

Mrs. Ronald Cummings (Donna Seay) whose marriage was an event of July 9 at the First Congregational church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Barry and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cummings. (McEwan photo).

Bridal Parties Planned by Hostesses

Mrs. E. J. Scollars and Mrs. C. W. Parker will be hostesses for a dessert supper Tuesday night at the former's Fairmount Hill home in compliment to Miss Patricia Pearson, August bride-elect of Gerald Morgan.

Tables will be arranged on the patio and a pink and white color scheme will be used in the decor. During the evening the group will have tea and a dessert supper will be served.

Bidden to honor Miss Pearson are her mother, Mrs. Harlan B. Pearson, Mrs. F. Ivan Brown, Mrs. Sidney Jones, Mrs. Carl W. Chambers, Mrs. L. O. Arens, Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, Mrs. Lawrence Lister of Portland, Miss Evelyn Kent, Miss Ruth Skinner, Miss Janet Miller and Miss Bernice Isham.

Shirley Clark To Be Feted

Mrs. Edmund O. Pratt will be a hostess Monday night at her home on Warner street in compliment to Miss Shirley Clark, July bride-elect of Frederick Sproule.

A kitchen shower will fetter Miss Clark and a dessert supper will be served by the hostess. Bidden to honor Miss Clark are her mother, Mrs. Francis Clark, Miss Mary White, Miss Janet Bower, Miss Betty Woodard, Miss Beverly McRae, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Jessie Arnold, Mrs. Ethel Hartman, Mrs. Harry Lehnberg, Mrs. Thomas G. Wright, Jr., Mrs. Kenneth Talmage, Mrs. Arthur Cordier, Mrs. Hugh McCain, Mrs. Lowell Anderson, Mrs. Vincent Elliott, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. Wheeler R. English and Miss Maxine Buren.

Central WCTU will hold its annual picnic at the Eugene Prescott home, 1084 Oak street Tuesday at 12:30 o'clock. A basket lunch will be served. Mrs. Winona Horton, corresponding secretary of the state WCTU, will be the speaker.

Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star will meet for a sack luncheon at noon on Wednesday at the Masonic temple. Each member is asked to bring her own lunch and the chapter will furnish coffee and salad.

Members of the Salem Women's Golf association have been invited by the women of the Riverside Country club in Portland to be their guests for luncheon and golf on Friday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwin Robins (Margaret Fisher) who were married on July 9, at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray D. Fisher of Forest Grove and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Adlai E. Robins of Salem. The couple will live in Salem after a California honeymoon. (Jessen-Miller).

Seen and Heard...

By JERYME ENGLISH

CHANGE OF ADDRESS . . . Miss Mabel P. Robertson and Miss Nellie Schwab . . . A creamy beige two-piece suit for Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren . . . Mrs. James T. Brand wearing a handsome leghorn hat adorned with roses with her pink outfit . . . A brown and white check organdy and white pique hat for Mrs. George Seales . . . Mrs. Melvin Geist smart in a beige linen outfit . . . Visitors . . . Mrs. Raymond Walsh coming in with her daughter, Frisella (Mrs. Joseph Craig, who is here for the month . . . Miss Olive M. Dahl and her sister, Mrs. R. D. Chisholm of Fort Worth, Texas . . . Mrs. Charles Sprague and daughter, Mrs. Melvin Hurley of Richmond, Calif. . . . Mrs. P. M. Brydon and her guest, Mrs. Harold Savage (Jennie Delzell) of Phoenix . . .

FOR A BRIDE-ELECT . . . Mrs. Robert Fitzmaurice and daughter, Joanne, were tea hostesses a week ago Sunday for attractive Patricia Arrowsmith, who will become Jack Fitzmaurice's bride come September . . . Guests admiring the beautiful garden while walking up to the house . . . Peter Hoar on hand to park the cars . . . Patricia wearing a becoming yellow marquisette enhanced with bands of white embroidery . . . receiving before the fireplace banked with a huge bouquet of regal lilies and stock . . . Joanne mingling with the guests about the rooms and her pretty cotton a green and white print made strapless and revealing her beautiful tan . . .

