

Garden Tour Slated . . .

By Jermy English

Statesman Society Editor

One of the largest affairs of the summer season is calendared for Wednesday afternoon and evening when members of the Salem Garden club sponsor a tour of twelve of Salem's beautiful gardens. All members of the garden club, friends and the interested public are invited to view the gardens with the men especially invited to join their wives in the evening.

The tour begins at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and continues through until 9 o'clock in the evening. Tea will be served on the terraces of the Douglas McKay home from 3 until 6. In each garden a decorated table for outdoor entertaining will be featured.

Gardens which will be open include eight on North Summer street; Ralph Cooley, Floyd W. Shepard, Karl Becke, James E. Young, William Busick, Robert Shinn, William McGilchrist, Jr., and Homer H. Smith. In the south end of the city gardens to be open are those of Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Daniel J. Fry, Jr., Walter H. Smith and Douglas McKay.

Hostesses assisting in the various gardens are as follows: Cooley, Mesdames Albert Walker, C. Ward Davis, George Beane and F. F. Wedel; Shepard, Mesdames Robert Fitzmaurice, L. H. McMahon, John Wiles and W. H. Parker; Becke and Young, Mesdames Effie Lorenz and Gerald Richards; Busick, Mesdames W. Wells Baum, Bryan Goodenough, Roy Smith and Oscar Cutler; Shinn, Mesdames F. W. Poorman and Margaret Rosecrans; McGilchrist, Mesdames William H. Burghardt, Wilmer C. Page; Homer Smith, Mesdames Coe Roberts and Homer Smith, Jr.; Lachmund, Mesdames G. A. Reesher, Merle Travis, J. Ray McEvoy and Arthur Jones; Fry, Mesdames Alvin Lühr, Floyd Anderson, Robert Hutcheon and Herman Lafky; Walter Smith, Mesdames W. H. Speck, Frank Towle, Elmore Hill, J. N. Bishop and Robert Wulf; McKay, Mesdames Charles Cole, Ben Maxwell, Virgil Sexton, William L. Phillips, Phillip Allison, Lester Barr, Mem Pearce, James Turnbull, Forrest Donkin, Grant Rogers, E. M. Page and Herbert Ostlund.

Presiding at the tea urns during the afternoon will be Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mrs. Ben Maxwell, president of the Salem Garden club, Mrs. Morrell Cray, Mrs. Earl Andress, Mrs. Howard Hunsaker and Miss Elizabeth Lord. A fuchsia and orchid color scheme will be used in the decor of the tea tables with fuchsias and petunias predominating. Serving will be Mrs. Wayne Hadley, Mrs. M. L. Engelstad, Mrs. Morrell Cray, Mrs. Russell E. Pratt, Mrs. Eileen Sheldon, Mrs. C. S. McCollam and Mrs. W. E. Martin. Mrs. Charles Cole is in charge of the tea arrangements and Miss Edith Schryver is general chairman of the tour.

ON THE COOL SIDE...

To Vacation at Neskowin . . .

August is the popular beach month for Salem vacationists and Neskowin seemingly is the popular resort, according to the number of families planning to be there the next few weeks. Already golf, bridge and canasta games are being planned with afternoon beach parties with the children on the agenda.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walton and children, Jeff and Elisabeth, will spend the month at their Neskowin beach home as will the Werner Browns and their children, John and Clifford. The Chandler Browns and children, Vivienne, Roxanne and Bill, have taken the C. B. Spencer home for the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wilbur and children, Mary and John, are also leaving Tuesday to spend the month at Neskowin. Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Joseph and children, Sally, Bob, Bill and Patricia, are leaving on August 6 for a fortnight's stay at Neskowin. Joining them for one week will be Mrs. Joseph's father, M. M. Murray of Lewiston, Idaho. The Robert Herralls and daughter, Linda, will leave a week from Sunday to spend the remainder of August at their beach home. The Howard Eismann family will also be occupying their place at Neskowin during the month.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Olinger and children, Susan and Casey, are leaving August 13 for a two weeks stay at Neskowin. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roth and children, Barbara, Jimmy and Roger, and Mr. and Mrs. William Whitmore and children, Michael and Patty, are leaving today for Neskowin to spend the ensuing two weeks at the Frank Spears beach home. Mr. and Mrs. John Steelhammer and daughter, Jan, will be at Neskowin for the coming month.

Miss Gragg and Fiance Arrive, Parties Planned . . .

With the arrival of Miss Carroll Jean Gragg and her fiance, Ensign Paul Theodore Karschnia, in the capital on Friday night plans are being announced for their wedding which will be an event of Saturday, August 12 at the First Presbyterian church.

The couple arrived in Portland by plane from St. Paul, Minn., and were met by Miss Gragg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Gregg. Both have been stationed at Norfolk, Va., with the navy.

Tea to Fete Miss Gragg

A round of parties are on the calendar for the popular-bride-to-be. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Henry Marion Hansen will be hostess for a tea at her South High street residence for Miss Gragg with calling hours from 3 to 5 o'clock. Miss Gragg, her mother and the hostess will receive informally.

Mrs. Carl W. Emmons will greet guests at the door and assisting in the garden will be Mrs. R. D. Paris. Mrs. Carl Chambers will invite guests into the dining room. Pouring during the afternoon will be Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. George H. Swift, Mrs. Daniel B. Jarman, Mrs. Wallace S. Wharton and Mrs. Douglas McKay.
