'Sockless' Salems Rap Out 16 Bingles

By Al Lightner
Statesman Sports Editor

The absence of sock within the Salem Senator ranks of late may be the big reason for the club's slide down the Western International league standings ladder. But you'd have never believed it last night at Waters field.

The Salems unbuckled some of the best base-hitting wrath they've exhibited this season, banged out 16 of the precious things and

Salem General Manager George Emigh announced Tuesday, after returning from the league meeting in Tacoma and a confab with Outfielder Edo Vanni that negotiations to land the player suspended by Victoria "are still in the fire." Agreement on salary is currently holding up the deal. Vanni has been released by Victoria. Emigh also added that the prospective deal with Victoria for Catcher Al Ronning has fallen through. "Victoria wouldn't go for it," he stated.

Salem may secure the pitching services of Righthander "Bullet Bob" Jensen, late of the Victorians, however. He has agreed to terms with Emigh via telephone, but there is a rumor that since then Jensen has decided to return to his San Francisco home. He too was recently released by the Athletics.

spilled the Vancouver Caps 11 to 7 in the rain-spattered series opener. Mgr. Ad Liska's lads looked like anything but the batting anemics they've been the past few weeks and sprayed base knocks all over the premises. One of same went beyond the spacious yard in the form of Mambone Mel Wasley's fifth home run of the season, a three-run poke in the fourth inning that sent the Solons on their merry way.

Their lineup back in what Liska considers first-line form again with the return of injured Wally (Chief) Scott to his shortstop slot and "Hurryin' Hal" Zurcher to the outfield for his initial game after being recalled from Stockton, the Salems commenced as if they were to be blown out of the park by Bill Brenner's visitors.

Vancouver started into Rawbone Ray McNulty in the first heat like they'd been waiting for him ever since he licked 'em 9-3 last week at Vancouver. Jim Robinson singled and Red Clarkson tripled in bang-bang order, and Clarkson came all the way around when McNulty threw wildly himself trying to nail him at third base on a relay throw. Then both Len Tran and Dick Sinovic biffed scratchy singles to continue giving Ray a bad time of it.

The free-wheeling curve baller got out with only the two runs against him, and then after serving up a home run blast to Clarkson in the third inning, Ray settled down for five consecutive scoreless frames.

The 3-0 Caps lead looked awfully big with George Nicholas protecting it in good shape the first three frames he toiled. But it just wasn't to be for Nick one of the better flingers in the league.

Wasley started his downfall and the Solon glee in the fourth with a solid single to center. Bob Cherry then dented the distant left field wall with a double and one out later Bill Beard rifled a single to left. These two tallies put Salem back in the rassle.

Wally Scott's walk and Dick Bartle's single to left set the table for Hambone in the fifth. He skied a low, inside Nicholas pitch toward the right field wall, and even though the ball wasn't hit solidly it was mastered hard enough to put Salem ahead 5-3.

Beard's double, a walk, Gene Gaviglio's single and another bingle by Bartle chased three more tallies across in the sixth and sent Nicholas to the dugout. His successor Kevin King got a three-run outburst rammed at him in the eighth on consective hits by Gaviglio, Scott, Bartle and Wasley, plus Cherry's single off Bob Brunner, third Caps pitcher.

McNulty faltered badly in the ninth by walking three and giving three hits for four Vancouver runs. But by then Ray was feeling little pain and could afford to be generous. It was Ray's second straight win.

The threatening weather knocked off the attendance brutally, as only 471 paid showed up. Most of them had to scurry for cover in the fourth when a rain squall pelted the arena.

Both Bartle and Wasley, each with four hits, led the parade for Salem. Of the 10 hits McNulty gave, Clarkson had three including his triple and homer.

For tonight's second game it will be Johnny Tierney for Salem, after his 12th victory, against Bob Snyder of the Vans. It will be "Third Base Club Night" for the kids who have registered with the police department also.

RAINIERS AFTER McGUIRE?

SPOKANE, June 20 -(AP)- The Chronicle said today the Seattle Rainiers are after Bobby McGuire, a hard-hitting outfielder on the Washington State college baseball team.

