

Garden Rites Event of Sunday

At a pretty garden wedding on Sunday afternoon July 2 at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Walker W. Kneess, Miss Phyllis Nancy Brewster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Brewster, became the bride of Ronald Stanley Blume, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Blume.

The couple exchanged their vows at 4 o'clock with Dr. Seth Huntington officiating.

The bride chose a dusty pink afternoon gown for her wedding. The bodice and skirt were fashioned with tucking and the deep V neckline was finished with a rolled collar and the sleeves were short. She carried a bouquet of lilies, bouvardia and stephanotis and wore a wreath of the same flowers in her hair. Mr. Brewster gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Juanita Peters was the bride's only attendant and she wore a blue two-piece afternoon dress with a matching bonnet adorned with flowers. She carried a basket filled with sweet peas, roses and daisies. Robert Craig served as best man for the groom.

Mrs. Brewster wore a gold suit with corsage of Tallman roses for her daughter's marriage and Mrs. Blume wore a pastel blue suit with yellow rosebud corsage.

A reception followed in the garden with Mrs. Adolph Kuehn of Oak Grove cutting the cake and Mrs. Edward Zitzewitz of Silverton pouring.

After a wedding trip to Suttle Lake the newlyweds will be at home in Salem and have taken an apartment on South Cottage street. For going away the bride donned an almond brown suit with dark brown straw hat and accessories.

Miss Bonnie Large, daughter of Mrs. O. C. Large of Marion, whose engagement to Julius B. Sevey, jr., son of Mrs. J. B. Sevey, Salem, has been revealed. No wedding date has been set. (Jesten-Miller).

Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Blatchford cutting the cake at their golden wedding reception on June 18 at the Milwaukee home of their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Roderic C. Blatchford. The couple have four children and eight grandchildren.

Miss Dillinger, Mr. Dyball Married

The First Congregational church was the setting for the Sunday afternoon marriage on July 2 of Miss Bernice Dillinger, daughter of Mrs. Bernice Kagler of The Dalles, and Gerald G. Dyball. It was at 3 o'clock that Dr. Seth Huntington performed the rites.

Miss Maxine Anderson of The Dalles sang and Jean Hobson Rich was the organist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Esther Perkins and Miss Camilla Pappert, who wore peach gowns. An orchid and peach color scheme was carried out in the floral decorations as well as the gowns of the attendants.

Malcolm Neal of Salem gave his granddaughter in marriage. Her bridal gown was of white organza fashioned entrain with lace insertion on the skirt. The fitted bodice was made with a nylon yoke and a lace cap held in place her fingertip length tulle veil. She carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid.

Mrs. Granville Perkins was the matron of honor and wore a peach gown and Miss Carolyn Anderson of The Dalles, the bridesmaid, was in orchid. They carried pastel nosegays of sweet peas and roses. Hazel Rulich, niece of the groom, was the flower girl and her frock was of orchid.

Jack Dyball stood with his brother as best man and seating the guests were Granville Perkins and James Rulich.

Mrs. Kagler wore a navy and white print dress with white hat and accessories for her daughter's wedding and the groom's mother chose black with white trim. Their corsages were of white roses and bouvardia.

The couple greeted their guests at a reception in the fireplace room. Mrs. Malcolm Neal presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Kathleen D. Nelson cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Joseph E. Madson.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue and white suit with matching accessories. The new Mrs. Dyball is employed at Willamette university as a secretary and her husband, who is stationed at Fort Lewis with the army, will be released in the fall.

Payseno-Duda Vows Read

MT. ANGEL — St. Mary's church was the scene of the double ring marriage ceremony which united Miss Veronica Duda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Duda, and Mr. Lloyd Payseno of Bremerton, Washington, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Payseno, all of Mt. Angel. Rev. Father Damian Jantges officiated at the 9 o'clock ceremony and the nuptial mass. Mrs. Vincent Smith played the organ and accompanied Miss Laura Schwab and Miss Lucy Van Cleef, who sang.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father who gave her in marriage. Her gown of white satin and sheer nylon was fashioned with a tight-fitting bodice of satin with sheer yoke, long sleeves and a full sheer skirt with long train. Satin applique flowers embellished the skirt and the fingertip veil fell from a net bonnet with orange blossoms. She carried a spray of white carnations and stephanotis tied with a large white satin bow.

Her cousin, Miss Monica Duda, was her only attendant. She wore lime green marquisette and carried a spray of yellow carnations and matching net.

The bridegroom's brother, Kenneth Payseno, was best man and serving as ushers were Bill and Clarence Duda.

