Gervais Church Setting for Nuptials

GERVAIS — Miss Wanda Fay Ferren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Banick of Brooks, and Robert Richard Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Gervais, exchanged their marriage vows Sunday afternoon at the Gervais Presbyterian church in a double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock. Before an all white altar decorated with tall baskets of white gladiolus, ocean spray and greenery, and lighted candles, the Rev. James Aiken Smith of the Westminster Presbyterian church of Portland read the rites with the Rev. Ernest Tremblay of the Gervais Presbyterian church assisting. Kenneth A. Brown was soloist with Mrs. Kenneth A. Brown as organist. Miss Shirley Dean of Salem, gown in lavender and Miss Marcelline Hutchinson of Salem, gown in green, lighted the tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore white slipper satin fashioned with a boat neckline, long sleeves with points at the wrists, and a tight-fitting bodice. The full three-tiered skirt extended into a train. Her long veil of nylon was edged in French lace which fell from a beaded tiara headpiece. Her flowers were lavender orchids surrounded by white gladiolus and white maline. For her honor attendant, the bride chose her cousin, Miss Ila Rae Carmichael of Fresno, Calif., who wore blue satin with tiered skirt and a matching halo hat of gladiolus tied with yellow maline. The bridesmaids, Miss Viola Bierly of Woodburn and Miss Carolyn Eckersley of Salem, wore identical gowns of salmon pink satin fashioned with full tiered skirts and they wore halo hats. Each carried a bouquet of red gladiolus tied with pink maline.

Nancy Jones of Los Angeles, niece of the groom, was flower girl and wore a pastel yellow satin floor length gown with matching hat. Brother Is Best Man Robert Banick, brother of the bride, was best man. Dale Nusom of Jefferson and Donald Hood of Gervais were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Banick chose a navy blue and white polka dot dress with navy accessories and the mother of the groom wore an aqua and grey print sheer with grey accessories. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

At the reception following the ceremony at the bride's parents' home, Mrs. Bay Carmichael, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Miss Catherine Conratt of Portland presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Donald Hood at the coffee urn. In charge of the gift table were Mrs. Jacob Cutsforth, Miss Luzeren Hanes and Miss Mary Jane Hall. Miss Mary Margaret Wills of Salem passed the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue suit with white hat and accessories and a corsage of orchids. The couple left for a trip to Seaside, and on their return will live on Route 1, Gervais.

Installation Tonight

Mrs. Theodore Ullakko, newly elected president of Salem unit, 136, American Legion auxiliary, and her officers will be installed tonight at the Salem Woman's clubhouse at 8 o'clock. Members of the ritual team from Capital unit 9 will be in charge. Initiation also will be held during the evening. Mrs. Bert Walker is the outgoing president. Mrs. Harlan A. Judd heads the tea committee and assisting are Mrs. Samuel Harbison and Mrs. Dow Lovell.

George McLeod of Berkeley, Calif., spent the weekend in Salem with his mother, Mrs. Lester C. McLeod, and brother and sister-in-law, the Carlton McLeods. He made the trip both ways by plane.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. If someone is relating a story in a group of persons, and you have heard it before, would it be all right to interrupt to say that you had heard it?
A. No; it would be rude to do so. Nor should you even say so after the story has been told.
Q. Which is proper for a man to say, "May I have the next dance?" or, "Do you have the next dance taken?"
A. "May I have the next dance?" is the correct form.
Q. When may invitations to weddings be recalled?
A. Only when there is a sudden death in the family, a serious accident, or a cancellation of the marriage.

Mary Senter, Mr. Harold Married

Miss Mary Senter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Senter, became the bride of William Harold of Portland, son of Mrs. Sarah Harold of Sara, Wash., at an afternoon ceremony on Sunday at the First Evangelical United Brethren church. The Rev. Dorwin Smith of Portland performed the 3 o'clock rites before a setting of fern and summer flowers. Clifford Vorn was the soloist and William Fawk the organist.

Mr. Senter gave his daughter in marriage and her bridal gown was of white satin fashioned on princess lines with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and a full train. A tiara of seed pearls held in place her fingertip veil and she carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid.

Miss Jeanne Pierson was the maid of honor and Miss Barbara Senter, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid. Their dresses were of net made with guine de skirts, fitted bodices and deep yokes of net edged with ruffling. Miss Pierson wore blue and Miss Senter was in pink. They carried pastel colonial nosegays of carnations, sweetpeas and bouvardia. Beverly Holweger was the flower girl and her dress was of pink organza and she carried a miniature nosegay.

Attend the Groom Ellis Sprick stood with the groom as best man and groomsmen were Logan. Ushers were Glen Straight, Donald Senter and George Hood.

Mrs. Senter and Mrs. Harold both wore navy blue afternoon gowns for the wedding with white accessories and corsages of pink rosebuds.

Sweet Cherries to Be Added to This Year's List of Food to Be Frozen

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Women's Editor

One time during the winter, we ate fresh sweet frozen cherries on a dessert for party refreshments, we decided that this fruit could hold an important place in the frozen food supply for next winter.