The decor . . . gorgeous bouquets of roses about the rooms . . . three red ones in a bud vase on the piano . . . yellow roses on the tea table . . . and a darling bouquet of Cecile Brunners . . . Striking was the unusual shape shell brought from Acapulco filled with roses, phlox and daisies and arranged against a large copper tray . . . A contingent of the

Two beautiful teas . . . on last weekend's agenda . . . On Saturday Misses Dorothy and Helen Pearce entertained for their house guest . . . Dr. Winnie Lawrence of Lawrence, Kansas . . . A large group of friends calling and many who hadn't seen each other for so long . . . much buzzing conversation and hellos . . . a number of summer visitors also noted among the guests . . . The honor guest and hostess wearing pretty summer prints and receiving before the piano where a gorgeous bouquet of geraniums was arranged . . . The tea table . . . a lovely, low arrangement of pink sweetpeas, button asters and yellow baby callas . . . so pretty with the antique china dishes . . . and delicious pastel Petits Fours . . . Assisting Mrs. Mem Pearce in a navy print with a bunch of sweetpeas pinned at the waist . . . Mrs. Kenneth Potts in a sea green pleated dress . . . Mrs. Bruce Spaulding in beige with a gold metallic stripe . . . Janet Rilea, soon to be married, in a green striped taffeta . . . Two who poured . . . Mrs. Paul B. Wallace in a becoming black and white sheer print with black velvet for trim . . . a wide brimmed green straw for Mrs. George Allen, who wore black . . . Cool-honor guest's Pi Phi sorority sisters present and just home from the convention at Jasper Park . . . Elaine Loftus of Sacramento and president of the University of California Pi Phi chapter stopping off for a stay with Sue Higgins enroute south . . . Mary Arrowsmith, a petite brunette, serving and wearing a summer pique of yellow . . .

Mother-daughter duos . . . Mrs. Oliver Huston and daughter, Harriet, also a bride-elect . . . the latter in a chic black and white tiny check cotton with white hat . . . Mrs. W. Wells Baum and Frances, who wore a sky blue polka dot with blue jacket . . . Mrs. Lester Barr and Sally . . . Mrs. Barr wearing a blue cotton and her daughter in a white cotton with brown polka dots and a brown jacket . . . Mrs. George Croisan in a white suit and Mariann in a blue violet cotton with violet flowers tucked in at the waist . . . Mrs. Ralph Cooley and daughter, Margaret, (Mrs. John Maulding), in a navy blue outfit highlighted with a Juliet cap of lilacs, a cluster of lilacs at the throat and lilac gloves . . . Mrs. Floyd Shepard in a good-looking mauve shantung suit with navy hat and Mrs. Allan Carson smart in a red and white check organdy, a red jacket and red straw . . .

Mrs. C. W. Carlson of Boise, Idaho, and young daughter, Patricia, were visitors for several days last

Bride-Elect to Be Honored

Miss Rosanna McMeekin, July 29 bride-elect of Daryl W. Willecek, will be honored at a miscellaneous shower Monday night when Mrs. Norman E. Mann entertains at her South Winter street apartment.

Bidden to honor Miss McMeekin are a small group of her friends of the First Baptist church including her mother, Mrs. Charles McMeekin, Mrs. Arthur Willecke, Mrs. Marion Currey, Mrs. Lee Cross, Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mrs. Leo Reimann, Mrs. William Green, Mrs. Earl Haverland, Mrs. Dewey F. Davis, Mrs. Earl Hatfield, Mrs. Stewart Sharpnack, Miss Jean Hatfield and the hostess.

Jean Hatfield Sets Date

Friday, August 25 has been set as the date for the marriage of Miss Jean Hatfield, daughter of Mrs. Earl Hatfield, and Elmer Hebert, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hebert of Dallas. The couple's engagement was announced last August.

