

Neskowin is the popular beach resort for dozens of Salem families during the summer months. The golf course is one of the main attractions as well as the protected clean beach and creek, where the children play.

On the left page in the upper picture is a group of children on the beach. In the front row left to right are Jimmy Roth, David Perry, Michael Whitmore and Dennis Perry. Back row left to right are Barbara and Roger Roth, Jimmy Bone, Patty Whitmore, Stephen Perry and Jerry Bone.

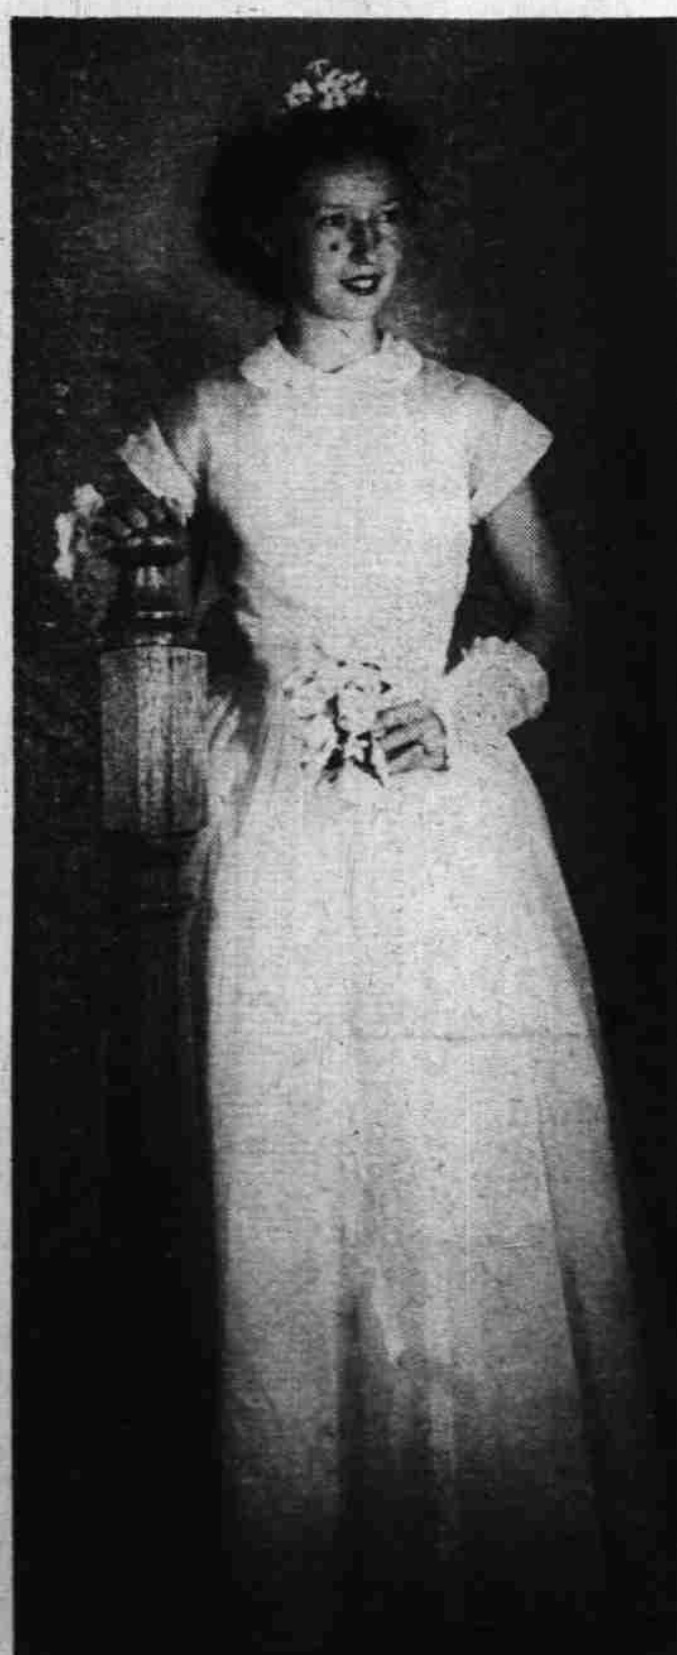

The Edward Roths have been at the Frank Spears beach house the past two weeks and on the steps are Mrs. Roth, Mrs. John Bone, Mr. Roth, Mr. Bone and son, John, and Michael Whitmore.

At Neskowin for the month of August are the John Stee, hammers. With Mrs. Steelhammer are daughter, Jan, and Jerry Jarvis in front.

On the right page above are John Wilbur and John Bone, who get around the beach resort on a motor scooter.

Mrs. Glen Wilbur, center, is an ardent golf fan and plays every day. The Wilburs spend the month of August each year at Neskowin.

Mrs. Robert Herrall pictured in front of her modern beach home at Neskowin. Their house was completed two summers ago and the Herralls with daughter, Linda, spend most of each summer and week ends during the winter at the coast resort. (Snapshots by Jo Perry).