We've frozen sour cherries with and without sugar for pie, and found them excellent. We've frozen cherry pies both cooked and uncooked and have decided we like the uncooked ones the best.

And now we are going to add sweet cherries to the supply for next winter.

If you plan to preserve sweet cherries by freezing, choose firm-fleshed varieties. Soft-fleshed sweet cherries are likely to be soggy after freezing but those with firm flesh make an attractive frozen product.

Of the varieties, Lambert, Bing are best, according to government experts, and Royal Ann is quite satisfactory.

Sweet cherries are less trouble to process than many other fruits. They are stemmed and washed, drained, put into cartons, and covered with sirup of the desired sugar strength. Some people like a sirup made of equal parts sugar and water but others prefer a less sweet sirup for this fruit.

For best results, ascorbic acid powder (vitamin C) should be added to the sirup. This powder can be purchased at the drug store and weighed accurately there. For 8 pints of packed cherries, 1.6 grams of the powder are suggested. Dissolve this amount in one-eighth measuring cup of water before mixing into the sirup.

For best results with sweet cherries as with other products, experts caution against trying to freeze too many at once. Not more than 20 to 25 pints of the cherries should be put in a 20-cubic foot freezer at a time. For fast freezing these should be arranged with air space between the boxes, and one side of each box against the bottom or side wall of the cabinet for fast freezing. Allow 10 to 12 hours for freezing. After the cherries are frozen, boxes can be packed tightly together for storage in the freezer.

Hostesses Fete Mrs. Livesley At Shower

Mrs. O. D. Youngquist and Mrs. Ralph Stangeby were hostesses for a party Monday night at the former's home on Maple ave. in compliment to Mrs. Thomas DeBeck Livesley, who with Mr. Livesley is visiting in Salem this week from their British Columbia home. The guests feted Mrs. Livesley with a shower during the evening.

A late supper was served by the hostesses. Bouquets of pastel summer flowers provided the decorative note.

Honoring Mrs. Livesley were Mrs. Graham Sharkey, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. R. D. Ross, Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., Mrs. Holly Jackson, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. Fred S. Arunson, Mrs. Jack Lindeman, Mrs. Van Wieder, Mrs. Ronald Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Buchanan, Mrs. Sherman Bostrack, Mrs. Richard Lockard, Mrs. Thomas Allen, Mrs. Clara Kennedy, Mrs. Earl Murray, Mrs. Glen Conklin, Mrs. Donald McFarland, Miss Gladys Zell and the hostesses.

Felicitations are being sent to Mr. and Mrs. F. Vernon Siemens (Thelma Smith) of Centralia, Wash. on the birth of a son, Donald Paul, on June 23. The little boy has a brother, Danny, and his grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Klonny Smith of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Siemens of Centralia.

WHEN LOUIE BLEW HIS TOP

About a week ago I wrote an ad for Louie about a twin baby buggy he had to sell. Somehow it came out, "Twin baby beds." Louie blew his top. I blamed it on the printers and would have made it stick, but in the same ad we had some stuff about a Dunk & Phye dining room set. How was I to know it wasn't spelled Dunk & Phye? I blamed that on the printers too -- then on the proof reader. When he proved the copy came in that way I blamed it on Louie. That was a mistake. Starting tomorrow Louie will write his own ads.

Anyway he still has the stuff, and I hope he has to eat it. Anyway, if these sound like good buys to you run out and see them.

Duncan-Phyfe Dining Room Set

Four chairs and a table. This price sounds like he stole it and come to think of it maybe he did. $69.50

TWIN BABY BUGGY

Even if you don't have twins, this gives plenty of room to carry home the groceries without smashing the kids' legs. $25.00

Come to think of it, if Louie sold this stuff today I might get my job back.

Conventions, Travelers Of Note

By Jeryne English
Statesman Society Editor

Conventions and summer vacationists continue to highlight the social news.

Headed for Convention Mrs. Frank Burlingham, Miss Gladys Blue and Miss Jean Farguson left Monday for Seattle where they will attend the 30th biennial convention of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary, June 27-July 1. Miss Blue and Miss Farguson are representing the Mu Phi chapter on the Willamette university campus and Miss Blue is the official delegate. Mrs. Burlingham is a member of the University of Washington chapter, which is one of the hostess chapters for the convention. Headquarters are at the Olympic hotel.

Miss Marcia Maple, daughter of the Howard Maples, and Miss Geraldine Keene, daughter of the Roy S. Keenes of Corvallis, formerly of Salem, left by plane Monday morning for Bakersfield, Calif. to visit Miss Keene's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Swarbrick (Madeleine Keene). The girls will also visit in Los Angeles and Pasadena with Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter. They will be away a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Perry and sons, David, Stephen and Dennis, returned home this weekend from a fortnight's trip south to San Francisco and bay area points. They visited with Mrs. Perry's brother and sister-in-law, Major and Mrs. Henry Marsden, Jr. He is stationed at Fort Mason. Enroute home the travelers stopped at Sacramento, Shasta Dam and Crater Lake.

Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans was hostess for a 1 o'clock luncheon on Monday afternoon at her Center at home in compliment to members of the Gaiety Hill Garden club.