Hot After Leading Supper Clubbers

Even though the Salem Supper Clubbers are out in front of the City Softball league race with a 6-0 record these two Golden Pheasant aces and their mates fully expect to make it very interesting for the Clubbers before the season is over. Pitcher Warren Miller, one of the best in the league, is at left and Catcher Al Alley, a potent hitter, is at right. Second round action in the loop opens Thursday night with the Pheasants playing the Clubbers at nine o'clock, after an eight o'clock South Salem Merchants vs. Randle Oil mix.

Texas Clouts Cougar Nine

OMAHA, June 20-(AP)-Defending Champion Texas walloped Washington State 12 to 1 tonight in the NCAA baseball tournament. Washington State had been the last unbeaten team in the double elimination tourney and was considered the strongest bidder for Texas' title.

Wisconsin eliminated Alabama winning the first game tonight 3-1.

The Texans unleashed their batting power combing three Washington State pitchers for 12 hits, and routing ace Lee Dolquist.

Tomorrow night Wisconsin plays Rutgers in a single game beginning at 9:15 p.m. (EST).

Weather Hits WIL Contests

By The Associated Press

Weather washed out two Western International league games last night. Spokane at Wenatchee and Victoria at Tri-City were all given a rest because of rain. Victoria and Tri-City will play a twin-bill Wednesday as will Spokane and Wenatchee. (Tacoma at Yakima score page one.)

Portland Loses Series Opener to Rainers 4-2

PORTLAND, June 20 -(AP)- Frank Colman laced a home run with two men on base in the first inning to carry the Seattle Rainiers to a 4-2 victory over the Portland Beavers here tonight.

Just for good measure the left-handed Colman then drove home the fourth Seattle run the next time he came to bat. That was in the third inning with Walt Judnich on base after singling. Colman rapped a long double to left field for the tally.

All this come off Portland Pitcher Red Lynn, who later settled down. He did not allow a hit after the fourth inning.

Portland meanwhile collected eight hits off Hector Brown, but managed to score only in the fifth, when singles by Frank Austin and Luis Marquez and a double by John Rucker produced two runs.

In other games the Hollywood Stars held on to their five game top-place margin as they knocked off San Francisco's Seals, 2-1. Second-place Oakland slaughtered Los Angeles, 18-2 with the aid of a 16-hit attack and a 10-run eighth inning. San Diego edged CSacramento 6-5.

Yaqui Tandem Tops Meanies

The Yaqui Injun boys, The Kid and The Chief, put a smash-bang finish to last night's riotous grappling brawls at the armory by taking the main event win from nasties Irish Jack O'Riley and Rod Fenton. Yaqui Joe's pair of protages proved to be all they were cracked up to be as a tag team duet.

O'Riley managed to hammerlock The Kid into submission for the first fall, but that was it for the meanies. In the No. 2 fall a series of flying butts and a body press, with the help of a few flying mares from his partner, brought the fast-hitting Chief a nod over O'Riley. There were a couple of illegal tags along the way, at which O'Riley and Fenton did some tall screaming, but to little avail.

In No. 3 the Chief used three Irish whips and a long arm bar to flatten Fenton.

The Leo Wallick-Mr. Sakata special was a dandy skirmish also with the pair going to a fall-apiece draw. The classy-looking Sakata, a much improved gladiator nabbed the first fall with Judo chaps and a flying hip lock. Wallick's reverse chin locks, with 2½ minutes to go evened it. The two went at it hammer and tong afterward, with Wallick running from the battle premises finally.

In the opener Eddie Williams used a giant swing to down the well constructed Bill Melby.

CUP SCHEDULE SET

'Mick' Hurls 'Souths' to Win; Clear Lake, Paperman Victors

Veteran Leon (Mick) Mickenham came back to the pitching wars last night to hurl the South Salem Merchants to a four-hit 7-1 victory over the 12th Street Merchants in a makeup City Softball league contest. It was Mickenham's first pitching appearance in the City loop in several years.

In Industrial action Hi Hilfiker of Clear Lake tossed a no-hitter with an odd twist as the Lakers whipped State Unemployment, 12-8. The Unemployments piled up their eight tallies with the help of enemy miscues and walks. Another Industrial tilt was Paper Mill beat Mayflower Milk, 5-3 as Russ Krueger tossed a one-hitter.

