

Wedding Plans Are Revealed

Revealing plans for their June 17 weddings are Miss Margaret Newton and Miss Beverly Webster. The marriage of Miss Newton, daughter of Mrs. A. R. Newton, and Frank A. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brown, will take place at St. John's Lutheran church at 8 o'clock with a reception following at the Chi Omega sorority house. The Rev. H. W. Gross will officiate at the rites and Mrs. Ernest Hobbs will light the tapers.

Arnold Kahler will give his niece in marriage and the bride-elect has asked her future sister-in-law, Sharon Brown, to be her only attendant. John C. Noble, Jr., will stand with the bride-elect as best man. Donald McLaughlin will be the usher.

Perkins-Webster
The First Congregational church will be the setting for the wedding of Miss Beverly Webster, daughter of the Harry F. Websters, and Granville W. Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Granville G. Perkins. Dr. Seth Huntington will perform the 8 o'clock nuptials. Lawrence Miller

Doris Albin a June Bride Saturday

Yellow and white was the color scheme selected by Miss Doris Albin for her marriage to William W. DeVall on Saturday afternoon. The Altar of the First Congregational church was banked with bouquets of yellow snapdragons and white peonies. Dr. Seth Huntington performed the 3 o'clock ceremony. Terry Murray was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist.

Garden Club Meets
Members of the Salem Garden club will meet Monday at 2 o'clock in the Salem Woman's clubhouse and see slides on "Lilies for the Garden" by Edgar Kilne of Portland. Members are to bring flower arrangements.

The tea co-chairmen are Mrs. H. J. Clement and Mrs. A. C. Shaw.

A meeting of Capitol unit 9, American Legion auxiliary will be held at the Salem Woman's club Monday, June 5, at 8 p. m. with Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, president, presiding. Initiation of new members will be held with the past presidents in charge and nomination of officers made for the coming year.

Mrs. C. H. Boyd and Miss Irene Allen, the candle lighters, wore yellow taffeta dresses with lace inserts and clips of yellow flowers in their hair. Mrs. Martin Chaseman was the matron of honor and Miss Helen Handle the maid of honor. They also wore yellow taffeta dresses with lace inserts and taffeta mitts to match. Their round bouquets were of yellow carnations and roses and sweet peas backed with white mistle and in their hair were bandeaux of the same flowers. Susan, Ann Gardner, her cousin's flower girl, wore a white taffeta frock with yellow trim and carried yellow flowers.

Of white marquisette was the bride's gown, fashioned with a net yoke and sweetheart neckline with a ruffle of the marquisette. The sleeves were long and the full skirt was enhanced with a cascade ruffle down each side. The skirt terminated in a train. A bandeau of orange blossoms held in place her fingertip veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of sweet peas and stephanotis centered with a white orchid and encircled with silk lace. The bride is the daughter of Guy H. Albin and the late Mrs. Albin, and she was given in marriage by her father.

The benedict is the son of W. C. DeVall of Sheridan and Mrs. Anna DeVall of McMinnville. Val D. Sloper served as best man and ushers were Conrad Prange, Mark O'Dell and Kenneth Rich.

Greet Their Guests
The newlyweds greeted their guests in the fireplace room. Mrs. Minnie Melvin attended her granddaughter's wedding in a teal blue gown and her flowers were pink roses. Mrs. Cyril Henderson, sister of the groom, cut the cake and Mrs. Kenneth Rich assisted. Mrs. Val D. Sloper and Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan poured. Serving were Mrs. Robert Reed, Mrs. E. A. Walz, Mrs. Melvin Pavlik, Mrs. James Steffen, Mrs. C. A. Gardner and Mrs. R. N. Luss.

Mr. DeVall and his bride have gone south to San Francisco and other California points on their honeymoon. For travelling the bride wore a pink wool gabardine suit, the jacket fashioned with a pleated peplum in back. Her straw hat and accessories were of navy blue and she pinned a white orchid to her suit. After June 15 the couple will be at home at 695 Court st.
