Stuffed Rolls, Prune Cookies Among Recipes Coming from Research Group

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

The producers of fruit, who live in the state to our immediate south, are very generous in their offerings of recipes using their products. Here we pass on a few, mostly very good and timely too. Here's a new one to serve with a salad for luncheon:

STUFFED FINGER ROLLS

1/4 cup green olives
1/2 cup grated American cheese (packed)
1/4 teaspoon pitted onion
Cut olives from pits into small pieces. Combine with cheese, onion, Worcestershire sauce and mayonnaise. Split rolls lengthwise and hollow out centers slightly. Fill with olive-cheese mixture and press halves together again. Bake in slow oven (325 degrees F.) about 20 minutes or until rolls are heated through and filling begins to melt. Serves 4.

Then there's another olive recipe, this time using the ripe ones:

FAVORITE CHEESE SANDWICH FILLING

1/4 cup ripe olives
1 (3-ounce) package cream cheese
Cut olives from pits into small pieces. Soften cream cheese and blend with enough milk to give spreading consistency. Add celery, olives and seasonings to taste. Makes about 1 cup spread.

Cooked dried prunes, now in the markets in generous supply go to make these cookies:

PRUNE MAPLE COOKIES

1 1/2 cups cooked prunes
1 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
3 eggs
1 teaspoon maple extract
1 cup quick-cooking oats
Cut prunes from pits into small pieces. Cream shortening and sugar together. Mix in prunes, beaten eggs, flavoring, oats and almonds. Sift flour with salt and soda and beat into cream mixture. Drop by small teaspoonfuls onto ungreased cookie sheet about 2 inches apart. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 13 to 15 minutes. Frost with maple frosting. Makes about 5 dozen cookies.

MAPLE FROSTING

1/2 cup cream
2 tablespoons butter
3/4 cups confectioners' sugar
Combine cream and butter and heat to boiling. Add remaining ingredients and beat until smooth. Add more cream or milk to give spreading consistency if necessary.

CALIFORNIA SALAD

3 medium-sized oranges
1 small clove garlic
French dressing
2 avocados
Peel and section oranges. Rub inside of small bowl with cut clove of garlic. Place oranges in bowl and cover with French dressing. Let stand while preparing remainder of salad. Cut each avocado into halves lengthwise and remove seed and skin. Place one-half avocado on each garnished salad plate. Fill with orange sections and sprinkle with Roquefort cheese. Serve with French dressing. Serves 4.
