

Bomb Mission Recalls Memory Of War Patterns of Past Years

By Milton Marmor
AN AMERICAN AIR BASE IN JAPAN, July 13—(Delayed)—(AP)—It's been five years since U. S. bombers of World War II struck the enemy. But it seems only as yesterday to watchers as the big Superfortress planes came home today through the clouds after a mission over North Korea.

Chain of Command in City Fire Department Appears Sore Spot

(Story also on page 1)
Question of whether Salem's fire prevention bureau is responsible directly to the fire chief or the city manager figured repeatedly in a civil service hearing of two fire department demotions, concluded late Friday night after testimony had been taken from 23 witnesses.

War Shipping Speedup Noted In Coast Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14—(AP)—Forty-five four-engine planes, including some double-deck 100 passenger Stratocruisers, have been chartered to the Government for the Pacific air lift to General MacArthur's Far East command.

Witnesses called by the fire chief were Assistant Chief E. L. Smith, Battalion Chief Robert Mills, Captains Charles Charlton, Paul Phillips, Glen Shedeck, Percy Clarke, Peter McCaffery, M. J. Gilson and Jack Hayes of the state fire marshals office, and William

U.N. Members Asked for Aid For Fighting

By A. I. Goldberg
LAKE SUCCESS, July 14—(AP)—The United Nations appealed today to 52 member countries to rush effective aid, particularly ground fighting forces, to a U.N. army trying to stop the North Korean communist invaders.

Secretary-General Trygve Lie announced the step at a somber news conference, his first since the outbreak of the hostilities which he again called a "well-prepared, well-planned aggression" against the Republic of South Korea.

The action was decided, he said, at an informal meeting he called last Monday, attended by representatives of the United States delegation, Security Council President Arne Sundt of Norway and himself and his executive assistant, Andrew Cordier.

Rejection of the original Chinese offer was that if the Chinese Nationalists that if they want to offer troops again they may do so, but that their offer would be considered only for bilateral discussion—with MacArthur—on what specific, detailed use might be made of them.

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, July 14—(AP)—The air force and army chiefs of staff—Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg and J. Lawson Collins—led by plane today for Washington, D. C., enroute from the Korea fighting front and General MacArthur's Tokyo headquarters.

Communists Claim Hits on Navy Ship

TOKYO, Saturday, July 15—(AP)—A communist broadcast from North Korea said today Red naval units had poured 200 shells into a "5,000 ton enemy vessel" off the east coast.

Both British and American naval forces presumably operate in these waters. There was no Allied confirmation of the Pyongyang radio's claim.

Hannover, Germany, has about 475,000 population.

Portland Voters Approve Tax Levy

PORTLAND, Ore., July 15—(AP)—Multnomah county voters passed a 4 1/2-mill levy tonight.

Returns from 5044 of 553 precincts gave 33,163 votes for the levy and 23,427 against.

The levy is to continue for five years. County officials expect to use it to raise about $2,500,000 annually.
