

Avis Roberts, Mr. Brennan Married

Miss Avis Roberts became James W. Brennan's bride at a beautiful ceremony Saturday morning at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 10 o'clock. Father John O'Callaghan officiated at the nuptial mass. Mrs. Henry Nopson of Astoria, guest and Wayne Meusey was the organist. The altar was banked with bouquets of white snapdragons, peonies, gladioluses and mock orange.

The attractive, brunette bride is the daughter of W. A. Roberts of Astoria and Mrs. Henry Reaves of Petersburg, Virginia. Her handsome bridal gown was of white slipper satin designed with a lace inset at the neckline, a round collar of lace and long sleeves. The full skirt ended in a train, which was edged in lace and at the hip-line were satin flounces adorned with the lace. Her illusion veil was fingertip length and cascaded from a satin cap. She carried a white prayer book marked with a white orchid. Mr. Roberts gave his daughter in marriage.

Proceeding the bride to the altar were Mrs. E. R. Johnson of Corvallis, the honor matron, Miss Diana Arpke of Portland and Miss Margaret Austin of Coos Bay, as bridesmaids. They wore identical full skirted frocks of orchid taffeta made with cap sleeves and off-shoulder style necklines. Their taffeta caps matched their dresses and they carried cascade bouquets of lavender rhododendrons. Miss Jeanette Gilberston of Gresham and Miss Beverly Rand of Portland lighted the candles.

Thomas Brennan stood with his brother as best man and seating the guests were Larry Stocks, Warren James and Richard Hartley, all Phi Delta Theta fraternity brothers of the groom, and Edward Cairo of Portland.

Mrs. Roberts was here from Astoria and wore a green gown for the ceremony. The benediction is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Brennan and she chose a gold dress. Their corsages were of baby orchids.

The Pi Beta Phi house was the setting for the wedding reception. Mrs. C. S. Paddock, the groom's aunt, cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. E. J. Dahlberg and Mrs. Frederick Arpke of Portland. Serving were the Misses Joanne Estey, Donna Adams, Barbara MacDuffee, Joan Haberle, Carol Ann Smart, Bernice Haynes, Beverly but... Our Salem industries can be counted on to cooperate. The Papermill furnished a super duper supply of cinders continually during the Fire Chiefs' convention, just to make the boys feel at home. Almost perfect... talking recently to a woman about her husband's habits, we found that his only bad one is washing his hands in the kitchen sink and flipping the water on the woodwork. Anyone who gets married should expect that - but also as we understand it, some others, worse. Workingmen's compensation... We who have always worked on holidays so that you, Dear Readers, may get your Statesman 363 days of the year (including Sundays and Mondays) have found one compensation for it—we park free all day. Ain't no justice... at least so we are given to understand, when they tear down the courthouse and she's put away in a museum somewhere. Anyway, we hope the passing of the Old Girl won't be a symbol of the way justice is handled in the future. ... Maxine Buren
