Juniors Open Flight Action

Olney, Albrich Gain Meet's Semi-Finals

Some first-rounders and also some seconds were fired Tuesday as flight play opened in the annual Junior Golf tourney, sponsored by Howard Wicklund of Maples Sports firm.

Two boys, Jack Olney and Bob Albrich, captured to matches each to advance all the way to the semi-finals. Olney beat Jack Baker, 5-4 in a first-rounder, then stopped Mickey Raschko, 3-2 in the second round. Raschko had advanced with a 2 up win over Don Callaghan in the first round.

Albrich stopped Leo Sebern, 4-3, then topped Bob Gordon, 5-3.

Other first round results: Kent Myers over Paul Sundin, 1 up; Ed Knapp over Ed Bauer, 4-2; Bob Gordon over Gary Campbell, 4-3; Ron Hoxie over Don Hughes, 3-2.

The first-round losers dropped to form a first flight. Two first flight matches Tuesday saw Bauer top Sundin 1 up and Sebern beat Campbell, 1 up.

Championship flight matches left in the second round: Myers vs. Knapp; Hoxie vs. winner of Stan Samuels-Loren Lipper match.

Final firing in the tourney is expected to be finished up by Saturday.

The boys' division of the meet was switched to medal play because of a small turnout. The crown was captured Monday by Allan Wood with a 179 score for 36 holes.

Bookmen, Laundrymen Also Win

Keizers, W-Salem Grab 'B' Lead on No-Hitters

A pair of no-hitters were chalked up last night as the Keizer Merchants and West Salem Lumbermen leaped to the top of the Junior "B" league standings with their second straight wins.

Keizer's Ken Pringle gave no blows and no runs and whiffed 17 men as his club topped Orchard Heights, 3-0. Pringle issued only one free pass. Lowell Pearce of the West Salems also gave no hits but had an unearned run scored against him as the Lumbermen whipped Salem Heights, 8-1. Pearce fanned 10 and walked one.

Salem Laundry made its debut with an 8-5 victory over Bishop Electric as Dave King threw a three-hitter. Commercial Book Store stopped Four Corners, 8-1 as Ron Whitaker hurled a four-hit job.

Boyington and Landon led the Keizer attack with two for three each. Puhlman and Trussell picked up a pair of blows apiece to spark the West Salem offense. DeRosier paced the Bookmen with a pair.

Corriden Puts Life in Chisox

NEW YORK, June 20—(AP)—About time somebody called on Johnny (Red) Corriden to stand up and take a bow.

Since Corriden took charge of the Chicago White Sox May 27, they have played .600 ball. They won 15 and lost 10. That's about .340 points better than they were doing before he moved in.

Attendance spurted under Corriden, too. When Red became manager the Sox had drawn 113,625 for 13 home dates. In eight home dates since they have placed to 117,827 for a season total of 231,452.

Legion Plays Oregon City

Bill Hanauska's Salem Capital Post American Legion baseball juniors again go to Oregon City tonight to play the O-City district entry in a night game. The Salems have won once and lost twice in district play thus far, and one of the setbacks was a 4-2 season opener at the hands of the Oregon City club. Salem's other loss was to the Silverton-Mt. Angel entry. The victory was registered over Woodburn.

Either Bob Steinbrook or Steve Merchant will face the foe from the mound in tonight's game. The Salems are faced with upsetting Oregon City or falling far behind in the district pennant race.

'Spin' Caster Here Tonight

Buzz Fiorini, noted Washington fishing guide and spinning tackle exhibitionist will make his Salem appearance tonight at the Izaak Walton league chapter clubhouse located at 500 S. Cottage st., near Mill creek. The demonstrations, free to the public, will be given at 5 and 7 p.m. Fiorini is from Seattle and his visit is being sponsored by the numerous fishing tackle dealers in Salem.

The visitor will use spinning tackle and will show how to cast both overhand and sidearm for accuracy, and also for distance. He will also give many valuable tips on catching fish with spinning gear.

Walton Session Slated Tonight

Discussion of big game hunting regulations by State Game Commission officials, a talk on forest fire prevention plus two movies and a demonstration of spinning casting will feature a meeting of the Salem Izaak Walton league chapter tonight, 8 o'clock at the clubhouse.

Bob Mace and John McKean of the game commission will speak on big game regulation and S. T. Moore, district ranger at Detroit, will deliver points on forest fire prevention. Moore will show a film, "Then It Happened", which deals with the disastrous Maine fire in 1948. Another film to be shown is "Elk for the Future", portraying elk operations in Wyoming. Pat Crossland is in charge of entertainment for the session.

Wives are invited along with Walton members.

