

Social Events On Agenda of Encampment

Several hundred Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary members will be in Salem this week for the 22nd annual encampment, opening on Wednesday, Mrs. Stanley Tripp, department president, will preside at the sessions to be held in the armory beginning at 9 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. each day through Saturday. Registration will begin Tuesday at the encampment headquarters in the Senator hotel.

Tea in Smith Gardens
First social event of the encampment will be the tea to be given by the auxiliary in the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Smith on North Summer street on Wednesday afternoon. In event of rain the affair will be held in the Smith home. Calling hours are from 3:30 to 5 o'clock and the tea will honor the American Gold Star Mothers. All auxiliary members are invited to attend.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Darold D. DeCoe, Sacramento, past national president of the ladies auxiliary, who will arrive in Salem Tuesday for the encampment, Mrs. Dorothy Hill, a national representative, Mrs. Stanley Tripp, Mrs. Arwin Strayer, senior vice-president of the state auxiliary and Mrs. Madeline Butler, state president of the Gold Star Mothers.

Pouring will be Mrs. Mel Clemens and Mrs. Russell Mudd. Assisting will be Mrs. Dale Mauk, Mrs. John Peterson, Mrs. Charles Hageman, Mrs. Dale Brooks and Mrs. Dave Furlough.

Thursday noon there will be a luncheon for national and department officers at the Senator hotel. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Nellie Marshall, Mrs. Alice Siewert, Mrs. Maude Dutton, Mrs. Maude Olson and Mrs. Willis Boone, chairman.

Banquet and Grand Ball
On Friday is a luncheon at the Marion hotel for the presidents and past presidents. Mrs. L. L. Hansen heads the committee and assisting are Mrs. Willis Boone, Mrs. James Beall, Mrs. Virgil Bolton, Mrs. Olga Terrill, Mrs. Ed Van Zanten, Mrs. A. H. Davis, Mrs. George Mason, Mrs. Ivel Halsey and Mrs. Charles Hunt.

Largest social event of the encampment will be the banquet and grand ball on Thursday night at the VFW hall. Dinner will be at 6:30 o'clock and dress is optional. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Craven will sing and play throughout the dinner hour. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock to the music of The Five Shards and the grand march will be at 10:30 o'clock. Tickets for the dinner and ball may be obtained at the armory or headquarters at the Senator hotel.

The McKeegan club will hold its annual picnic for employees and families at Pat's Acres today. Mrs. William Walters is in charge of food, Miss Dorothy Richardson of sports and Miss Caroline Miller and Mike Jurewicz of entertainment.

Mrs. Stanley Tripp, Corvallis, department president, who will preside at sessions of the 22nd annual encampment of the ladies auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars convening here this week.

Ceremony at St. Boniface Church

St. Boniface Catholic church in Sublimity was the scene of the wedding of Miss Patricia McGovern, daughter of J. J. McGovern of Topeka, Kansas, and Corporal Gordon Nightingale, United States Air Force, McCord Field, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Nightingale of Sublimity, on Saturday, June 24. The Rev. Father Carl Mai officiated at the 11 o'clock ceremony, Jerry Neitling was the soloist, accompanied by Mrs. B. J. Minden.

Summer flowers were used about the altar and Leland Martman, Layson Nightingale, Richard Hartman and Freddy Meier were altar boys.

George Petersen, uncle of the bride, gave his niece in marriage, who chose a white satin gown fashioned with tight bodice, Peter Pan collar and a court train edged with satin ruffles. Her fingertip veil was held with clusters of seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses and white stephanotis.

Miss Deveta Nightingale was the honor attendant and wore a pastel green dotted Swiss dress fashioned with tight bodice and ballerina-length skirt, with a wide green sash. She carried a nosegay of pastel summer flowers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward McGovern, who wore a yellow dotted Swiss dress, Mrs. Loraine Pindexter in blue dotted Swiss, and Mrs. J. C. Hartwig in a pink dotted Swiss. Their frocks were made identical to the honor attendant and they carried nosegays to match their gowns.

