

Shirley Kahler
Now Mrs. Mehl

DALLAS—At a candlelight service in the First Methodist church August 11 at 8 o'clock, Shirley Ann Kahler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kahler, became the bride of Harold Glenn Mehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Mehl. Rev. Paul Paul read the service. The soloist was Mrs. Gerald Lokan and Mrs. Ellsworth Wilson played the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white slipper gown with a fitted bodice, a yoke of lace coming to a point at the waist line in front and back, and full train. The finger-ring veil of imported illusion was trimmed with lace and held in place by a crown of lace over satin. She carried a bouquet of shaded pink rubrum lilies and stephanotis.

Mrs. Bill Adams was the matron of honor for her sister. She wore a pale pink sheer over taffeta gown and carried a cascade bouquet of deep pink gladioluses and wore a headdress of small pink rosebuds. Wanda Chapman and Bonnie Jean Wonder of Danbury, Iowa, cousin of the bride, were the bridesmaids. They wore identical pale blue sheer over taffeta gowns and carried bouquets of yellow gladioluses and wore a headdress of tiny yellow rosebuds. Dorothy Neufeld and Joyce Schroeder lighted the candles.

Ileen Christensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Christensen of Corvallis, was the flower girl. Cary Christensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Christensen, was the ring bearer.

Bill Adams, brother-in-law of the bride, was the best man. Bill Wilson, Ronald Wiebe, Delbert Fredericks and Melvin Kahler were the ushers.

Mrs. Kahler chose a sheer navy blue over taffeta gown with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Mehl wore turquoise and white silk print with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Sam Mehl and Mrs. J. B. Shuler cut the cake and Laverne VanClyce and Mrs. Mel Kahler served the punch. Assisting were Sylvia Leady, Mrs. Mel Kahler, Mrs. Melvin Kahler, Mrs. Melvyn Courter and Mrs. Ronald Wiebe.

For going away the bride wore a gray suit with white accessories and white orchid.

The couple are both graduates of the Dallas high school. The bride is employed at the state bureau of labor in Salem and the groom at the Mehl Lumber company in Dallas.

Following a wedding trip to Nevada, the couple will be at home at 508 Ellis street in Dallas.

Over 100 Visit
13th Herb Tea
At Lebanon

By LILLIE L. MADSEN
LEBANON, Aug. 17 — While the extremely hot weather did dampen the spirit of the more than 100 women who attended the Lebanon Garden club's 13th annual Herb Tea. The event was held in the gardens of Mrs. A. G. Korte at 567 Walnut st. and 27 varieties of herb tea besides an herb-blended punch were served.

Little sandwiches and cakes also contained herbs both within and without. At the herb bazaar, held in conjunction with the tea, mint, geranium, jellies and various vinegars were selling briskly. While Indiana's acres of mint outnumber Oregon's by almost 2,000, Oregon raises more mint oil by actual poundage, Mrs. Gilbert Looney, Jefferson, told the visitors during the program hour.

For years, she said, Michigan topped all other states in growing mint, but in 1948 Indiana went to the top with 16,700 acres, and Oregon came in second with 14,500. Michigan fell to third place. Oregon produced 1,819 pounds of mint oil and Indiana but 1,429.

Peppermint was introduced into this country in 1812 in Massachusetts, Mrs. Looney told, but it didn't come to the west coast in a commercial way until 1909.

While some types of wild mint are being grown here, most of the mint now planted in Oregon is of English origin, Mrs. Looney said. She said that rust had infested Willamette valley mint badly this summer and in order to save the crop much of the mint had to be cut earlier than usual. Flea beetle and strawberry weevil were also severe this season, she added, butling was being done in mint fields.

Mrs. V. E. Wilson, president of the Lebanon Garden club, was also chairman of the tea. Mrs. Peter Smith presided at the herb tea table, and serving the punch were Miss Barbara Gamberg and Miss Rita Kenyon.

Two gardens besides the Korte garden were open to the visitors. In the gardens of Mrs. Oliver Gunderson 100 varieties of mint were viewed, growing in her garden, and a similar number of fuchsias were admired in the garden of Mrs. Bruce Enaley.
