'Happy' Likes Looks of WIL

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 17—(CP)—The Pacific northwest's Class B Western International baseball league today received a pat on the back from none other than Baseball Commissioner Albert Benjamin (Happy) Chandler. Said Chandler, who watched Saturday's doubleheader in Victoria between the Victoria Athletics and the Tri-City Braves:

"Yes, I believe the playing of the teams in the Western International league comes pretty close to the calibre of the Pacific Coast league." The P.C.L. is Triple-A ball.

Ol' Casey Talkin'

Stengel Pegs Cleveland As Amerk Title Threat

NEW YORK, July 17—(AP)—"They've got the power, they hustle and they're fortified. They're going to be very, very tough."

Casey Stengel was doing the talking. Mostly about the Cleveland Indians. It was a one-sided conversation as it almost always is when you interview the manager of the New York Yankees.

Casey wouldn't say so in as many words but he gave you the impression that he considered Lou Boudreau's Cleveland Indians the team to beat in the American league. This despite the fact that the Indians were in third place before Monday's games, a game and a half behind the runner-up Yankees and 5 1/2 behind the pace-setting Detroit Tigers.

"That Boudreau has changed over that club a couple of years ahead of schedule," said Stengel, "and doing fine too. That big guy at first (Luke Easter) and that guy at third (Al Rosen), gives him a load of power. That's what you need at first and third, power."

"They say Rosen couldn't field in the majors. Made four or five errors a game out in the Coast league last year. He's sure changed. Fields great now. Then, you don't need too much fielding strength there. How many balls a game does a third baseman get. Two or three. That Rosen has got 25 homers. So what if he blows one a third time. He's got to be there."
