Miss Wanda Hathaway Engaged

Miss Wanda Hathaway revealed her betrothal to Lou Scrivens of Portland at a dessert bridge party for which she was hostess Friday night at her home on Hood street. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Dale Brooks and A. T. Hathaway, and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Weick of Portland. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Hathaway is a graduate of Salem schools and is employed at the state industrial accident commission. Mr. Scrivens is a junior at Willamette university.

The news was disclosed when the bride-to-be passed to each guest a red rose, to which was attached a white card inscribed with the engaged duo's names.

Attending the announcement party were Miss Patricia Ray, Miss Luella Campbell, Miss Joyce Smith, Miss Patricia Wilson, Miss Joan Blaxall, Miss Barbara Hendrickson, Miss Virginia Huston, Miss Marianne Bonesteel, Miss Marilyn Hill, Mrs. Harvey A. Lovell, Jr., Mrs. Keith Morris, Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. Dale Pence, Mrs. John Slanchik, Mrs. Donald A. Panek, Miss Hathaway and Mrs. Dale Brooks.

Shower Fetes Bride-elect

Miss Carol Herrmann, who will be married in August to Charles C. Weems, Jr., was honored at a pre-nuptial shower Thursday night when Miss Lucille Satter and Miss Elizabeth Hurd entertained at the former's apartment on Bellevue street.

A miscellaneous shower feted the guest of honor and after an informal evening, a dessert supper was served by the hostesses.

Honoring Miss Herrmann were Mrs. Ernest Rodewald, Mrs. Kenneth Scripser, Mrs. Kenneth Young, Mrs. Frederick C. Deckebach, Mrs. S. D. Wiles, Mrs. Sadie McClain, Mrs. Mabel Rogers, Mrs. Marguerite Kirk, Mrs. Gracie Stewart, Mrs. Mary McClain, Miss Shirley Kane of Dundee, Mrs. Richard G. Detrick and Mrs. Kenneth C. Smith of Sweet Home and the hostesses.

Club Group at Member's Home

Members of the F. L. Club met Thursday night at the home of Miss Evelyn Holmquist. Mrs. Keith Rebo was installed president, Mrs. Gregory Schmidt, vice-president; Mrs. Lawrence McClure, secretary-treasurer. New members attending were Mrs. Mike Simmins, Miss June Haugen and Miss Lois Ladall. A shower was given Mrs. Applegate, who has moved to Corvallis.

Others attending were Mrs. George Naderman, Mrs. Luther Melten, Mrs. Harry Way and Miss Lorraine Vick.

Neighbors of Woodcraft district 21 will hold a picnic on Sunday at the Dallas park. Dinner will be served at 1:30 o'clock. Coffee and cream will be furnished and guests are asked to bring their own table service. Swimming and games will be enjoyed during the afternoon and all neighbors and families are invited to attend.

Mrs. Howard Frame and daughter Cathy, of Porterville, Calif., were guests in Salem this week of Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren. Wednesday night the Burens were hosts for a picnic at their country place at Lincoln in honor of the visitors.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. How should the mail of a U.S. Congressman be addressed?

A. In addressing a Representative, the form is "The Hon." In addressing a Senator, the envelope should read "Senator, etc."

Q. When giving a luncheon, should the guest of honor lead the way to the table?

A. No; the hostess should lead the way.

Q. When food is too uncomfortably hot to eat, is it all right to cool it by blowing on it?

A. Never.

Donna Pence Tells Friends Of Betrothal

Miss Donna Jean Pence surprised a group of her friends Friday night when she told them of her engagement to Ronald Nairn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Nairn of Dallas, at a picnic at the Dallas park. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pence of Salem. The wedding is planned for next winter.

Miss Pence is a graduate of Salem schools and the San Francisco Dental Nurses Training school. Her fiancé attended Oregon State college and both are now employed in Dallas.

Swimming preceded the picnic dinner. One of the guests found a paper inside an egg which revealed the engagement news.

Attending the picnic were Miss Patricia Fitzsimons, Miss Jeanette Martin, Miss Catherine Siegmund, Miss Joanne Bunnell, Janie Pearcey, Miss Carol Weinstein, Miss Barbara Sim, Miss Rita O'Brien, Miss Joan Smith, Miss Dorothy Pearcey, Miss Julie Hamilton, Miss Elsie Rose Younger, Mrs. Frank Osborn, Mrs. William Shattuck, Mrs. Dale Pence, Mrs. Bruce Barker, the hostess and her mother. A group of additional friends joined the group later in the evening at the park for refreshments.

Wedding of Interest

Of interest to the bride's many Salem friends is announcement of the marriage of Miss Patricia Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colis Johnson of Portland, to Charles Monahan, son of Mrs. J. T. Monahan of The Dalles, which took place on July 1 in Granger, Wash. The newlyweds are now honeymooning in California.