The ceremony will be performed at the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock with Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson officiating. A reception will follow in the church parlors. Miss Hatfield and her fiancé graduated this spring from the Bible Institute of Los Angeles. In the fall he will attend the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth and the couple will make their home in Salem.

your BABY'S SHOES in GENUINE BRONZE on APPROPRIATE MOUNTS

Memory Shoe Co. 734 N. High Salem

Visitors Return South

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford C. Collins of Berkeley are leaving today for the south after a week's visit in Salem with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins. Their daughter, Robin, will remain here several weeks with her grandparents and Mrs. Collins will accompany her home. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Collins plan to vacation at Lake Tahoe enroute south. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham entertained informally at dinner Wednesday night for the pleasure of the visitors on the patio of their North 21st street home. Mr. and Mrs. Collins also visited in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buck for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Griffin are leaving today for San Francisco after a week's visit in the capital with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Malson. The Griffins also visited in Eugene with relatives during their stay in the north.

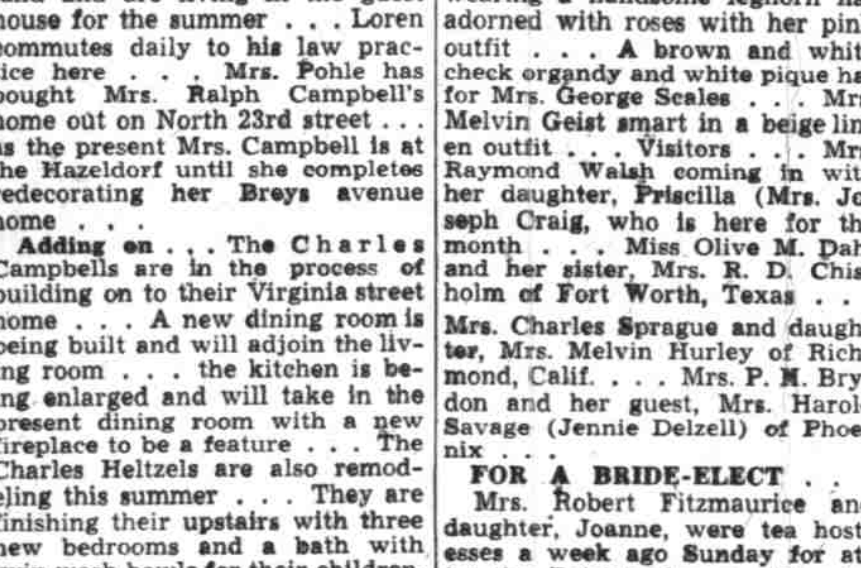

Mrs. Andrew H. Burnett of Santa Barbara and Miss Margaret Purvine of Berkeley are leaving today by plane for their homes after a week's visit here with their mother, Dr. Mary B. Purvine.

Sigma Kappa mothers will meet on Tuesday for a picnic lunch at the country home of Mrs. Vern McMullen at 1:30 o'clock. Sigma Kappa mothers of Portland are to be guests.

Margwen's
"The Store of Enchantment"
Presents
The Fairyland Contest
To Find
Little Bo Peep and Little Boy Blue
$180.00
In Valuable Prizes
Register your child at Margwens for entry portraits to be made by Bishop-Moderne Studio.
NO CHARGE - NO OBLIGATION
Any Child 6 Years of Age or Under is Eligible

Weekly Prizes
A Boy and Girl Will Be Chosen Each Week
Grand Prizes
Each Entrant Eligible in the Final Search of Little Bo Peep and Little Boy Blue

Margwen's
In the Capitol Shopping Center
440 N. Capitol
Open Mondays & Fridays Till 9:00
20 Busses Per Hour Stop at the Capitol Shopping Center

the newest thing in nylons!

the new

VENTILATED FOOT

exclusively in Belle-Sharmer
leg-size stockings

If your feet ever feel hot and burning, here's a brilliant solution by Belle-Sharmer! Their new, exclusive Ventilated Foot has tiny sole perforations that allow your foot to "breathe!" You'll love that foot-refreshed feeling! We will fit you in your own personal leg-size in Belle-Sharmer Stockings with the Ventilated Foot.

it's new! it's perfected! it's exclusive!

*Ventilated Foot is a Trade Mark of Wayne Knitting Mills for their stocking foot with the perforated sole.

Miller's

The Best Luggage Buy of the Season!
Individual or Matched Pieces
LUGGAGE SALE!
MANUFACTURER'S CLEARANCE!
$9⁹⁵ and $13⁹⁵
SHOP NOW AND SAVE
Miller's