Seen and Heard...

By JERYME ENGLISH

TRAVEL NOTES... Letter from Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom, who is touring Europe with her sister, Mrs. Ida Herr... They left here in mid-April and the letter is written from the Hotel Bernerhof at Wengen, Switzerland... A wonderful trip so far, but the time is so short writes Mrs. Elfstrom, that they sight-see like mad in order to get everything done... tulips in Holland were at their very best and a thrilling sight to see... the country was flooded with tourists to see the fields... everywhere they have gone so far there have been lilacs, apple blossoms and Chestnut trees in bloom...
Wengen is the highest spot on the Jungfrau where one can get lodging so early in the season, but the weather was warm and delightful... They also went up to Jungfraujoch, back to Lucerne, St. Moritz and Zermatt, leaving Switzerland on May 20... The travelers arrived in Paris just in time to telephone the Waldo Zellers, who also left Salem for Europe at the same time... Both had so many plans for the day, that there was no time to see each other... the Zellers were leaving Paris the following day.

Bound for Alaska... On Tuesday will be Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry... They will sail for Vancouver, B. C., on the Princess Louise to Skagway... and from there will fly into British Columbia and up to Kodiak, Nome and as far north as military regulations allow... They will make the return trip by plane the end of June.

Hawaii... will again attract a group of Salem coeds this summer, who will attend the summer session at the University of Hawaii in Honolulu... They leave the end of June by plane for the islands, returning in August on the Lurline... From the University of Oregon will go Marjorie Becke, Irene McLeod and Roberta Tussing, who also went last year...
Merle Rhoten and Shirley Webber have signed up from Oregon State college...

Headed South... come Thursday will be John and Joy Johnson, who are driving to Los Angeles on a combined business and pleasure trip... After buyer's week they will go over to Las Vegas, where they have reservations at the new million dollar Desert Inn...

CHANGE OF ADDRESS... for the Carl Covers and daughter, Carlene, who have traded their grocery store on Bellevue street for a twenty-five acre place at Spring Valley... Carl plans to spend the summer outdoors farming and in the fall will decide on a new business venture...
Bill and Miriam Shinn and children, Michael and Julie, are cotton with white collar... Mrs.

James C. Stone wearing a lime green cotton with gored skirt edged in a deep green... Sister duo...
Mrs. Roger Putnam and Mrs.
Seth Payson Smith... the latter telling us that Seth has come north from Los Angeles and they hope to make their home here... Mrs.
William L. Phillips, jr., smart in navy blue and mauve pink hat and pink pearl jewelry... In white were three of the teen-age group assisting... Kathy Busick, Diane Emigh and Betty Burnside... and little Marilyn Dyer in an adorable yellow gorgandy hoop skirted frock enjoying every minute of the party...

The Maurice Saffrons expect to move into their view home in Ben Lomand Park in a few weeks... wallpapering was completed this week and after the carpeting is laid they will be able to move...
Instead of going upstairs to the bedrooms at the Saffrons', they will reverse and go down... as they wanted their living, dining and kitchen to be up high with the view windows... there is also a den with corner fireplace and doors opening off onto the patio...
Building right next to the Saffrons are the Harold Levers of Portland... theirs a one story home... Mr. Lever is already here as he is in the building supply business and his family will join him when the house is completed.

The Walters Kirks started construction on their new home in Morningside this week... Their summer place, which has been on the property for sometime, will now be a hobby house...
A GARDEN PARTY... on Friday when Lois and Clarabelle Dyer entertained at the Claybourne Dyer home... A delightful informal party with guests inside and out... garden furniture arranged outside where punch was served... large bouquets of Scotch broom, purple iris and peonies on the tables... and the punch colored purple with purple iris frozen in the ice... Yellow and purple iris and peonies predominating inside... Many comments on the old fashioned tea table... a survey with fringe filled with pink and white sweet peas, Sweet William, roses, daisies and lilies-of-the-valley... and a china corset, high button shoe and gay nannies bonnet filled with the same flowers... completing the arrangement a bathing couple of the 1890's and pink candles in the background...

About the Guests... Cottons linens and summer suits predominating... Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, jr., wearing a steel grey pleated dress and a wide brimmed red straw... A banana yellow linen for Mrs. Charles Heltzel... Mrs.
Vernon Dyer smart in a navy blue linen dress with three-quarter princess style coat of watermelon red and navy accessories... Mrs.
Wayne Hadley chic in a bon bon pink pique dress and matching hat... Black with white for Mrs.
Walter Phillips, who already has acquired a grand tan... Mrs.
George Emigh in a shocking pink
