

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

The Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Tuesday, August 22, 1939-6

TEST FOR MOTORCYCLE—A rider hurdles three other motorcycles during a test in the Bavarian Alps of a new type of motorcycle designed by Norbert Klotzel, German engineer.

SAND IS NO BARRIER FOR HIM—Jim Ferrier blasts up a wall of sand as he blasts from a trap on the 9th hole during Inverness invitational golf tournament at Toledo, O.

CHECKING FORM—Ballbirds watch as four-year-old harness racer Guy Leaf Patchen is put through a test by sharp-eyed Grace McDonald, secretary at the Detroit Race Track.

READY REFERENCE—Passersby look at a map of Korea erected by a Frankfurt, Germany, newspaper to give readers of his papers an immediate check on daily developments in the war.

BACK IN BUSINESS—Technicians work on plaster casts in the former Berlin State Museum which again is making copies of famous statues for world's museums and universities.

SWEDISH FAMILY TREE—Fifteen of her nineteen children mark their mother's 50th birthday near Stockholm. Four others are in army. Mother and father Lindstrom are at top.

WASHINGTON-SQUARE DANCE—U. S. Senator Theodore F. Green, of Rhode Island, (left) and his hostess, Mrs. Robert Kerr, lead an old-fashioned square dance at the western barbecue given by Senator Robert Kerr of Oklahoma, and Mrs. Kerr at Kenwood, Md., Country Club.

HEADS ENGINEERS—James P. Shields (above), 60, of Cleveland, was elected Grand Chief Engineer by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, an independent railroad union.

VIENNA LIGHTS UP—The exterior of the City Hall, in Vienna, Austria, is floodlighted before thousands thronging the square during a week-long Workers Sports Festival.

AWED BY A GODDESS—A youngster examines a giant head of goddess Juno in the former Berlin State Museum which again is making casts of famous statues for the world.

ROYAL PRESENTATION—Queen Elizabeth of England presents new colors to the Royal Irish Fusiliers at formal ceremony during her second visit to Northern Ireland.

OPENING A SPORTS FESTIVAL—A schoolboy lights the symbolic fire at the Berlin Olympic Stadium to start the second annual sports festival of the Berlin schools.

REMEMBERING A RETORT DISCOURTEOUS—Passersby in Brugno, Belgium, inspect the monument, dedicated July 15, honoring U. S. Maj. Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe, who answered "nada" to German demand he surrender his 101st Airborne Division in World War II.