Just what the name Kahut means to an army fistic excursion was proved beyond doubt last week when less than $200 hit the till for the VFW-Salkeld Kahut-less party. The Ferry Street Garden shows for the past few months have been drawing well—when young Eddie Kahut was listed thereon. What happens when he's not to fight was exhibited sorrowfully last week. Worst part of it, Eddie probably won't pull another glove for at least two more months. He's up to his teenaged ears in farm work, laboring with grain, and says he won't be through with it for another eight or ten weeks. . . . When Eddie does return to the ring his official manager is apt to be Big Brother Joe himself. When asked by Salkeld here the other night just what his managerial status was going to be, Eddie "guessed" the boss would be Brother Joe. . . . Speaking of fighters, the young heavyweight on last Wednesday's card, Jimmy Byrnes, is the son of Jim, Sr. who will be recalled by oldtimers as the southpaw heavy who battled some of the best of his day, including Dempsey, Stribling and Lomaki. He fought Dempsey in a Eugene exhibition in 1932 and gave the former champ a real go of it. Salkeld figures the current Byrnes, a strapping 212-pounder, as a prospect. Come to think of it, if he can flatten his ring foes as easily as he did Lew Angel here the other night he'd be world champ one day. Angel made like a yo-yo as he faded before the mere wind of Byrnes' swings. . . . "When did Johnny Tierney win his last game for the Senators?" asks a reader who says he has a bet that the once winhappy Butch of the Solon hill corps "hasn't won one in two months." Last victory for Tierney was posted on June 25 in the second game of a doubleheader with Yakima here. He beat the Bears 6-3 to make his record read 12 wins, 5 losses. Unless the 21-year-old sneaked one in during the Victoria series just ended up north, he's now even with the board at 12-12. . . .

RUFF SILVERSTEIN

Should one Jack Friel suddenly make the news by biting himself or gunning down a baseball scout or two, he is not surprised. He has good reason to undertake either chore. It was bad enough for the Washington State cage mentor to lose via graduation the big wheel of his 1950 northern division champs Eddie Gayda. Since then he's been short of two of his prize sophes of last season, Ted Tappe and Gene Conley, who now cast their athletic lot in professional baseball. It was upon these two that Friel was depending mostly for the nucleus of his 1951 unit. Making it doubly bad for the Cougar boss, the WSC Frosh club of last season was a poor one with hardly a single piece of prospective talent on it. What with Conley and Tappe around for 1951, along with a handful of underdogs on Friel's second platoon, Cougar faithful figured all might be okeh even with Gayda gone, so didn't worry over the puny of the freshman team. But now! It's rather easy to see just who they'll be picking to bring up the rear in the upcoming derby—that is, unless a sudden rash of junior college transfers descends upon the Pullman campus. . . .

Spokane's new memorial football stadium holds the world championship for "growing" turf. Even though nary a single seed has yet been sown in it, the stadium will nonetheless have a solid greensward upon which the gridlers can play in the September 15 grand opener. Rather than go through the long and painful process of growing the grass themselves, which they had no time to do any— (Continued on next page)

Sutton Cops 'Rod' Win In Holly-Bowl Program

Len (Lil Abner) Sutton and his yellow No. 27 car last night put the climax to the Hollywood Bowl rooster racing program before almost 3000 fans by copping the 35-lap main event. He had to pull off Eric Koch in the No. 1 car for the last 15 laps of the romp, but did it methodically as well as convincingly. The win was Sutton's second straight for the bowl in hot rod meets. The mainer was loaded with spin-outs, but no serious cracks-ups. One of the spins cost Howie Osborne a possible second place as he had the place position in comfortable fashion when his No. 44 buggy took the east turn too fast and went kaput. Koch then moved up to do the chasing behind Sutton. Sutton was only a car length ahead of Koch at the finish and the two-car race was that close for the last five laps. Osborne made a spectacular recovery from his spin the last lap to full lap because of it) and finished third. Wild Bill Hyde was fourth. The time was 1:13.60. Max Humm was a major threat in the race also, but a spinout ruined him early. Fred Gilbert and Don Crockett also suffered the costly spinouts. Humm had been having bearing trouble all evening with the 73 car he was herding, but fast work in the pits had it ready for the main event. Hyde put an end to the winning ways of Koch in the trophy dash, taking the three-lap event in 53.73 seconds. Sutton was second and Koch third. Koch had won his previous six straight trophy romps. Sutton copped the first heat race of seven laps, ahead of Hyde and Osborne in 2:03.88. Wendy Nelson won the second heat, Koch the third and Osborne the fourth. The Class B main, an eight-lap affair involving "street rods" was taken by Dean Capps in a green V-8 in 2:38.11. Sutton posted the fastest time in his run in 16.78 seconds. Neither Bob Gregg or Randy Francis appeared in the races, as their cars were broken down. The same fate held Salem's Frankie McGowan to herding nothing more than one of the push-cars.

