Parties for Brides on Week's List

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Each summer, despite a very busy schedule as a concert singer, Lucile Cummings finds time to spend a week or so in her hometown, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cummings and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Cummings.

Miss Cummings is here now, taking a vacation between singing engagements. Recently we heard her on the Telephone Hour's Monday night concert, the third time she's sung on that excellent program.

There's always a flurry of entertaining just before a wedding, and July and August, crowding June as the favorite months for romance, are featuring pre-nuptial parties.

Miss Patricia Pearson, who will marry Gerald Morgan August 19 is being feted by friends. Her Alpha Chi Omega sisters, Miss Nancy Hopkins and Miss Marilyn Hammer both of Portland and Mrs. Norman Carey of Albany are to be hostesses at a party Thursday night at the Hopkins home. Going from Salem are Miss Pearson, her mother, Mrs. Harold B. Pearson and Miss Patricia Powell.

Giving a 1 o'clock luncheon on Saturday for another bride-to-be Miss Jane Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carson, are Miss Maryanne Croisan and Mrs. George Alexander. The party will be at the Floyd Shepherd home on North Summer street. Thirty friends have been invited to honor Miss Carson, whose marriage to James Brice Shaw is set for August 13.

Mrs. Maurice Saffron will entertain at supper in her new home on Tillman avenue tonight. Guests are to be members of her club, who include Mrs. Richard Nelson, Mrs. Lester Carter, Mrs. Richard Hauge, Mrs. Roy Ferris, Mrs. Roger K. Putnam, Mrs. William Bush and Mrs. John Ritchie.

Of interest to the Salem folk who plan this year to attend part of the Shakespearean festival in August in Ashland, is the Mop Fair, which is to be held in conjunction with the festival. Coming from the old English "Servants' Fair," introduced in the 17th century, when servants gathered once a year to sell and exchange goods, the Mop Fair will make its initial appearance this year. The modernized version of the Mop Fair will feature souvenirs of the festival and be held near the box office an hour before and an hour after each performance.

This is Ashland's tenth anniversary celebration of its Shakespearean Festival.

Committee Is Named, Rebekahs

Salem Rebekah Lodge held its Monday meeting with Mrs. Luther Melton, noble grand presiding. Committees were named for the month of July. Those appointed on the finance committee were Miss Wilda Siegmund, Mrs. Barker Cornforth, Mrs. Virgil Parker; ways and means F. L. Club; Theta Rho committee, Mrs. Lloyd Pepper, Mrs. Gavin Hill, Mrs. Chester Lanktree, Mrs. Harold Young, Mrs. Ray Webb; local press correspondent, Mrs. Victor Koop; social committee, Mrs. Clyde Bancroft, Mrs. Glenn Adams, Mrs. Clairence Fairbrother, Mrs. William Beard, Mrs. Lula Wilson, Mrs. Gertrude Alfredson, Mrs. Belle Carlson, Mrs. LaDoy Davies.

Theta Rho club will meet Thursday at 7:30. Past Noble Grands are to meet tonight at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Pepper at 1040 N. 16th. Friday night Wilamette encampment is to have a covered dish dinner at 6:30.

Mrs. Reginald Garrett gave a talk of her trip to England at the Monday meeting.

Club Hears Reports

Cootie Salem club met Friday and members heard reports of the convention held in Salem on July 1. Mrs. Mel Clemens was elected grand lady louse and Mrs. Dale Brooks was elected grand shekel keeper.

Cooties were invited to join the Cootiettes later in the evening. Those present were: Mrs. Edna Prince, Mrs. Emma DeLapp, Mrs. Dave Furlough, Mrs. Kathryn Schmidt, Mrs. Martin Finden, Mrs. Mel Clemens, Mrs. Dale Brooks, Mrs. Al Aeschlimann, Mrs. Joe Horneffer, Mrs. Joe Hopkins. The next meeting will be held on July 28 with Mrs. Martin Finden.

Couple Wed at San Diego Chapel

SILVERTON — Miss Shirley Grossnickle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Grossnickle of Silverton, and Raymond Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hall of Silverton, exchanged vows in the Wedding Bell Chapel in San Diego on July 11. The Rev. J. Frederick Sanders, pastor of the Congregational church, read the lines.

For her wedding the bride chose a white wool cashmere suit with navy blue accessories.

