

GOING BACK FIFTY YEARS—Mannequins of the fashion houses, in costumes of the early century, celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Avenue Victor Hugo, in Paris.

FINGERED FROG—A South African fingered frog, imported for laboratory research, stands above another frog and reaches for food in Fish and Wildlife Aquarium at Washington.

RAF METEORS IN FLIGHT—Three slim, silver Gloucester Meteor planes—claimed by the British to be fastest operational fighter planes in the world—flash over Forth Bridge in Scotland during exercises of the RAF 223 (Natal) Squadron.

NEW VIEWPOINT—Three pug pups that wandered from their owner found something to wonder about as they lined a rail to stare at the goings-on in Sydney Harbor, Australia.

MAHOGANY LOCOMOTIVE—Chris A. Nolan, of Los Angeles, shows his mahogany replica of the locomotive of the 19th century N. Y. Central train the Commodore Vanderbilt.

FANCY HOOKING—Golf pro Jack Summers has his hands full displaying the 46-pound striped bass he caught near Strong Island, Chatham, Mass. The fish was 48 1/2 inches long.

SNAKE GOES ALL OUT—Cowboy Dick Fairchild does some high and fancy riding to stay aboard the famed bucking horse, Snake, required ten seconds at a Rosalia, Wash., rodeo.

PHEASANTS FOR THE TABLE—Horace Hunter and Frances Atkinson inspect one of the pheasants Hunter and brother, Perry, are raising for market at College Park, Ga.

The Nation's Top Comics

DAILY AND SUNDAY
in
Your Home Newspaper

BLONDIE

DICK TRACY

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

BUZZ SAWYER

MICKY MOUSE

GIP KIRBY

GASOLINE ALLEY

BARNEY GOOGLE