The mothers of the newlyweds wore blue dresses, Mrs. Duda with white accessories and Mrs. Payseno chose dark accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink rosebuds and carnations.

The wedding breakfast was served at the Mt. Angel hotel. Serving were Miss Lorraine Spies of Silverton and Miss Olive Duda of Mt. Angel. The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Anna Schaefer, wore a dress of black and white crepe with white accessories and white carnation corsage. The reception was held in St. Mary's dining hall. Mrs. Gerald Zoller, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Serving were Miss Louann Schaefer, Mrs. Tony Vandecouring, Miss Bertha Kassing and Miss Arlene Duda, and assisting the guests were Miss Anna and Miss Teresa Duda and Mrs. Louis Schaefer.

The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon at the Oregon beaches and will make their home in Bremerton, where Mr. Payseno is employed in the navy yard. For traveling the bride wore a white dress with a bolero and sash of red and white polka dots, white and red accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Good for the System Vegetables Fixed in Special Ways Make Good Fare for After Holidays

By Maxine Bures
Statesman Woman's Editor

The day after a holiday is a grand time to eat your vegetables. Here are several recipes recommended by experts on the subject. Here for instance is a good one to use carrots:

CARROT LOAF

10 medium carrots 2 cups milk
3 eggs, beaten 2 tablespoons butter
1 small onion, finely cut Salt
2 cups bread crumbs Pepper

Cook carrots in salted water, drain and mash. Add eggs and remaining ingredients, mix well. Bake in buttered baking dish, set in hot water, in a modern oven (350° F.) 30 minutes. Serves 8.

CHEESE VEGETABLE DISH

1/2 cup butter 2 cups potatoes, cooked and diced
4 tablespoons flour 1 cup peas, cooked
2 cups milk 1 cup carrots, cooked and diced
2 cups American cheese, grated 1 onion, minced
2 teaspoons salt

Make white sauce of butter, flour, and milk. Add salt and cheese, stirring until the cheese melts. Arrange remaining ingredients in buttered baking dish and pour sauce over. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 30 minutes.

And one for mixed vegetables:

VEGETABLE LOAF

1 cup prunes, pitted 2 tablespoons butter, melted
1 cup cooked peas, sieved 1 cup milk
1/2 cup green beans, cooked 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup carrots, cooked and sieved Pepper
1 cup soft bread crumbs Paprika
1 egg, beaten

Put prunes through coarse food chopper. Put peas through sieve. Combine all ingredients, mix thoroughly. Bake in buttered loaf pan in a moderate oven (350° F.) 40 minutes. Serves 6.

Or in salad:

SPICED BEET SALAD

1 stick cinnamon Water to cover
4 cloves 12 small beets
2 bay leaves Lettuce
1/2 teaspoon salt 1 cup cottage cheese
Pepper 2 or 3 teaspoons prepared horseradish
4 teaspoons sugar
1/2 cup vinegar

Combine first 8 ingredients. Boil beets in liquid mixture until tender. Allow to cool in liquid. Drain, peel, slice, and arrange beets in circle on lettuce or other greens. Combine cottage cheese and horseradish, pile in center of beets. Serve with salad dressing if desired. Serves 6.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Is it customary to announce an engagement, when the probability is that it will be of long duration?

A. This is not a matter of etiquette. It is entirely optional with the man and the girl, although it seems that the waiting is easier if the announcement is withheld.

Q. How much of the hand should be dipped into the finger bowl, and should both hands be dipped at the same time?

A. Dip only the finger tips, and one hand at a time.

Q. What is considered one of the best closings for a business letter?

A. "Very truly yours" is always correct, and may also be used in formal social correspondence.

Designing Woman

OUT OF THE KITCHEN

It's easier all the time to be down-to-earth practical — and still buy the furniture that most entrances your eye. Look what's happening to dinette sets, for instance. They were never more damage-proof or easier to keep clean, but they're taking to new design ideas that change their looks completely. Here's a preview of one new style-wise chair and table set. Design like this brings dinette furniture out of the kitchen — there's a luxury look to the upholstered backs and seats of the chairs and agreement with advance modern trends in living room furniture in the metal legs. Chair covers are plastic in colors with surprise metallic overtones. The table top is limed oak pattern plastic that is cigarette and alcohol proof. Feet on all the places are ball and swivel rests which stay flat with the floor no matter how the furniture is tipped.

Seventeen color schemes — ready to put to work — are listed in Elizabeth Hillier's booklet, C O L O R SCHEMES FOR EVERY ROOM. Send 15c in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Miss Hillier and your copy will soon be on its way.
