The Robert DeArmonds will soon be moving, having purchased the Russell Bright's new home on North 23rd street... The Brights in turn have bought the Douglas Yeater place on Virginia street... and the Yeaters are now at home in a newly completed view place on Boice street in Candalaria Heights.

Others soon to move into newly built homes on Boice street are Dr. and Mrs. Charles Gray and Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Shiffer.

Under construction... the Lin Pages have started their new home high upon Fairmount Hill on West Lincoln between the T. A. Livesley and Bruce Spaulding homes... The Donald McCargars will move next month to the Ray Waltz home on the corner of Fairmount and Superior, which they recently purchased.

SUMMER TIDBITS... Newcomers being greeted in the capita are Dr. and Mrs. Owen Miller and young son, Owen, who recently came here from Boston... The young doctor is a brother of Salem's Dr. Vern W. Miller... and is a dermatologist... He soon will be located in one of the new buildings now under construction at the Medical Center.

A gala reunion... planned for next Saturday at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Shinn... when a group of college friends gather for luncheon... some twenty-five former Oregon State grads will come from Portland, Medford, Eugene and as far as California for the yearly reunion... Last year Mae Chambers and Dorathea Steusloff were the hostesses... A few, who are able to stay over, will go on over to Pacific City for the week end to further reminisce at the Chambers and Steusloff beach place.

Arrived... by Railway Express this past week from Germany was Pookie Ann, a little black cocker belonging to Captain and Mrs. Winston Williams, who have been in Germany the past three years... Pookie Ann crossed the Atlantic by plane, while Grace and Winston came the long way on an army ship... They left July 30 and docked in New York this past week... they flew west and were met in Portland Friday night by her mother, Mrs. Thomas Holman, and aunt, Miss Helen Litchfield... they will be here several weeks and Winston's new assignment will be in Pennsylvania.

Expected home... this coming week end will be the Ralph Purvins and children, Billy and Becky... Jeanne and the children have been in Winona, Minn., this summer visiting her parents, the Guy Raymonds... Ralph went east by train a week ago to accompany his family home... then will go directly to their Nesko-win beach home for the remainder of the month...

Out to the ball park... With only a little over three weeks of play left in the Western International league we want to mention two of the Salem Senators' ardent fans... Jim and Betty Haley... They have occupied the same box seats since 1946 and only one game have they missed... and on that particular night Betty was honor attendant for her sister, Mary Jane, when she became Mrs.

Charles Barclay... The Halesys come prepared for any kind of weather... even to their thermos jug of hot coffee... seat pads and score sheets... They think nothing of driving in from their country home past Roberts every night the team is in town.

Mother-daughter duo... Mrs. Ralph Wirth in a good-looking black linen jacket dress with inset on one side of pleated black and white check... the check repeated in a bow at the neckline... her daughter, Betty (Mrs. Russell Beardsley) up from her home in San Leandro for several weeks... she in a becoming yellow linen... The Beardsleys secured their tickets to "South Pacific" now playing in San Francisco, before they left... Even then Russ had to wait in line, over a half block long, for matinee tickets in September.

RADIO STARS... and originators of the 20 Questions program here on Tuesday and entertained at luncheon at the American Legion club by the Glenn McCormicks... The Fred Van Deventer family... Fred, his wife, Florence Reynard as she is known to the radio audience, son, Bob, and daughter, Nancy... The four are on a cross country tour, traveling by train... Their home is in Princeton, New Jersey, and they are returning via California... but only three days scheduled for California as for four in Oregon... The McCormicks accompanied the family to Eugene, where they broadcasted, and then up the McKenzie for an overnight stay.

About the Van Deventers... Florence, an attractive blonde, wearing a full skirted dark blue skirt with a light top... Bob, who will attend Duke university this fall... football his popular sport... Nancy, who will go to Marjorie Webster Junior college in Washington, D. C., next month... It was Nancy who suggested the name for the popular radio show... Nancy and Bob haven't been on the show the past year as they have been away at school... Fred has a grand personality and manages the program... He really is a newspaperman at heart and still gives a news broadcast over a New York station daily.

About thirty of the McCormicks' friends bidden to greet the radio family... and during the luncheon the four Van Deventers did an impromptu broadcast with Dave Hoss the interviewer... Noted... so many of the guests cool-looking in smart white summer suits... among them... Mrs. Robert Elstrom, Mrs. Elmer Berg, Mrs. B. E. Owens and Mrs. Arnold Krueger... the latter accenting her outfit with a perky red straw.
