

Seattle Man Leads Slate For Senate

SEATTLE, Sept. 12 (AP)—The race for the republican nomination for U. S. senator from Washington appeared at midnight tonight to have narrowed down between a Seattle businessman and a former state legislator from Spokane.

The Seattle businessman, 49-year-old Walter Williams held a 16,940 to 9,799 lead in 931 out of 4,238 precincts. His opponent, Albert Canwell, picked up as late reporting eastern Washington districts came in and western Washington tabulations tapered off.

Three other candidates for the job of opposing incumbent democratic Senator Warren G. Magnuson trailed far behind and appeared to be out of the running.

They were Mrs. Janet Tourtellotte, Seattle, who had 7,959 votes; George Kinney, Seattle, 7,286; and Carl Viking Holman, Seattle, 2,745. None of the last three candidates was receiving an appreciable number of votes in the eastern Washington district.

Magnuson received 34,990 votes, some 10,000 behind the combined republican vote.

School Rolls Top by 208 Mark of 1949

Registration at schools in the Salem district was up 208 over opening-day figures Tuesday. Superintendent Frank B. Bennett reported to school directors last night.

There are now 7,888 students enrolled, and past experience indicates that figure will approach the 8,000 mark by late October, Bennett said.

The student body is 359 larger than on the second day last year. Most of the increase is in the elementary department which has more than doubled in the past 10 years.

High school, with 1643 pupils, is up 31 from last year but slightly smaller than a decade ago. Junior highs have 74 more students this year for a total of 1,843.

Three teachers will be shifted today to compensate for the vagaries of enrollment. Instructors from Grant will be transferred to West Salem and Washington grade schools, and one from Oswego will go to Auburn.

Superintendent Bennett said the overall picture is good although McKinley grade school is "bursting at the seams." Construction of four more classrooms is underway there.

Other grade schools with hefty increases are Salem Heights (45), Washington (68), Bush (33), Englewood (32) and Lincoln (34).

Grant school is down 20 from last year due chiefly to a small first-grade enrollment. Hayessville has only 8 first graders compared with 28 in 1949. They will share a room with some of the second graders.

School directors, in other business, decided to call for bids on additions at Richmond and Highland schools following the September 26 meeting of the board. Architect's plans will be submitted for a final check on that date. Exterior of the new construction will match the present buildings.

Directors also decided to have a dozen houses at the proposed site of a south Salem high school appraised before negotiating for their purchase.

They granted a request from the Labish rural school district that seventh and eighth graders attend school here as tuition students. They will go to Parrish junior high.

Milk Hearing Date Settled

PORTLAND, Sept. 12 (AP)—The state milk marketing administration today set Sept. 25 hearing date on a producer request for a 2 cent price boost.

The request was made by the pooling agents for most of the Portland area producers. They also want a change in allocating quotas and cancellation of the milk agency's acting as pooling agent for independent producers.

On the quota issue, the producers want quotas set on the basis of total weight of milk instead of solely on a butterfat basis.

Small Ships Feared Lost In Atlantic

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 12 (AP)—Rescue vessels criss-crossed the storm-lashed waters off south-western Nova Scotia tonight searching for two small ships. The engines of one were dead and most of her gear had washed away; the other has been unheard from since early this morning.

Two other 50-foot swordfishing vessels which had been caught in the fierce Atlantic hurricane which struck the south coast of the province were safe at Wood's Harbor, N. S., after battling through pounding seas and high winds with all hands bailing with buckets.

Still missing were the Nickerson and Sir Echo. Each carried six men.

Lashing seas and a thick fog hampered the search being conducted by Canadian and United States ships for the two missing vessels.