The South Salems clinched their title with a five-run burst in the second featuring a three-run triple by Howard Schlag. Big blow for Clear Lake was Garner's two-run homer in the fifth.

No City league games are due tonight but in the Industrial circuit the top-place Teamsters meet Naval Reserve at 8 o'clock while Hallmark Cards takes on Maple Dairy at 9.

Bowl Scheds 'Rods' Again

The hustling hot rods will be back again Saturday night at Hollywood Bowl in Salem, it was announced Tuesday by the Valley Sports auto racing promoters. The Saturday program will be the fourth of the season for the roadsters here. Time trials will start at eight o'clock and the balance of the card, climaxed by a 40-lap Class A main event will get under way around 9 p.m.

A larger field of drivers and cars has been lined up for the meet. The veteran Northwest campaigner Gordy Youngstrom, piloting his No. 7 car, will be here for the first time this season.

The roadster main events thus far have been won by Max Humm and Randy Francis, the latter copping the last two in a row. Francis will be here to try to make it three straight. San Francisco Drivers Don Radbruch and Paul Kamm will be here also.

The 40-lap mainer will be the longest race of the season here thus far.

DeMoss Wins Tourney Test

DENVER, June 20 -(AP)- Two Simon-pures lightly regarded before play begin threw scares in the first round of the Women's Western Open Golf tournament today, but the pros and top amateurs marched through without casualties.

Mrs. Ellamae Roessler, carried Louise Suggs to the 20th green before losing one-down to the defending champion from Carrolltown, Ga. Peggy Kirk, a dangerous amateur from Finley, O., beat Edean Anderson of Helena, Mont. two-up.

Grace DeMoss of Corvallis, Ore., overwhelmed May Cordingly of Des Moines 7 and 5, although shooting far below the standard which won her qualifying honors yesterday with a 75. Patty Berg of Minneapolis, Mrs. George Zaharias of Chicago, Betty Jameson of San Antonio, who with Miss Suggs make up the big four among the pro favorites, all walked in.

Boat Record Target Today

SEATTLE, June 20-(AP)-A mystery boat designed by a Seattle aircraft engineer goes after Sir Malcolm Campbell's world speed record tomorrow. Oddly, it's name is Slo-Mo-Shun IV. It is reported unofficially to have churned over Lake Washington at a 150-mile or better clip.

Stanley S. Sayres, the owner who has tested it carefully through many months, is mum on its speed.

The target is the 141.74 miles an hour set by Sir Malcolm 11 years ago.

TEAMS TO DRILL

The Junior Senators and Berg's Market teams of the Junior "C" league will practice at Olinger tonight at 6 o'clock. All players are asked to be on hand.

Snead Defending King

Linksters Start Action Today in PGA Tourney

COLUMBUS, O., June 20 -(AP)- The $40,000 Mid-Century PGA championship—32nd in the long line of colorful classics—opens tomorrow over Scioto Country club's 7032-yard curse with Samuel Jackson Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. V., defending the play-for-pay title.

A field of 129 qualifiers from all parts of the country, including eight former winners of the coveted crown, will tee off Wednesday in the opening half of the 36-hole qualifier. The second round is slated Thursday, with the low 63 joining Snead in the match play bracket which runs out next Tuesday.

This one is for charity—so far as the sponsors are concerned—with the Columbus Boys club and the city zoo getting the profits.

Snead, four under par for 27 holes in his opening practice round, romped around in 35-34—69 today, three under figures. He said his putter was working well.

The guy everyone was talking about, however, was Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, former Open champ who is the hottest thing on the tournament trail just now. Mangrum manufactured five birdies and an eagle today—the latter with a wee-one-foot putt—but missed par on two holes as he finished with 67.

The mustachioed grandfather at 35 has $8,100 in prize money to show for his June tournament activities.

Ed (Porky) Oliver of Seattle tested the course and carded a 71.

