Airport Area Fire Checked

A minor brush fire along railroad tracks just south of McNary field was extinguished Friday night by firemen from central and east Salem stations.

Firemen quelled the blaze, located south of the Ace Flying service hangar, in about 30 min-utes, shortly after 9:30 p. m. No damage was reported except to one telephone pole which was burned slightly. Origin of the fire it picked up slightly toward the was not determined definitely although firemen said sparks from a passing train could have ignited the brush.