The bride is a graduate of Lewis and Clark college and is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Her husband is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of the sophomore class at the University of Oregon Medical school. His fraternity affiliations are Phi Sigma Kappa and Nu Sigma Nu. The couple will return to Portland the first of August to make their home and he will resume his studies in the fall.

The new Mrs. Monahan often visits in Salem with her parents at their Green Valley Stables and is always here during State Fair week and has ridden in the nightly horse shows.

Nuptials Held at Baptist Church

STAYTON — Miss Aletha Pearl Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Stewart of West Stayton, became the bride of William Clinton Southwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Southwell of Logsdon Sunday, July 2, at 2 o'clock at the Stayton Baptist church. The Rev. Nick N. Neufeld officiated.

Leonard Smith of Mehama was organist, accompanying Miss Aladean McDonald, who sang.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Her gown was fashioned of white slipper satin with seed pearl embellishment on the lace yoke of the bodice and the full skirt ended in a train. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white daisies centered by a purple orchid.

Mrs. Donald Maddux of Roseburg, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of pink tulle and carried a bouquet of white daisies. Miss Mona Covert of Stayton, wearing a aqua tulle gown was maid of honor. Miss Jessie Covert, also of Stayton, wearing yellow tulle, was bridesmaid. Each carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Larry Southwell, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Donald Maddux and Joe Southwell were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stewart chose a navy blue crepe gown with white accessories. Mrs. Southwell wore a white silk print with white accessories. Each had a corsage of white carnations.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. James Rand, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Robert Brabeale of Crabtree, cousin of the bride, presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Dewey Dively poured. Assisting were Mrs. Paul McClellan, Miss Sussee Teeters, Miss Marie Basl, Misses Lora Martin, Patricia Tomlinson, Valerie Walker, Marilyn Baltzer and Joy Kuiken.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Crater Lake and California. For traveling the bride wore a beige suit, navy accessories and an orchid corsage. They are at home at Logsdon, where the groom is engaged in sawmill work.

Designing Woman

By Elizabeth Hillyer

HOW TO HIDE

It takes a lot more floor space than most bedrooms have now for a bed-sitting room in the grand manner, but that doesn't mean that a small bedroom must be no more than a place to sleep. Make up for the room's lack of size with an especially smart job of choosing its furniture. With the right find in furniture, your bedroom can keep office hours, at least for the home-office work of writing letters, menus and checks. Here's the piece of furniture to do it in an Early American bedroom, a chest-on-chest, lordly as you please and not in the least office-like in looks. Besides its five regulation drawers, it has a surprise desk drawer, neatly pigeon-holed and with a hinged front that drops down to become a wide writing surface.

Do you know how to mix paint to get the exact color you want? Do you know how to paint furniture the easiest and best professional way? Elizabeth Hillyer's booklet, SMART AS PAINT — PAINTING PROBLEMS SOLVED, tells you how. This booklet is yours for 15 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to Miss Hillyer at this newspaper. (Copyright 1950 by John F. Dille Co.)

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McCormick returned to the capital Thursday night by plane from Seattle. The McCormicks have been on a two-week cruise with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gunderson of Portland on their yacht. The travelers cruised in Canadian waters going to Princess Louise Inlet and to the Malibu club, where they sojourned for several days.

A showing of horse paintings by E. B. Quigley is now at the Gallery-by-the-sea at Delake and will remain through July 29. Several paintings not previously shown are among those on exhibition. The gallery is open from 1:30 to 5 daily except Monday.

Mulligans Return From Trip East

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Helen Ochse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown of Salem, to Robert Mulligan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mulligan of Northfield, Minn., which took place on June 10 at St. Joseph's Catholic church.

The newlyweds went east on their honeymoon and are now at home in Salem.

Interesting Visitor

Mrs. Frederick Farr of Detroit, Mich., is a visitor at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. McLaughlin, and plans to remain through July and August. She spent some time in Portland with another brother, Joseph R. McLaughlin, and a niece, Mrs. Wilbert Hattan. Mrs. Farr, a member of the Woman's symphony organization and a charter member of the Little Garden Club of Detroit, is also an active worker in Sigma Gamma association, the largest charitable organization in the city. Among their many interests is the maintenance of a convalescent home of 150 beds for young persons recovering from the effects of poliomyelitis.

Mrs. Louis Lachmund has had as her house guests the past week Dr. and Mrs. William Kratt of Menlo Park, Calif. Lawrence Gotelli of Hollywood and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kratt of Portland.

Miss Betty Hammond of San Francisco is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hammond of Spring Valley.