Broad Buying Sends Grain Prices Ahead

CHICAGO, June 20—(AP)—Broad general buying sent prices up at the board of trade today, after corn had resisted declines in other pits early in the session.

At the close, wheat was 1¾ to 2⅞ higher, corn was 1½ to 1⅞ higher, oats were ⅝ to 1⅞ higher, rye was 1½ to 1¾ higher, soybeans were 1¼ to 4½ higher, and lard was 3 cents a hundredweight higher to 3 cents lower.

Wheat was aided early in the session by some mill buying and prospects of export business. After corn refused to decline commission houses started fairly heavy buying and a firm to strong tone continued to the close.

Slow-Motion Rally Saves Stock Losses

NEW YORK, June 20—(AP)—The stock market staged a slow-motion rally today following a short but severe morning trouncing.

Losses outnumbered gains by a heavy margin at the final bell. Closing prices were at or near the best levels of the day, however, and most declines were limited to fractions.

Trading hit a fast clip during the morning drop but slowed on the way back. The flurry of activity lifted sales to 1,470,000 shares from 1,290,000 Monday.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost .3 of one point at 78, a low since May 15. The industrial group was solely responsible for the drop. Rails were unchanged on average and utilities a trifle higher.

The market was narrow with only 1,112 individual issues traded. Of these 555 were marked down and 270 improved.

ROLLIN' ALONG by Jerry Stone

If Tex Salkeld can turn out a card sporting four knockouts in five outs with action galore all the way such as the last outing carried he need never worry about too many empty seats. . . Comments from round about termed it one of the best offerings in a long time. . . Can't get around it, the knockout punch still stands as the best gate attraction the ring game boasts. . .

Gals Envious?

Sidelight noted when Georgeous George made his armory appearance last week: As the Gorgeous one made his entrance, long, blonde curly locks reflecting the light, gal after gal on the premises (and there were plenty of 'em), with the common feminine gesture put hands to their hair and patted rebellious curls back into place. Wonder if they were envious? . . .

Congrats in Order

The Elks tourney is now history and congrats should go to Exalted Ruler Glenn Burright, and all others having a hand in the affair for the snappy manner in which the meet was run off. Week-by-week, round by round the schedule was adhered to. . . Now what the golfing fraternity hereabouts will have to do is uncover a local hope who can break the monopoly the outsiders—particularly Dick Yost—have held on the tourney for the past several years. . . In our opinion Jack Russell and Jim Sheldon stand as THE men in Salem ranks when they're right. . . But those pesky "off" days seem always to bob up. . .

Will Links Doors Open?

Baseball has opened the doors to negroes—and if professional golf one day does the same thing look what the boys may have to contend with. At least that was quite a feat that colored star stroked the other day. Just a 29-31 for a fantastic 60. . . Yarns circulate constantly about the prodigious talent of various negro swingers about the country. There may or may not be Hogans and Sneads galore among the colored gentry. That question will be answered only when the test of actual torney competition arrives—if it ever does . . .

Unique Meet Due

Speaking of golf, due in August is a KOCO-sponsored event which will be unique in that it will be a "shortstop" affair. It'll be an ambitious meet with prizes aplenty and will consume only two days—Saturday and Sunday. It will be a quickie, sure enough.

Bevos Supply Surprise

Among the big surprises currently rebounding about the arena is the fourth-place hold the Portland Beavers currently share with Frisco in the Coast league race (at least up to this writing). The Bevos are only a handful of games away from the leaders though their performance of the past week indicates they may be slipping. . . Anyhow, on paper it didn't look at all possible before the campaign started that the Portlands would prove much of a factor in the '50 race. The slugging of Joe Brovia, Mickey Rocco and Luis Marquez and some smart pitching by Heiser, Adams, Lynn and Drilling has helped. Manager Bill Sweeney can also take some bows. . . But the Portlands do show indications of a downward trend, which along with the bad time our Sal-ons are having lately, makes it a time of worry for Owner George Norgan. . .

Things Are Looking Up

Huskies, SC Dominate

When you think of crew racing you think of Washington's Huskies and mention track and SC's Trojans automatically come to mind. If ever two schools predominated a particular sport it's the Huskies and Southern Californians. . . Why? Well, looking at the Washingtons you can find the main reason in Mentor Al Ulbrikson. The crew sport, unlike many another, doesn't get its talent developed in the prep schools. Most of the material comes raw and untrained. It's up to the coach to find the men and give 'em the ABC's. . . Ulbrikson is to crew what Rockne was to football. A host of men trained by the Husky mentor are now mentoring the oar sport at major schools throughout the country. . . . As for the Trojans and their ability to tack down title after title in track, there is no doubting that they get a head start in material. Dean Cromwell built the sport up at SC and in the process made the LA school a mecca for many a prep standout.
