KCs Install New Leaders At Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL, July 19.—New officers of the Mt. Angel council of the Knights of Columbus were installed Tuesday night by District Deputy Vincent Mertz of Sublimity and District Deputy Leonard Thoma of Lebanon.

Officers are grand knight, John Jennings; deputy grand knight, Leonard Fisher; chancellor, Joseph Brockhaus; financial, W. D. Harris; recording secretary, William Beyer; warden, Clem Hauth; treasurer, Virgil Gooley; lecturer, Ervin Suss; trustee, John Beyer; advocate, Lawrence Rothenfluch; inside guard, Joseph Beyer, and outside guard, Carl Mucken.

The following standing committees were appointed by the new grand knight: sports, Mike Welton; publicity, E. B. Stolle and Mike Welton; sick committees, Leonard Fisher and M. A. Beyer; dance, Matt Wagner and Lawrence Schmidt; membership, L. A. LeDoux, Carl Mucken and Andrew Schmidt; initiation, W. D. Harris, Victor Hoffer and L. A. LeDoux; banquet, Francis Schmidt and Jake Eberle; food, Gene Hoffer, Al Schaefer and Fritz Berni; construction, Mark Schaefer; Catholic activities, Al Dieker; general program, Richard Foltz.

Members will attend the Catholic Day program at the Salem Fairgrounds Sunday, July 23. An invitation was extended to attend the St. Paul KC picnic July 30.

Larry Ebner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ebner, Mt. Angel Boy Scout who attended the Scout jamboree in Valley Forge, Pa., reviewed his trip for the Knights. Father Daman gave a short talk in which he urged cooperation with the new officers and commended Ebner for his report.
