

Dallas Club Garden Show Draws 140

Statesman News Service
DALLAS — About 140 attended the Dallas Garden club flower show last week.

Mrs. R. R. Livesay was chairman of the show committee and her assistants were Mrs. Robert LeFors, Mrs. Stanley Sanders, Mrs. Clyde McWhirter, Mrs. Sandy Fryer, Mrs. M. M. Gilles and Mrs. Earl Moore. Mrs. Cora Burch of Riverside, Mrs. Herman Luther of Albany and Mrs. W. G. Stellmacher of Tangent were the judges. There were 38 exhibitors.

A contest for the cover best suited for a garden club yearbook was also decided at the show. Each member of the club designed her own yearbook cover. The flower show judges also judged the covers. Mrs. Claude Holmington placed first, Mrs. Alie Hennegan, second, and Mrs. Cecil Meeker, third.

Mrs. V. Ray Boydston placed first and second with pressed flowers pictures; Mrs. Clyde McWhirter placed first and Mrs. Claude Holmington second and third with flower pictures painted on fabric. Mrs. Mary Fryer received the three ribbons for flower pictures done free hand. In the junior division Lois Meeker received blue ribbons for her dish garden, dining table arrangements and buffet arrangement.

Mrs. Margaret E. Wilson displayed a yarn wreath she had made during the winter of 1888-1889. Made of zephyr yarn, each petal was woven with wire then cut, combed and pressed before being assembled in the shape of a horseshoe.

A courtesy exhibit from the Dr. Earl Benbow rose gardens included a Peace rose.

Nationalists Fear Attack on Formosa Soon

By Spencer Moosa
TAIPEI, Formosa, Monday, June 26.—(AP)—Chinese nationalist armed forces went on a full alert today lest a communist invasion of Formosa be timed to follow the North Korean invasion of South Korea.

The navy sent out special patrols and coastal forces went on an around-the-clock emergency basis.

The nationalist foreign minister, George Yeh, told the Associated Press the invasion of South Korea was "a clear case of Soviet aggression."

Yeh declared, "It is for the U. N. security council to face facts squarely and charge Russia with aggression."

"I definitely feel Russia should be held responsible for this act of aggression (by the North Korean communist regime, which is Soviet-sponsored), and for all consequences which might ensue."

"The United States should not allow the North Koreans to make any further progress and should help the South Koreans push them back to the borderline."

Yeh intimated he had sent these views to T. F. Tsiang, chief nationalist U. N. delegate, for presentation to the U. N. security council at Lake Success, N. Y.

caused high excitement in this Chinese nationalist capital.

The immediate general reaction was that the United States might now be forced to make an early, positive change in its policy of keeping hands off Formosa. Hopes of fresh American military aid in the nationalist fight against the Chinese Reds were at a new peak.
