Willamina Schools To Start Classes On September 5th

Statesman News Service
 September 5 has been set as the tentative opening date for the opening date for the Willamina schools by board members Vern Huddleston and Al Newby. The high school and the grade school are both undergoing extensive redecorating, with Vic Emmons and Vern Riggles in charge.
 The Rev. and Mrs. Warren W. Pechman returned here this week after spending a week at Estes Park, Colorado, at the Board of American Missions school of the United Lutheran church in America. The Rev. and Mrs. Pechman found the school helpful in the work they are doing in Willamina, as the pastor was able to exchange ideas with pastors from different sections.
 The Willamina city council will meet Monday evening in the council chambers, with reviewing bids on the paving projects the main item on the agenda.
