IDEA FOR A WEDDING

Need an idea for a wedding gift? Here's one that no one else may think of — that's inexpensive — and wonderfully useful from the first day the bride starts to keep house. Give her a luggage rack. It's a big help while bags and boxes keep coming into the house to be unpacked, and a prize bedspread saved now and forever after. The bride in waiting for most of her furniture will especially bless a gift like this. The luggage rack, plus a big tray, takes the place of a little table that isn't there, most attractively, too. Perhaps you can get together with a friend who's gift buying for the same bride — so that one of you buys the rack and the other a colorful metal or wood tray to fit it.

Learn how to make sure-fitting sleek slipcovers yourself with the help of Elizabeth Hillyer's booklet SIPCOVER MAGIC — THE EASY WAY. This booklet is yours for 15 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to Miss Hillyer at this newspaper. (Copyright 1950 by Wehn F. Dille Co.)