Torrid Phillies Edge Giants in 11 Frames as Fists Fly

By Ralph Roden
NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The rampaging Philadelphia Phillies edged the New York Giants, 5-4, in eleven innings today in a game that was featured by a fourth-inning brawl. Tempers flared as early as the second inning when Andy Seminick, strapping Philadelphia catcher, bumped into third baseman Hank Thompson and knocked him cold. In the fourth Ed Stanky of the Giants was kicked out for waving his arms while Seminick was batting. Stanky had done this against the Phils and Boston Braves previously. Before the game it was announced that Stanky would drop the tactic until a ruling from President Ford Frick is made. However, when Stanky continued the arm-waving, he was thrown out. The Giants immediately announced they were playing the game under protest. After play resumed, Seminick said hard into Bill Riese, Thompson's replacement at third, and the two began swapping punches. Players from both sides streamed on the field and it took the four umpires and four Philadelphia policemen to break it up. The cops threatened to arrest Gilbert for "using profane language" but were talked out of it by Umpire Lee Ballanfant. Riese and Seminick were tossed out of the game. The Chicago Cubs thrashed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-2, as Bob Rush scattered ten hits and drove in three runs on a homer and single to gain his 10th win. Andy Pafko batted his 26th home to open the Cubs' scoring in the fifth inning. The New York Yankees regained second place from the Cleveland Indians in the American league pennant fight. The Yanks topped the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-2, while the Indians took a 11-4 lacing from the Chicago White Sox. The victory moved the Yanks within three games of the pace-setting Detroit Tigers. The Tigers scheduled game with the Browns in St. Louis was rained out. Allie Reynolds, although yielding nine hits and issuing seven walks, had it in the clutch and went all the way for his 10th Yankee success. The White Sox pounded five Cleveland pitchers for 16 hits, Ed Robinson, Nelson Fox and Hank Majeski leading the way with three blows each. Two of Robinson's safeties were home runs. Joe Gordon and Larry Doby homered for the Indians. Joe Dobson pitched the Boston Red Sox to a 10-1 victory over the Senators in Washington in the lone American league night game. Dobson limited the Senators to four hits in posting his 13th victory. The St. Louis Cardinals took over third place from the Brooklyn Dodgers by beating Cincinnati, 3-1, while the Dodgers dropped a 10-2 decision to the Boston Braves. Max Lanier went all the way for the Cards for his 11th victory. Warren Spahn turned back the Dodgers on six hits in recording his 15th victory. The Dodgers committed seven errors, five short of the major league record of 12 shared by Detroit and the Chicago White Sox.

Senators, Vics Divide Final Games of Series The Standings

Valentine Takes Win in First Go
ATHLETIC P. A. R. K., Victoria, Aug. 12.—(Special)—The Salem Senators and Victoria Athletics broke even in their series ending doubleheader here Saturday, the Senators winning the opener this afternoon 4-3 and the Athletics copping the night game, 6-1. Thus for the five-game series it was Salem 3-2. But for the overall season Victoria won 11 of the 21 games played with the Senators. Gene Valentine pitched the win in the opener, his first of the season for Salem. He gave eight hits, one a three-run homer in the fifth by Marty Krug. But Ray McNulty had homered with one on for Salem in the third, and Bill Beard and Bill Spaeter drove in the other two runs off Jim Hedgecock for the win. Bob Cherry led Salem's seven-hit attack with three blows, one a double.