Best man was Gilbert Kentz

Wedding, First Service in Sanctuary

The wedding ceremony of Miss Violet Harvey and Robert Lyman on Saturday night was the first service to be held in the new sanctuary of the Court Street Christian church, of which the groom's father is pastor. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Love and the groom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Lyman.

The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Lyman and Mr. Love. The bride wore a white satin wedding gown with long train and she carried a white Bible with an orchid. Miss Eunice Sowa was maid of honor, wearing pink and Miss Virginia Brown and Miss Anita Boyas, wearing pastel colored dresses, were bridesmaids.

Stanley Lyman served as best man for his brother, and Harold Harvey, brother of the bride, Lowell Buckley, her brother-in-law, Clair Priem and Daryl Herron were ushers.

Miss Beverly Lyman played the wedding marches and accompanied the singer, Phillip McHarness. The bride's mother was seated in navy blue and the groom's mother in aqua. They wore corsages of pastel colored flowers.

The new Mrs. Lyman is a graduate of Salem high school. The groom is a photographer with the state highway department. They will live in Salem.

Mrs. William A. Lenhart and daughter, Anne, are entraining Thursday in Portland for an extended vacation. Their first stop will be in Bismark, North Dakota, where they will be the guests of former mayor and Mrs. A. P. Lenhart. They will then travel to Minnesota where they will visit friends and relatives in Duluth and spend a month at the lake resorts. During their absence Mr. and Mrs. Alan B. Berg will occupy the Lenhart residence on North 1st street.

The Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will hold its monthly meeting at the Salem Woman's club. The committee in charge includes Mrs. M. S. Innocenti, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Domogalla and Mrs. Phillip Krechter.

and seating the guests were Edward McGovern, Ronald Meier and Jerry Roberts.

Following the ceremony the reception was held in the parish hall at Sublimity. Miss Mary Bourke, aunt of the bride, poured and Mrs. George Petersen, also an aunt, cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Ed Benedict, Mrs. J. Ditter, Mrs. Nick Kramer, sr., Miss Dorothy Ballard, Miss Georgeann Burghart and Miss Dorothy Kessel.

The bride donned a grey sheer with white accessories for their trip to the Oregon beaches and on their return will live in Salem.

Seen and Heard...

By JERYME ENGLISH

BUILDING TIME . . . The Roy Harlands have started construction on their new house on Shoreline Drive just adjoining Manbrin Gardens to the south. A beautiful setting, their property overlooking the river. . . .

The Rollin Haags are building a new home just above Croisan Creek in back of the A. C. Haag property. . . . their house is planned so that additional rooms may be added later. . . .

Coe and Lois Roberts broke ground this week for their new home on Vista avenue, which isn't far from the Donald Roberts' place in Morningstar. . . .

JUNE WEEK . . . at Annapolis for the Lee Bowns and daughter, Margaret, who went east to attend graduation of the former's son, Walter, from the U. S. Naval Academy. . . . The Bowns were fortunate in having a house for the week, which was a popular gathering spot for Walter's classmates. . . .

Peg said she cooked more away from home than here as the boys more than enjoyed home cooking, something they haven't had for four years. . . . Among the highlights. . . . Baccalaureate at the chapel, more popularly known as Sob Sunday. . . . a visit to Bancroft hall, which is the only time of the year women are allowed. . . . A dinner for all the parents there for the festivities. . . .

A garden party. . . . the farewell ball. . . . Margaret Bown escorted by Jerry Hayes of Salem, a midshipman at Annapolis. . . .

The Bowns also saw Michael Kaye, son of the George Kayes, who has just completed his first year at Annapolis. . . . Impressive were the three reviews and presentation of colors. . . .

