

Padres Edge Beavers Twice; Homers Help Suds to Victories

Marquez Wins Pre-Game Race

West's Single Gives San Diego Opener

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 20—(AP) Max West's timely hitting and Al Olsen's pitching were major factors as San Diego beat Portland 3 to 1 in the Pacific Coast league double-header today.

West's hot single inside first in the ninth inning with the bases loaded brought the Padres from behind to victory in the first game. Olsen blanked the Beavers in the nightcap for his 17th win of the season.

Luis Marquez, Portland center-fielder, won a 75-yard foot race between games, finishing six feet ahead of San Diego's Orestes Minoso. The Padres' Al Smith was third.

San Diego returned to its winning stride, after losing to Portland yesterday. The double-win gave the Padres victory in 13 of their last 14 games.

Olsen allowed only three hits in besting Bob Drilling in a pitcher's battle. He also stopped the hitting streak of Marquez at 20 games.

At Seattle the Rainiers rallied for two runs in the sixth inning of the nightcap to snatch an 8-6 victory from the Sacramento Solons and sweep their doubleheader. They had taken the opener 4-3. The twin victory gave Seattle the series 4-3.

At Los Angeles, a 10th inning homer by Chuck Stevens gave the Hollywood Stars a 4 to 3 victory over Los Angeles in the second game of a doubleheader. The Angels won the opener, 6 to 4, and took the series, five games to two.

At San Francisco, Oakland and San Francisco today split a doubleheader, Oakland grabbing the nightcap, 5 to 1, and the Seals the series 4-3.