Mrs. Hall is a graduate of the Homedale, Idaho schools and for the past year has been employed by the George W. Hubbs company in Salem.

Mr. Hall was graduated from the Silverton schools before entering the navy in which he served for 3½ years. He attended the University of Oregon for two years and last February re-enlisted in the navy. He is now attending the Sonarsman school in San Diego.

They will live in San Diego.

Miss Rathjen Tells Plans

Miss Lois June Rathjen is announcing plans for her wedding on August 4 to Charles B. Davis Jr., at 8 p.m. at St. John's Lutheran church. The Rev. H. W. Gross will officiate.

Miss Phyllis Gunderson of Eugene will sing, William C. Oneil will play. The wedding party will be made up of Miss Norma Jean Main, Portland, maid of honor; Mrs. Dorothy Potapoff, Salem and Mrs. Donald C. Goody, San Diego, sisters of the bride, and Miss Jane Austin, Portland. Mr. Robert C. Douglas, Portland, will be best man, Robert Hill and Jean Brown of Salem, ushers.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rathjen of Salem, is a student nurse at University of Oregon School of nursing. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Davis, sr., of Cascade Locks.

Salads Galore in Booklet; Variety Of Ways to Use One Dressing Told

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Comes a booklet from You Know Who, titled 57 ideas for salads and dressings. And checking the little pamphlet, we'd say that most of them are good ideas.

Women do not always want brand new ideas, what they need is suggestions, or reminders so the brain need not work so hard figuring out 1095 different menus a year (that's three a day).

They give a basic French dressing like this:

BASIC FRENCH DRESSING

¼ teaspoon salt ¼ cup cider, distilled white
1 teaspoon sugar malt, or tarragon vinegar
¼ teaspoon paprika ¼ cup salad oil

Shake well, chill. Makes one cup.

They suggest that for chiffonade dressing, you add 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 1 hard cooked egg, chopped and ¼ cup chopped beets.

Or, they say, add one tablespoon honey.

Or, to the foundation, you may add ½ teaspoon onion juice (we always say, why extract the juice, why not just chop it up fine and call it minced onion) or ¼ cup their chopped pickled onions or 1 tablespoon their tomato ketchup.

For a Roquefort cheese dressing, you could add ¼ cup crumbled cheese, they say.

They go on and on, saying that 2 tablespoons the ketchup, two of chopped celery, two of green pepper and one teaspoon onion makes a Vegetable French dressing. Or, if you like, add ½ cup apple jelly, 2 tablespoons each lemon juice, honey, vinegar and ½ cup orange juice and use on fruit salad.

They give a foundation for mayonnaise and then suggest variations such as: Pineapple dressing, with ¼ cup whipped cream, ½ cup drained crushed pineapple mixed into 1½ cups mayonnaise.

Or two tablespoons thin cream, 2½ teaspoons their Worcester-shire sauce, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon sugar and 1 tablespoon vinegar added to a cup of mayonnaise.

Thousand Island dressing, so good on lettuce hearts, uses 2 cups mayonnaise, ¼ cup chili sauce, 2 tablespoons each chopped pepper and stuffed spanish olives.

You can make their spicy mayonnaise by combining ¼ cup of the foundation dressing with ¼ cup ketchup and 1 teaspoon ginger.

Then they play with the foundation recipe for

COOKED SALAD DRESSING

2 to 3 tablespoons sugar 1½ tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt 1 egg
1 teaspoon prepared mustard ¾ cup milk
1 tablespoon butter ¼ cup vinegar

Combine all but vinegar, cook over hot water, stirring constantly until thick. Serve on fresh crisp cabbage.

They add celery, carrot and green pepper for a vegetable dressing, mustard for a mustard dressing, whipped cream for another and combine the cooked dressing with chili sauce, green pepper, paprika, milk and hard cooked egg for a Russian dressing.

We have now almost finished page 9 and have discussed 17 recipes. Twenty-one pages and 40 recipes later we find

TOMATO LUNCHEON SALAD

4 sweet pickles, sliced ½ cup diced celery
4 hard cooked eggs, diced Mayonnaise
2 cups corned beef pieces 6 medium tomatoes

Mix all but tomatoes, moistening with mayonnaise. Cut tomatoes in four sections, but leave attached to stem end. Lay on lettuce, separate tomatoes into sections and serve mixture piled in center.

This booklet, the lady who wrote it says, can be had free by writing her.