But Gehrmann Steals Show

Coast Trackmen Win

MADISON, Wis., June 20-(AP)-Pacific coast all-star trackmen beat a big ten team today 69 to 63 but Don Gehrmann, Wisconsin's great distance star, stole the show. Gehrmann blazed to victory in the half-mile race in 1 minute 50.7 seconds, only 1.5 seconds slower than the world record of 1:49.2 set by Sid Wooderson of Great Britain in 1938.

It was the fastest half mile run anywhere this year and broke the meet and stadium records.

He pulled us from apparent defeat to take the race, picking up 25 yards on the last lap to win from Bob Chambers of USC by two yards.

Earlier he had won the one mile run with a great sprint in the last 150 yards. His time for the mile was 4 minutes 11.1 seconds, a new stadium record.

Four meet records were broken. Besides the new half mile record, new standards were set in the shot put, high hurdles and two mile run.

Otis Chandler of Stanford set a new meet record of 56 feet, 1¾ inches in the shot. Dick Attesey of USC, set a new meet record of 13.8 seconds in the 120 yard high hurdles. The fourth meet record broken was by Don McEwen of Michigan. He ran the two-mile in 9 minutes, 9.6 seconds.

Gehrmann's appearance today was the last time the little Badger star will run for Wisconsin.

The Pacific coast team won the 440 yard relay with a great spring by Donnie Anderson of California, running anchor. Anderson picked up three yards over Charles Peters of Indiana, to finish two feet in front at the tape. Other Pacific runners were Craig Weisman of Washington, Bill Fell of Oregon and Al Mejia of USCA. The time was 41.5 seconds.

Giants Defeat Red Bird Club

Bombers Nip Tribe, Solons Upset Bengals

By Joe Falls

NEW YORK, June 20 -(AP)- Brooklyn bombed its way into undisputed possession of first place in the National league tonight with a rousing 8-2 victory over Cincinnati's Reds.

While the Dodgers were clubbing three home runs against three Cincinnati pitchers, the St. Louis Cardinals fell one game off the pace, dropping a 3-2 decision to the New York Giants.

Other National league action saw Chicago's Cubs, behind Bob Rush's five-hit pitching, turn back the Boston Braves, 4-3, in ten innings, and the Philadelphia Phillies rally to whip the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-3.

The New York Yankees moved to within one game of the league-leading Detroit Tigers in the American league. The Yanks, with Jo DiMaggio joining the exclusive "2,000-hit club," whipped Cleveland, 8-2, while Detroit was upset, 4-2, by the Washington Senators.

The Boston Red Sox ended a five-game losing streak, downing the Chicago White Sox, 5-3. The St. Louis Browns shaded Connie Mack's reeling Philadelphia Athletics, 1-0, as Ned Garver bested Lou Brissie.

Gil Hodges led Brooklyn's home run parade with a "grand-slammer" in the Dodgers' six-run second inning against Kenny Raffensberger. Carl Furillo and Bill Cox chipped in with solo homers for the Brooks. Preacher Roe won his eighth game.

West Westrum's eighth inning home run gave the Giants their first victory over theh Cardinals this season. Stan Musial had tied the game, 2-2, with a homer in the top of the eighth—the 1,500 hit of his National league career.

Sheldon Jones checked St. Louis on six hits to pick up his fifth victory. Harry Brecheen was the loser.

DiMaggio got two hits and drove home three runs at Ed Lopat checked Cleveland with seven hits. The great Yankee outfielder thus joins Luke Appling of the White Sox and Wally Moses of the A's as the only active performers with 2,000 or more hits.

Little Chico Marrero stopped the hard-hitting Detroiters on four hits. Washington's Eddie Yost highlighted a three-run rally in the seventh inning with his eighth home run with one mate on.

Turf Giants To Vie Again

ALBANY, Calif., June 20-(AP)- Citation, who has been conceding weight to rivals for years, will accept an advantage in the twilight of his racing career Saturday. The Calumet farm star will carry a pound less than his arch rival, Noor, when the pair meet for the fourth time.

In the weights released today for the $50,000 added Golden Gate handicap, closing feature at Golden Gate fields, Citation will tote 126 pounds. Irish-bred Noor, who has flashed to the wire first in their three preceding meetings, was assigned a package of 127.