The Harold Says of Washington, D. C., formerly of Salem and Portland, spent an evening with the Bowns at their place. . . . The Bowns also had luncheon with Congressman Harris Ellsworth. . . .

Peg Bown visited with Mrs. Elmer Wooton, who plans to come west for a visit with her Salem friends next month. . . . Colonel Wooton will follow later and return with his wife to Washington. . . .

The Wootons recently moved to a new apartment in Georgetown, with which they are most thrilled. . . . Even though they are well acquainted in Washington now they can hardly wait for the day to return to Salem permanently. . . .

NUPITAL NOTES . . . So sweet and simple the wedding of Margaret Newton and Frank Brown a week ago Saturday at St. John's Lutheran church. . . . The small sanctuary just accommodating the number of guests. . . .

Blue and white the color scheme throughout. . . . even blue candles. . . . and instead of the candlelit aisle the bridal party walked under an archway of mock orange tied with white mauline bows. . . .

Gray admired the bride and her attendants in crisp organza frocks with pert stiffened ballerina skirts. . . . all blue for the girls even to their opera pumps. . . .

and Midge, as the bride is known to her many friends, in the traditional white. . . . her dress so quaint. . . . wearing her short veil over her face during the ceremony. . . . even the best man and groom in blue-grey suits. . . .

Midge tossed her old fashioned nosegay as she and Frank made a dash for the car amidst showers of rice. . . . Nancy Montgomery, the lucky catcher. . . . Nancy, an airline stewardess, flew in just for the wedding, and was most attractive in a mocha beige ankle length gown with brown velvet sash caught with violets at the waist. . . .

At the reception . . . The Chi Omega sorority house the setting. . . . At the entrance way twin vases filled with calla lilies. . . . The bride's cake decorated with blue roses. . . . blue satin ribbon used on the table decor. . . .

Many of the guests enjoying their cake and punch on the patio and garden overlooking the creek. . . . A beautiful summer's night with starlit sky and a new moon. . . .

About the guests . . . Family groups. . . . The George Rhodens, David and Merle. . . . The Wallace Carsops and Wally. . . . Mrs. Carson smart in a navy blue dress with wide brimmed hat adorned with roses. . . . The Kenneth Wilsons and daughter, Patricia, chic in a pale blue suit. . . . Mrs. Taylor Hawkins accompanied by her son-in-law and daughter, Bill and Harriet Duncan, over from Silverton. . . .

The Duncans have just moved into a new hillside home with a view. . . . Mrs. Robert Nickens and son-in-law and daughter, Bob and Patsy Schroeder, here from Portland. . . . Patsy in sophisticated black and a fur stole. . . . Barbara McClintock squired by her fiancé, Phillip Welling. . . . their wedding to be in early September. . . .

Barbara wearing a becoming ankle length dress of cocoa brown. . . . Miss Loretta Ford in a brown ensemble and matching hat trimmed in pink roses. Mrs. Roy Simmons in almond brown and white, a lovely complement to her Palm Springs sun tan. . . .

COLOR NOTE . . . Mrs. John Drager's stunning outfit. . . . a yellow summer suit with robin's egg blue blouse, a tangerine velvet. . . .

Miss Loewen Is Bride of Saturday

The First Church of the Nazarene was the setting for the wedding of Miss Norma Jean Loewen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Loewen, and Robert R. Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stone, on Saturday afternoon. It was at 2 o'clock that the Rev. Orville Jenkins performed the nuptials before a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The altar was banked with bouquets of white gladioluses and greenery. Willard Friesen was the soloist.

Of heavy white satin was the bride's gown, fashioned with a Victorian collar and neckline embellished with seed pearls. A wide panel of the beaded pearls extended down the front of the skirt, which terminated in a train. Her illusion veil was edged with lace and cascaded from a crown shaped headress. She carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations and bouvardia with a shower of satin streamers and roses. William E. Loewen gave his sister in marriage.

