Brooks, Cards Also Knocked Off in Pair

By Ralph Roden
NEW YORK, Sept. 4-(P)-There were no changes in the American league pennant race today and only a slight revision in the National league picture as all major league teams celebrated Labor Day by playing doubleheaders.

All teams in the American league divided twin bills while four teams in the National swept their holiday cards. The New York Yankees maintained their two-game edge over the Detroit Tagers in the American by splitting with the Phila-delphia Athletics. The Yanks won Suds, Galehouse Whack

Beyos in Opener, 10-0

The New York Giants pulled the most stunning upset of the day by blanking the National's leagueleading Philadelphia Phils, 2-0 and 9-0. The runnerup Brooklyn Dodgers failed to take advantage of the Phil rout by losing a doubleheader to the third place Boston Braves, 11-4 and 3-2. Cincinnati dealt the staggering St. Louis Cardinals another jolt by knocking off the Red Birds twice, 5-4 and 8-4. The last place Pittsburgh Pirates cleaned up the Chicago Cubs, 5-3 and 3-0.

Vic Raschi turned in his 18th ander shot a pair of sub-par rounds victory for the Yanks in the opener at the stadium with a neat seven-hitter. Johnny Mize poled his 18th homer to provide the win-Empire State Open golf tourna- ning margin.