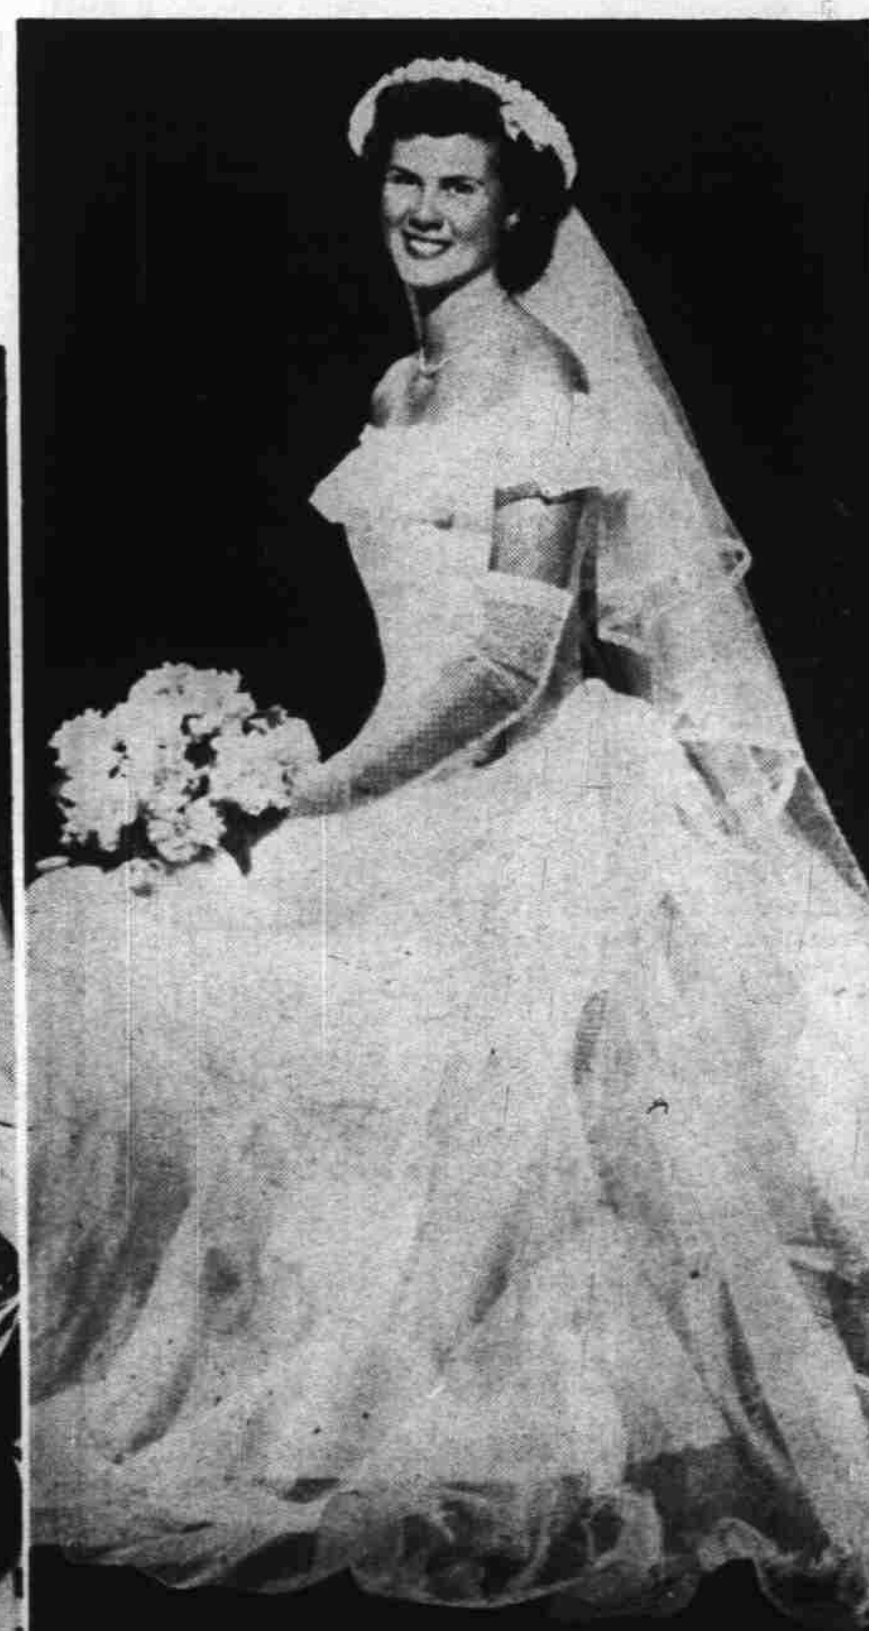

Mrs. R. J. Chance (Mary Brehm) who was married on August 5 in the garden of the Glenn McCormick home. The bride is the daughter of the A. H. Brehms of Hood River and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chance. The couple will live in Salem. (Bishop-Moderne)

Miss Gloria Ann McClintock, daughter of Mrs. Edna M. Olson, whose engagement to Glen Holden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Holden of McMinnville, has been revealed. The wedding is planned for next spring. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walsh pictured at the wedding reception as the bride throws her bouquet. The ceremony took place on August 5 at high noon at St. Margaret Mary's church in Oakland, Calif. The bride, the former Laverne Folkers, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rudolf Folkers. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Raymond Walsh of Salem. The newlyweds will live in Los Angeles. (Colburn Studio, Oakland).

Mrs. Alfred M. Fedie, the former Polly Pollock before her marriage on August 6 at the Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church in Portland. The bride is the daughter of the Dean Pollocks of Portland and the benedict is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Roy A. Fedie of Salem. The couple will live in Newberg. (Edris-Morrison studio).