Designing Woman

By Elizabeth Hillyer THREE IDEAS IN ONE

Here are three good problemsolving ideas in one corner furniture arrangement: For the bedroom, the arrangement makes use of lazy corner space to fit a dressing table into a room that might otherwise be too small for one. For the living room, the same furniture set-up without the mir-ror can be used as a desk. And for the dining room there are two possibilities,-the use of the furniture as a space-saving corner side - board and server in the small dining room, or as a desk again to make an office corner of the seldom-used end of a larg-er dining room. Multi-purpose furniture like this which adapts to many rooms and solves space problems made news in the recent previews of home furnishings in Grand Rapids. You'll see these particular pieces in the stores soon now, along with other furniture to match that also makes good arrangement easier. And rearrangement, too, because the separate units can be arranged in so many ways.

Do you know how to mix paint and get the exact color you want? Do you know how to paint furniture the easiest and best professional way/ Elizabeth Hillyer's booklet, SMAET AS PAINT — PAINTING PROBLEMS SOLVED, tells you how. This booklet is your for 15 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to Miss Hillyer at this newspaper. (Copyright 1950 by John F. Dille Co.)

Reception Given For Brownings

SILVERTON - The Rev. and Mrs. Ben F. Browning were honored at a farewell reception at the Methodist church Sunday night. Mrs. E. A. Finlay arranged the program which included numbers by the Men's chorus; vocal duets by Janice and Joyce Herigstad; piano solos by Diana Hobart and a reading by Sharon Hannan.

During the refreshment hour, Mrs. Albert Grinde, Mrs. Finlay and Mrs. T. R. Hobart poured. Ben Sprick, chairman of the church board, presented the Brownings with a gift from the congregation. Rev. and Mrs. Browning will leave shortly for Toledo, where Rev. Browning has been assigned to serve in the Methodist church. No appointment has been made for the Silverton church. Supply pastors will serve during August.

Forty attended the Salem Junior Woman's club picnic on Friday night at the Dallas park. Husbands of members were guests and swimming was enjoyed preceding the dinner. The committee included Mrs. Charles Knapp, Mrs. Wallace Cowen and Mrs. Richard Klover.

To Compliment Teen Daughters Can Learn Sewing In Summer; Time to Develop Skills

By Sue Gardner Many mothers are wondering what they can do with their teen age daughters through the long summer months. If the girls do not have a special hobby and are not going away to camp or a resort, this is a good time to develop some sewing skill. A girl who makes a dress she can wear to school in the fall will feel a great deal of pride in her accomplishment. Throughout the country there are sewing centers which have short courses for girls in their 'teens. The girls can register in groups or individually, and acquire enough skill to complete at least one wearable costume by fall. Home sewing need not require a large investment. There are many sanforized winter cottons now available that will look fine for school year. The patterns are tweeds or plaids with a look of wool, yet they launder easily. Most homes have a sewing machine and the girls can run up their dresses and finish them on rainy days.

Very often a sewing project will bring out individual design- Hayesville Baptist church. ing or styling talents in a girl.