Ransom Stretches Lead In Tam's 'World' Meet

By Charles Chamberlain
CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Henry Ransom galloped ahead by three strokes today in the stampede of money-hungry pros for the $11,000 Tom O'Shanter pro golf meet's first prize. The 39-year-old campaigner, whose winter home is Dallas, forged a solid third round of 36-35-71 in the "World" championship for a 54-hole count of 210. This was six under par for the regulation 36-36 Tam course, trampled today by some 10,000 spectators. Entering tomorrow's final round, with second place good for $5,000, Ransom—also the halfway leader—had seven tough, stretch-driving colleagues to contend with. Three taps behind him at 213 were Chick Harbert, the long-hitting Detroit who whipped into a challenge with 33-34-67; and Chandler Harper, the 1950 National PGA champion from Portsmouth, Va., who posted a brace of 36's. Grouped at 214 were these dangerous challengers: Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., with a third round 34-36-70; Dutch Harrison, now registering from nearby St. Andrews Golf club, the same as Ransom, with 32-37-69; Bobby Locke, the South African who won the Tam All-American this week, with 36-35-71; 28-year-old Dick Mayer of New Greenwich, Conn., a pro for only one year, with 34-38-72, and Clay Heffner of Charlotte, N. C., with 36-35-71. Jim Ferrer was lodged in the 215 bracket with Ed Furgol, the lame-armed star from Royal Oak, Mich., at even par 216 were Porky Oliver, Fred Haas, Jr., Cary Middlecoff, Lawson Little, Norman Van Nida of Sydney, Australia, and leading money winner Sam Snead.

Tigers Capture 7th Straight

The sizzling Tacoma Tigers roared to their seventh straight Western International league victory last night as they whipped Spokane's Indians, 7-3 behind the tight clutch pitching of Mel Knevezovich. The Tri-City Braves smeared the Vancouver Capilanos, 11-1 in the second game of a doubleheader after the Caps had taken the first tilt, 8-4. (Wenatchee-Yakima result will be found on page one).

Twinks Clout Beavers, 7-3

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The Hollywood Stars made it four out of five against Portland today, downing the Beavers by a 7-3 count before only 2,564 fans. Kewpie Barrett got credit for pitching the victory but he needed help in the ninth from Kenny Lehman. Vince DiBiasi, first of four Portland hurlers, was charged with the defeat. The Oakland Acorns' top-place margin was cut to eight games as they bowled to Seattle 4-3, while the second-place Stars were winning. San Diego whipped Los Angeles, 9-2 and San Francisco edged Sacramento, 3-2.

Hawaiian Tips Swim Record

OSAKA, Japan, Aug. 12.—(AP)—A Japanese American from Hawaii beat Japan's swimming ace and the world record in an 800-meter free-style swimming exhibition today. Ford Konno of Honolulu edged Japan's Hironoshin Furuhashi by one stroke as he covered the distance in 9:40.2, trimming 14.4 seconds off the world mark held by Bill Smith of Hawaii. Furuhashi, Japan's Tanaka and Australia's Jim Marshall from Yale, who finished behind Konno in that order, all bettered Smith's mark.

Cyclists Seek National Title

The National Class C Motorcycle Hill-climbing championships, involving riders from all over the country and a 370-foot, 72-degree challenge, takes place today on Wagner Butte, located eight miles south of Corvallis on Highway 99-W. The event is sponsored by the Eugene Motorcycle club and will draw well over 50 climbing experts. John Martinolich of Portland holds the current record for scaling the treacherous hill in 9.96 seconds. He'll be after the title today. So will 1949 champions Sam Arena of Palo Alto, Cal., and Windy Lindstrom of Oakland, Cal., who copped the laurels last year at Dubuque, Ia. National hill climbing point leaders in 45 Novice, 45 Amateur, 45 Expert, 80 Novice, 80 Amateur and 80 Expert also will take their cracks at the smooth tricky hill. Martinolich, Arena and Lindstrom are among the 80 Expert group that includes riders from Wisconsin, Illinois, Washington, Idaho, California and other states.

Shooters Await 'Grand American'

By Fritz Howell
VANDALIA, O., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Something new has been added for the 51st grand American trapshoot scheduled here Aug. 18-26. The anticipated 2000 sharpshooters from all parts of the country will fire over electrical-operated traps for the first time. All 36 traps on the three-eighths-mile firing line have been equipped with the new electrical gadgets, going away with the manually operated "cock and release" mechanism. Ray E. Loring, general manager of the Amateur Trapshooting association, estimated that some 1,400,000 targets would be thrown in the races for about 20 national championships. A year ago approximately $225,000 in prize money was handed out to approximately 2,000 dead-eye Dicks and Doras during the golden anniversary "grand," and nearly that amount is scheduled for this tournament. As time for the "roaring grand" approached, the word was out to "watch Arnold Rieger." Rieger, of Seattle, Wash., has broken just under 99 per cent of 5,000 registered targets this year, and he's won several handicap events from the extreme 25-yard distance. He just led's missing from 16 yards, breaking 200 straight