Mrs. Gerold Barrett of Prineville was her sister's matron of honor and wore a pastel green taffeta gown with accordion pleating edging the neckline and repeated on the skirt. She carried a pillbox hat with veil that tied under the chin and yellow and tangerine shoes. . . . her purse a wooden Chinese box and beautiful topaz jewelry, which her husband got for her in the Orient. . . . The Dragers were feted at a round of parties during their visit here and are now enroute back to the Philippines. . . . Brett is an artist and author and has a definite flare for color. . . . using combinations the average person wouldn't think of. . . . Perhaps living in the Orient for so many years is the result of her usage of color. . . . She has a beautiful collection of silks, brocades and embroideries from China. . . . costumes and hats from Peiping, exquisite screens from Shanghai and Fochow and fabrics, hats and jewelry from India.

The Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Sunday, June 24, 1950 - 9

nosegay of carnations edged in pink lace. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Clemens Fischer, Miss Lynne Mueller and Miss Patricia D'Arcy, niece of the groom, as the junior bridesmaid. They wore pink taffeta gowns styled similar to the honor attendant's and carried nosegays edged in green lace with satin bows.

Dean Allport stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Arthur Joseph and Clemens Fischer.

Mrs. Loewen chose a navy blue crepe afternoon gown and corsage of gardenias for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Stone attended her son's marriage in a navy blue and white print gown and with her parents.

her flowers were gardenias. A reception followed in the church annex. Miss Betty Luke, Miss Beverly Plant, Miss Mary Ellen Petras and Mrs. William E. Loewen assisted.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride donned a rose crepe suit with navy blue accessories. Mr. Stone and his bride will reside in Salem.

Dr. Melvin T. Hurley will leave today for Richmond, Calif. after a week's visit in the capital at the C. A. Sprague home and at their summer place on the Little North Fork of the Santiam. Mrs. Hurley and the children, Nancy and Arthur, will remain for a month's visit with her parents.

you'll make fashion news in the headline by

Fortunet

in sparkling white calf in sizes 4-10
AAA to B, and just

7.95

this is RAEANAR

466 State Street
Open Friday Evenings Till 9 P. M.
Want to Charge It? You May!

SALE

Save at Johnson's Before-the-4th Sale. Tremendous Reductions in Sportswear, Hosiery, Suits, Coats. Every Item Listed Listed Is a Real Buy! One Week Only!

Complete Set of Justin McCarthy
Denims Reduced!

Denim Shorts, Reg. 3.95, Now 2.50
Denim Paddle Pushers, Reg. 4.95, Now 3.00
Denim Bra, Reg. 2.95, Now 2.00
Denim Jacket, Reg. 5.95, Now 3.75
Denim Skirt, Reg. 5.95, Now 3.75
Denim 2 Piece Outfit, Reg. 8.95, Now 5.75
Skirt and Sleeveless Top, Reg. 8.95, Now 5.75

$1.00 Table including Shirts, Blouses, Gloves, Jersey Slips

Bathing Suits, Nationally Advertised! Regular up to 14.95, Now 4.90
Hosiery, Reg. to 1.65, Now 94c
Closing Out Two Lines, New Summer Shades, 81 Gauge
Rayon Suits by Joselli, Reg. 25.00, Now 15.90
Sizes 10-20, 14 1/2-22 1/2
Shortie Coats, Reg. up to 39.95, Now 22.90
Gabardines, Fleece, Shades
100% Wool Suits by Joselli, Regular to 49.95, Now 29.00
Pink, Aqua, Green, Red, Black, and Sharkskin
Plaid Denim Paddle Pushers, Reg. 3.95, Now 2.90
Sleeveless, Reg. up to 8.95, Now 2.90
Corduroy, Wool, Strutter

Special Henry Rosenfield
DRESSES
(Pima Cottons and Imported
Voiles), Reg. 14.95, Now 8.95

Johnson's Store for Ladies
Salem, Oregon

466 State St.

Phone 3-7698