

Douglas to Climb Peaks In Iran Again

LAGRANDE, Aug. 5—(P)—Mountains and the lore of the Near East have called U. S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas off on another jaunt.

He abandoned his isolated mountain summer retreat in the Wallows this week to go to New York City, where he will enplane for Iran. Mrs. Douglas accompanied him as far as Spokane. Justice Douglas plans to return to Washington in time for the supreme court session starting in October.

He isn't through with horses, he said before his departure. He'll likely ride in Iran. "But I hope I have better luck than in this country," he said.

His ribs still are tender. More than a dozen were fractured when his horse rolled on him nearly a year ago in Washington state. And his shin is still tender from a shin kick administered a short time ago. The injury jut him in a Portland hospital.

Besides mountain climbing, Justice Douglas will gather material for a book.

U. S. Develops Two Proposals For U N Policy

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5—(P)—Proposals for two new United Nations actions in the Korean crisis are now being developed by the United States.

The proposals are:
1. Creation of a permanent watchdog commission to keep check on trouble spots all over the world and have official U.N. observers on hand when and if some new communist aggression occurs. President Truman and other government officials felt the free world benefitted greatly and United Nations action against aggression was speeded up considerably by the presence of a U.N. commission in Korea when the red attack broke.

2. Organization of a U.N. group, including Asian members particularly, to consider the U.N.'s course of action in Korea once troops have driven the reds back to the 38th parallel.

Top authorities here say this decision cannot be made by the United States but must be worked out by the U.N.

Salem Heights Water Record Set in July

SALEM HEIGHTS — Consumers in the Salem Heights water district used 8,400,000 gallons during July to set an all-time record for this fast-growing district. The total for July, 1949, was 5,200,000 gallons.

The Salem Heights Square Dance club will meet Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. at the Salem Heights hall.

Members of the Liberty and Salem Heights Womens clubs are planning to attend the annual picnic of the Marion County Federation of Womens clubs Tuesday at the Childrens Farm home at Corvallis. A covered-dish dinner will be served at noon.

Floor Plan Okehed For New Sheridan Postal Building

SHERIDAN — A new post office has been proposed for Sheridan, and the floor plan has been approved by E. L. Michel, a post office inspector in Spokane. The property, on Harney street, is owned by J. A. Newton of Willamina.

Those receiving perfect attendance pins at a Rotary club meeting in Sheridan were Lester Kaufman, five years; Dean Holmes, four; Charles Gould, three; and George Mowery, one.

Cement Poured Around Clock for Stayton Gym

STAYTON — Pouring concrete around the clock, 11 men poured 198 yards of concrete for the new grade school gym one day last week, according to H. D. Rutledge, building superintendent for Earl Hall, Lebanon, who has the building contract.

Pouring started at 7 a. m. and the work was completed at 6 a. m. the following day. The concrete mix was loaded into pneumatic-tired carts from the mixing trucks of the Santiam Ready-Mix. It was taken by elevator to the top of the walls where it was poured.

MISS WAKEMAN HONORED — Miss Joyce Wakeman, bride elect of Wendell Martin, was honored with a bridal shower Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Howard Werschul in Portland. Miss Luann Werschul was co-hostess with her mother. Fourteen guests were present.

Local schools will open Tuesday, September 5, for the 1950-51 school year. It has been learned here. All the teachers have been hired, and James Rose, who has been a teacher in the grade school, will be principal of the new grade school on the south-west side of Sheridan.

The National Geographical society says a boa constrictor may be as big around as a man's leg and weigh over 50 pounds.
