Worship Slates To Be Altered During Summer

With the advent of warmer weather and vacation season, several local churches have announced revisions of their programs for July and August.

One of the outstanding changes in St. Mark Lutheran church, where an 8:30 a. m. worship service will be added to the program. Sunday school will come between this and the 11 a. m. service, according to Dr. M. A. Getzenaner, pastor.

First Congregational church will advance its program to Sunday school at 9 a. m. and worship at 10 a. m.

The summer schedule of 9 a. m. Sunday school and 10 a. m. worship will be resumed by St. John's Lutheran, which is dropping one service.

Court Street Christian and Leslie Methodist are moving their Sunday evening services from 7:30 to 8 o'clock.

Sunday evening services are canceled for the summer at First Church of Christ Scientist.

First Spiritualist church members will have no services during July and August but will assist with the New Era camp, according to Sam J. Harms, president.

South Baptist Camp Starts
Delegations from Capital Baptist church of Salem and First Baptist of Dallas are to be at Camp Arrah Wanna for a week beginning today for the fourth annual Southern Baptist summer camp.

Services at the Salem church, meeting in the Seventh Dad Adventist building, are to be reversed this Sunday, with worship at 9:45 a. m. and Sunday school at 11. Speaking will be the Rev. Mr. Schroder, pastor of the Dallas congregation. The Rev. Roland P. Hood, regular pastor here, is manager of the camp.

250 Walk Out of Ship Services In Mid-Ocean, Writes Uecker

The unusual occurrence of 250 persons walking out of a religious service is reported in a letter to The Statesman from the Rev. Lloyd Uecker, pastor of Englewood Evangelical United Brethren, studying this summer at University of Oslo.

Uecker wrote that the action aboard the Norwegian SS Stavanger "wasn't due to any ill impressions toward the chaplain and his type of service; but because, during the hour of service, the ship signals gave notice that she was meeting and passing her sister ship, the S.S. Oslofjord, enroute from Oslo to New York. Following salutes and waves, services on the Stavangerfjord were resumed.

"Divine services were held each evening on the Stavangerfjord, alternating between the English and Norwegian languages.

"Aboard this ship were 250 American students from practically every state in the union, who will be studying this summer at the University of Oslo."
