Grains Close With Mixed Price Trends

CHICAGO, July 12 (AP)—Grains ended on a mixture of plus and minus signs today after a session of conflicting trends.

The market did not seem to know which way to go. It sold off early on bumper crop prospects but staged a couple of mild rallies on Korean developments. About 30 minutes before the end the day's best rally started, but at the close the market was going down again.

There never was any doubt about lard, however. It started out steady and grew firmer as the day wore on. October, November and December deliveries setting new seasonal highs. Loose lard sold at $12.00 a hundred pounds, up 50 cents and highest since Oct. 24, 1949.

Wheat closed $\frac{1}{2}$ - $\frac{1}{4}$ lower, corn $\frac{1}{2}$ lower to $\frac{1}{4}$ higher, oats $\frac{1}{4}$ lower, rye $\frac{1}{4}$ - $\frac{1}{2}$ higher, soybeans $\frac{1}{2}$ - $\frac{1}{4}$ higher and lard 10 to 23 cents a hundred pounds higher.
