of Portland cut the cake. Assisting were Misses Peg Hill, Hazel David, Velma Larson, Mrs. Norma Thurin and Mrs. James Carson.

After a wedding trip in the northwest the couple will be at home in eastern Oregon. In the fall they will return to Salem. For going away the bride donned a pink suit with navy hat and accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Garcia (Maurine Cormical) who were married on May 13 in Las Vegas, Nevada. The bride formerly lived here and is the daughter of Mrs. John McCulley of Salem, who flew south for her daughter's wedding. The couple will live in Gardena, Calif. He is with the North American Aircraft Co. and she is with the United States Airforce.
